Bishop Announces Dates For 2021 Annual Conference

January 21, 2021

West Ohio Conference Email

The 52nd session of the West Ohio Conference will be held Sunday June 6, 2:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m. and Monday, June 7, 8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. Bishop Palmer and the Planning Committee unanimously decided to hold a virtual conference since the COVID pandemic is still a serious concern. The theme of Annual Conference is “RUN THE RACE WITH PERSEVERANCE” based on the scripture Hebrews 12:1-3.

“A vaccination is here and brings great hope. However, it is unclear as to how many people will be vaccinated by June. So, we must forge on with our plans to care for the business of the annual conference,” said Bishop Gregory V. Palmer. “I have great hope and anticipation that we will come together again in a foreseeable future.”

Clergy Session

May 19, 2021 10:00am

Zoom Webinar from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

As we gathered online at 9:30am, music was provided by Rev. Justin Williams, Rev. Rachel Miller, and Dr. Kent Brooks. At 10am Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer welcomed everyone to our virtual clergy session via Zoom Webinar then called the Clergy Session of the 2021 West Ohio Annual Conference to order and opened our gathering with prayer. Rev. Meshach Kanyion, Vice-Chair of the Board of Ministry, led the Call to Worship based on Acts 2.

Reflection

The Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, Chair of the West Ohio Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, gave the homily on perseverance. She acknowledged how we are all wearing thin as we “just keep swimming” like Dory as we run a race of multiple pandemics without a finish line. To run and finish well, we must acknowledge we cannot do it alone, but are called to fix our eyes on Jesus, who suffers with us and runs alongside us and loves us to the finish line. Through Jesus we are connected, and we are not alone in this marathon of prophetic work.

As we turned to the work of the day, Rev. Dr. Allen encouraged us to think of the BAC as our prayer list, including those who aren't on the list who want to be. She then invited Rev. Kanyion to share the following Statement from the Board of Ministry about the Work of the BOM in Uncertain Times:

“Serving on the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOM) is a sacred honor. Along with other important tasks, we serve as the team responsible for helping candidates for ministry as they journey towards ordination. This work is done with grace, prayer, excitement, and seriousness. Lately the work of the BOM has had an extra layer of complexity added due to the liminal times in which we live. With the very real clouds of separation looming overhead, members of the diverse BOM struggle with how to serve faithfully in the present, while considering the prospects of the United Methodist Church in relation to LGBTQ persons. There is no consensus about the best way forward, but there is a shared hope that the work of General Conference (which has now been delayed 2 years) would create the space for us to work with more clarity towards a hopeful future. In the meantime, we have a shared commitment to live within the tension while extending grace to one another. We are making this statement because we believe it is important for those not on the BOM to have a sense of how the times we are now inhabiting are impacting the work that we do. With that understanding we ask for your continued grace and prayers that we may do the work of the BOM in faithfulness to the candidates, the church and to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Therefore, the West Ohio Board of Ordained Ministry will create a task force of no fewer than 6 members and no more than 8, with the express purpose of:

1. Reviewing our current board policy and process and making specific recommendations around being more hospitable, fair, and gracious to our LGBTQ candidates in terms of our process.
2. Working with the executive team to ensure adequate training on cultural sensitivity issues regarding the LGBTQ community.

This task force should represent a diverse spectrum of the BOM, including at least one person who identifies as LGBTQ, at least one person who pastors or attends a church that is reconciling, and at least one person who represents a more conservative viewpoint. This task force should bring their recommendations back to the BOM in time for the Fall Meeting in 2021."

Episcopal Reflections

Bishop Palmer thanked Rev. Dr. Allen for the worshipful framing for the day and invited us all to fix our eyes on Jesus. He acknowledged that it was not a dream to be virtual for a second year but honored the gift of a virtual gathering as we think about those globally who are challenged to meet whether in person or virtually.

Bishop then thanked our host church, Church of the Messiah in Westerville, their senior pastor Rev. Dr. Jim Wilson, and his team for their gracious and unending hospitality. Bishop thanked all staff, vendors and volunteers who make this virtual day possible, including GNTV and all who work with communications. He thanked the Annual Conference worship and planning teams, Donnetta Peaks and Susan Thomas from the Office of Ministry still hard at work, the officers of the Board of Ministry, Conference Secretary Amy Haines, and Linda Middelberg and the episcopal office staff not present this day. Bishop also spoke a word of thanks for the clergy and laity who serve on our conference and district committees on ministry for their shared work.

Bishop reminded everyone not to miss that afternoon the 3:30pm live stream of the service of commissioning and ordination. Then Bishop Palmer encouraged all clergy to tune in to the laity session during annual conference to show our willingness to partner with all members of the body. Finally, Bishop encouraged us to persevere and enjoy the day.

BAC Preparations

Conference Secretary Rev. Amy Haines called attention to the first page of the BAC for abbreviations as well as the guide of who is eligible for voice and vote. After a practice ballot led by GNTV staff, Rev. Haines motioned to allow clergy guests to be admitted without voice or vote, including those supporting the work of the Board of Ministry from the Episcopal Office, Office of Ministry, Communications Department, GNTV Staff and IT lay staff. She also motioned that the bar be set as those properly registered who have been permitted to participate on the Zoom Webinar, and moved that the Office of Ministry be given the authority to perfect the BAC.

Bishop Palmer invited the conference to offer virtual applause for all received under full membership by election or transfer. He then prayed for all received this day into provisional and full membership.

Rev. Amy Aspey asked for and received a moment of personal privilege.

"I rise to recognize those whom Rev. Dr. Allen noted are NOT here. In our baptismal vows, we promise to follow Jesus with our whole hearts WITH the church that Christ has opened for ALL people. In order to fulfill these sacred vows and to live into the hope of becoming an inclusive church, which is inherent in the disciplinary questions themselves for those seeking ministry credentials, it is important to recognize who is NOT fully participating today and ask, why?"

We acknowledge and lament that our LBGTQIA+ siblings are not participating in the fullness of our work. This is not because they are not called by God, have faith in Christ or are unfit for ministry. It is not that God is not calling, equipping and gifting our LBGTQIA+ siblings, it is that WE are denying them and ALL bear responsibility.

Not speaking about the pain inflicted by our beloved church, in the name of Jesus, does not make what is happening disappear. We cannot turn away. Today we lament that Angie Cox is not being elected into provisional membership as an elder for the THIRD time AND recognize that her call, gifts, and graces for ministry have been AFFIRMED by her Board of Ministry Interview team. Twice, she was told by team that the sole reason for denying her request was because of her sexual orientation.

This is the church that we are. This is not the church we have to be. There are multiple configurations of the future denomination emerging before us. We have done great harm. We are capable of greater good.

When we know why the called are absent, there is no time like the present to do the work and be the church, we promise in our baptism to be.”

Bishop Palmer thanked Rev. Aspey for her witness.

Celebration of Ministry Service
Wednesday, May 19, 2021
Church of the Messiah, Westerville

The Celebration of Ministry service was live streamed from the sanctuary of Church of the Messiah, beginning with music from Mr. John Holsinger and Ms. Devin Copfer. Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Planning Committee, offered words of welcome and informed the conference that services of memorial and retirement were being pre-recorded to be shown during Annual Conference in June.

Candidates for commissioning and ordination processed in to “Lift High the Cross” and “God of Grace and God of Glory.” Ordination banners filled the front of the sanctuary. Rev. Donnetta Peaks, Director of the Office of Ministry, and Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, chair of the Board of Ministry, offered the Call to Worship and an introduction to the service. Bishop Palmer then reminded everyone in person and online to remember their baptism.

Candidates were presented by conference Lay Leader Mr. Mitchell Harper and Board of Ministry members Mrs. Cathy Dorman, Rev. Steve Putka, and Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen then examined by Bishop Palmer. Our conference scripture, Hebrews 12:1-3, was read by Rev. Linda Middelberg, then Bishop Suzanne Dillahunt from the SW OH Synod of the ELCA offered a sermon titled “Put Your Running Shoes On.”

Bishop Dillahunt, who originally was to preach for Annual Conference 2020, shared her experience of entering her first ever virtual race and how she trained by walking in all kinds of weather. She invited the clergy in front of her and all online to keep going when our race gets hard, for we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses, we are called to be witnesses now, messengers of hope and restoration in word and action. Bishop Dillahunt called us to “wake up and witness,” faithfully telling the story of God. We do not have to win the race, because the race is already won in Jesus’ life, death and resurrection. Yet we are called to run the race and be bold in the Gospel. Following her sermon of encouragement, Mr. Johnny Steiner, accompanied by Mr. John Holsinger, sang “Guide My Feet/Lead Me, Guide Me.”

Two deacons and seven elders were commissioned. One deacon and nine elders were ordained. (Names listed on pages 197-199 in the BAC) Bishop Palmer honored the ministry of Deacons on this the 25th anniversary of the order of deacon and recognized that 68 persons have been ordained Deacon in West Ohio. The bestowing of the symbols of ministry was offered from four retirees to four newly ordained clergy.

To those watching online, Bishop invited those who felt the nudging of the Holy Spirit to enter an intentional time of prayer and discernment to hear where God is calling them to serve. The final song, “Go” was presented via video, a song commissioned by the Office of Ministry, written by Dr. Milton Ruffin, specifically for this service. Rev. Doyoung Park and Rev. Victoria Robinson offered the benediction, followed by a rousing postlude.

Episcopal Address - Part 1 Pre-recorded May 11, 2021 West Ohio Conference Center

Bishop Palmer shared an audio recording of Part 1 of his Episcopal Address to the Annual Conference on June 4, 2021. The full text can be found on page 229 of this Journal. Part 2 will be shared live during Annual Conference.

Bishop Palmer opened the Episcopal Address by acknowledging that we are once again experiencing Annual Conference in a different way as a result of the world-wide COVID-19 pandemic. As the pandemic has proceeded, we have learned to change, adapt and adjust – not just each of us personally, but also in our local churches as we embrace new possibilities for mission and ministry.

Bishop Palmer introduced the scripture from which the Annual Conference theme of “Perseverance” has come – Hebrews 12:1-2. He acknowledged that all of us – individuals and local churches – are exhausted and tired from the many impacts of the pandemic. We are so collectively tired from the effects of illness, absence of physical community, the violence we see in the news, on-going racism and political division that we are ready to throw our hands in the air and say, “I quit.”

The message of perseverance in the Hebrews passage can help us to remember the struggles of our spiritual ancestors and how they persevered. That by keeping our eyes on Jesus we will be able to live our lives in the Jesus way. It is human and natural to want to give up in the face of exhaustion, but we have been called to persevere in the face of obstacles with Jesus as our example.

Annual Conference Sunday, June 6, 2021 Zoom Webinar from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

Opening Video, Welcome and Call to Order of the 52nd West Ohio Annual Conference –
2:00 p.m. – Bishop Gregory Palmer

To set the theme of “Perseverance,” annual conference opened with a video of West Ohio Conference members running, walking, and wheeling to the tune “Guide My Feet.” Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer called to order the 52nd session of the West Ohio Conference and welcomed everyone to our virtual format from our host church. He then turned our attention to honoring those who have gone before us through the memorial service that was pre-recorded in April with some memorial families present.

Opening Worship – Memorial Service

Pre-recorded April 18, 2021

Church of the Savior, Cincinnati

The service began with a prelude on “Promise” and a greeting from Bishop Palmer. Mr. Jacob Hams led a Call to Worship followed by the hymn “O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing” led by vocalists Katie Riederer and Andrew Cunningham, accompanied by Dr. Brenda Portman. After an opening prayer Mr. Jacob Hams read our theme scripture, Hebrews 12:1-3.

Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Jennifer Lucas, Senior Pastor at Church of the Savior, and welcomed her to the pulpit. Rev. Lucas focused on the theme of endurance in ministry, first sharing an anecdote of her early inklings of call, then later remembering the challenges of doing ministry in the pandemic. She encouraged us to keep running our race with our eyes fixed on Jesus, remembering the great cloud of witnesses that surround us, including those named in this service.

Worship continued with a piano duet, followed by Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, Chairperson of the Board of Ministry, and Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Planning Team, reading the Roll Call of the Victorious for the prior two conference years. Clergy, spouses, children and laity were remembered, followed by a prayer for the saints by Bishop Palmer and a moment of silence for all who have been lost to COVID-19. Bishop Palmer led us in a time of prayer, interposed with reflective instrumental music of piano and cello, organ and voice. Our worship service closed with a benediction by Bishop Palmer followed a postlude by Dr. Portman.

Bishop Palmer returned to the livestream and shared personal remarks before inviting us to worshipful work and introducing Laura with GNTV.

Laity Session – 3:39 p.m

Presenters:

Conference Lay Leaders, Ms. Shannon Spencer and Mr. Mitchell Harper

Ms. Kim LaRue, Laity Discernment Retreats Leader

Mr. Sam Rodriguez, Director of Faith Formation & Community Engagement

Ms. Tracy Chambers, Director Lay Servant Ministries

Ms. Mariellyn Grace, Connectional Ministries Mission & Ministry Volunteer Coordinator

Mr. Mitchell Harper expressed appreciation for our Bishop, reflecting that it was a blessing to be together, albeit virtually. Ms. Shannon Spencer shared remarks about our challenges in the past year and how we have all had to pivot and persevere as the hands and feet of God. Mr. Harper introduced Ms. Kim La Rue, who spoke about laity discernment retreats which have been being held since 2019. She provided information and testimonials about the benefits of participation.

Ms. Tracy Chambers described our Lay Servant Academy of The West Ohio Conference. Certified Lay Ministers are assigned to serve in ministry by Conference Superintendents and are trained broadly for many various leadership roles. She then recognized the newest class of CLMS who completed the Academy virtually: Jack Hott (ORV), Glen Lash (ORV), Rebecca McLargin (MIV), John Ransom Jr (CAS), and JoAnne Clark (ORV).

Ms. Mariellyn Grace shared about her responsibilities and the challenges of travelling in mission and serving during the pandemic. Mr. Sam Rodriguez shared about his responsibilities and highlights related to his virtual ministry trainings including Connection Blueprint and Technology of Participation. Ms. Grace shared further about recruitment efforts and adjustments due to the pandemic, such as new policies for volunteers.

Mr. Rodriguez then invited Bishop Palmer to share remarks. Bishop Palmer reflected on Hebrews 12:1-2 and 11:39-40 and the words “not without us.” He encouraged our laity in local churches to take the partnership of laity and clergy seriously. We are interdependent and must see one another as partners. He encouraged laity to do three things:

- 1) Keep before all clergy their responsibility to preach, teach, equip, and develop systems to help us multiply impact
- 2) Multiply by bringing others along in ministry to extend the work of Jesus.
- 3) Do not depend on clergy to tell the salvation story, but boldly share their testimony and witness! Laity must always cultivate leadership by multiplying and rotating leadership.

In closing, Mr. Harper challenged all to activation, moving forward in ministry. Ms. Spencer then closed the Laity Session with prayers of thanksgiving, gratitude, and for perseverance, partnership, and leadership.

Cabinet Address (Pre-recorded) – 4:30 p.m. - Rev. Barry Burns, Dean of the West Ohio Conference Cabinet

Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Barry Burns, who shared the cabinet’s experience of serving in the pandemic. He lamented that in years past we have too often raised up consumers rather than disciples. These cracks have become chasms during the pandemic. He lifted up the challenges of gun violence, racism, and political divisiveness. He reminded us that while our mission has not changed, our methods have needed to change in wonderful ways. He recognized attrition among our clergy and the challenges of successful appointments in a shifting culture. The cabinet recognizes that the cabinet must minister differently in changing times. Nonetheless, the cabinet also recognizes God’s presence in times of uncertainty. He closed with an invitation to follow Christ into the future, wherever that may be.

Laity Address (Pre-recorded) – 4:40 p.m. - Conference Lay Leaders, Ms. Shannon Spencer and Mr. Mitchell Harper

Bishop Palmer introduced Ms. Spencer and Mr. Harper who addressed the Conference, again speaking of the challenges and blessings of the pandemic and the role of perseverance. Both Co-Lay Leaders shared encouragement related to self-care, particularly through friendships.

Episcopal Address, Part 2 – 4:50 p.m. – Bishop Gregory Palmer

Bishop Palmer began the continuation of his previously distributed recorded Episcopal Address by thanking his wife Cynthia for 45 years of ministry together as a married couple. He then expressed gratitude to our church leaders and expressed particular thanks to conference staff. The full text can be found on page 232 of this Journal.

Bishop Palmer explained that from July 1, 2021 to December 31, 2021 he will have presiding leadership over the Great Rivers Conference while their presiding bishop, Bishop Beard, is on medical leave. Bishop Palmer reminded us that he is an itinerant Elder and shared that he has never refused an appointment. He also shared that many bishops serve multiple appointments to multiple conferences. He noted that the prayer circle was growing wider for Bishop Beard and his spouse during this time of healing. He quoted Julian of Norwich, that “All shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well!” He then turned toward the reading of Hebrews 12 once more, encouraging us to persevere.

Bishop Palmer indicated that he will raise three missional questions to conclude his address:

- 1) Do you see who is with you on the journey? Do we see that we are not alone? Do we see our partners in ministry, or are we running this race alone? Do we see our communities? Do we really see Jesus, or do we just glance? Dr. David Puccini first expressed, and Bishop Palmer shared with us, that perhaps sin is rooted in a failure to truly see others. Who do we see on the journey?
- 2) What are we willing to get rid of in order to really be the church that Jesus needs at this hour? What are we willing to lay aside in order to be the church? Can we release our idolatries and our false gods, which could be our opinions and additions to having things our way? Perhaps our greatest obstacle is our “stuckness” on ourselves and the way we’ve been doing things in ministry?
- 3) To what lengths are you willing to go for the sake of Jesus Christ in the world? In Hebrews 12:3, we are reminded that Jesus suffered in order that we might have the encouragement to keep going through our own challenges. Bishop Palmer repeatedly admonished with the declaration of “Shame.” Shame that we have not yet truly suffered for the sake of the gospel, for our work in changing the world requires us to do uncomfortable things that threaten the status quo.

A short recess was taken at the conclusion of the address.

Call to Order – 5:35 p.m. – Bishop Gregory Palmer

Bishop Palmer expressed appreciation for Parliamentarian Rev. Jim Waugh, followed by appreciation for tomorrow’s Parliamentarians Rev. Don Wallick and Rev. Brian Gaff.

Legislation

Recommendation #1: Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations Calendar Year 2022 – 5:40 p.m.

– Rev. Paula Stewart and Mr. Bill Brownson

Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Paula Stewart, new Chair for Council on Finance and Administration and CFO Mr. Bill Brownson. Rev. Stewart presented remarks similar to her report on pages 15-16 of the Book of Reports, including how the Council assisted local churches in the pandemic with ministry grants.

Rev. Stuart reported data related to pandemic apportionment revenue, which was unpredictable throughout the year. Ultimately, there was only a 3% decrease in apportionment receipts overall. With PPP loans and reduced expenses, we finished in the black in 2020. The Audit Committee is hard at work to ensure audited financial statements will be included in our annual Journal and on the conference web site.

The Board of Pensions is not requesting funds this year. Rev. Stewart shared data that made it clear that overall revenue has decreased significantly since 2016. She thanked various leaders who assisted the board and closed by moving the adoption of Recommendation #1, which can be found in this Journal on pages 255-257. Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Karen Cook, who reminded us about our baptismal vows and that racism is a sin condemned in our church's teachings. She introduced Ms. Kate Warren, who shared remarks related to our church being required to be accountable as we acknowledge our responsibility in causing harm and perpetuating racism.

Rev. Fulgence Nyengele then spoke about the task force's goal to move from awareness of racism to meaningful action toward social justice. Anti-racism must be part of our daily spiritual practices and must move us toward recognizing the image of God in all. He then provided a series of challenging questions being asked by the task force to guide their work and invited the church to be a brave space for conversation. Rev. Cook concluded with brief closing remarks. Bishop Palmer expects that there will be an invigoration of the work in the upcoming year.

Recommendation #3 – 2022 Board of Pension and Health Benefits – 6:11 p.m. – Rev. Anna Guillozet

Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Anna Guillozet, new Chair of the Board of Pension, who shared about their team's focus on wellness, and their shift toward virtual education on a series of wellness-related topics. They have been receiving positive feedback about the relatively new EAP. And are always looking at creative options to decrease costs and improve services.

Rev. Guillozet shared information about the retiree medical plan transition from a Humana Medicare Advantage plan to an HRA (Health Reimbursement Plan), similar to her report that can be found on pages 19-20 of the Book of Reports. She emphasized that no retiree will be left behind as they search for additional health options for coverage. Rev. Guillozet moved the adoption of Recommendation #3 which can be found in this Journal on pages 259-262.

A question on housing allowance eligibility for clergy widows came from Brian Straub and was answered by CFO Mr. Bill Brownson. Rev. Robert Sholis, retired clergy, gave a speech against and Rev. Annual Conference

Monday, June 7, 2021

Zoom Webinar from Church of the Messiah, Westerville

Welcome and Opening Worship – 8:30 a.m.

Rev. Justin Williams opened the worship service with thanks and recognition of everyone helping with Annual Conference worship services. He reminded us that this year's Annual Conference Special Offering will be split between UMCOR and the West Ohio Disaster Relief Fund. Following a Call and Response set to "Guide My Feet", the worship band led us in song.

Bishop Palmer introduced Bishop Michael McKee of the North Texas Annual Conference whose sermon was entitled "This Season of Doxology" based on I Peter 1:3-9, which was read by Rev. Barbara Cooper.

Bishop McKee's pre-recorded sermon focused on v.6, ". . .even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials . . ."

He reflected that during the 2nd century there was a time pandemic and plague, yet Christian communities stayed with the suffering people of the cities to provide comfort and care to the suffering. We are heirs to these providers of comfort and care; this is our lineage as Christians even in the 21st century.

Bishop McKee pondered if future historians and Christians will look back on this time we are in and contemplate that our actions now have shown this to be our finest hour. That in the intersection of pandemic, racism, and an uncertain economy it will be seen that we persevered. No matter our location, we responded and did what Christ expected of us in this moment with gratitude for our relationship with Christ.

Through perseverance, without fear, Bishop honored the many of us who have met this moment and have learned that we will not go back to the way things were, but that we are living into a future of what we have done and what more we can do.

God meets us where we are, so we have nothing to fear. God and the saints are cheering us on. As we live by hope and prayer, we can do far more than we thought we could do, through the perseverance of our faith. This is a time and a season for doxology.

Introduction and Commissioning of Deaconesses

Bishop Palmer provided remarks about the history, mission and ministry of the office of Deaconess. Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner introduced each of the deaconesses to be commissioned:

- Cheryl Fox-Bender, MIV
- Jody Stevens, FTH
- Beth Vanoli, MIV

Following the liturgy, Bishop Palmer commissioned each new deaconess individually through the laying on of hands. After presenting the new deaconesses and praying over them, worship concluded with a hymn and a prayer from Bishop Palmer.

Call to Order – 9:45 a.m. – Bishop Gregory Palmer

After a short break, the Annual Conference was called to order with words from Bishop Palmer about the intention to provide educational opportunities to members of the Annual Conference about the order of Deaconess in response to questions submitted during the break.

Order of the Day: Corporate Session – 10:00 a.m. – Mr. Marlen Yost

Mr. Yost presented the Board of Trustees report, similar to his report on pages 17-18 of the Book of Reports and found in this Journal on pages 238. Mr. Yost shared remarks related to the 2021 work of the Board of Trustees which primarily focused on real estate matters and staying connected with our Affiliated Organizations.

Real estate matters include the Board of Trustees, CF & A and Camps and retreats working together to adopt a plan that will allow camps and retreat ministries greater control over multi-year major maintenance and capital planning. Additional real estate matters are concerned with closed churches. At any given time, the conference holds title to fifteen or more churches that are closed and in the process of being sold. Property management for these churches is administered by Conference staff and outside vendors. Trustees receive regular reporting that includes properties held, properties sold and what investments in mission have been made with sale proceeds. All proceeds from closed churches are deposited into the Closed church Fund and Conference Trustees have delegated spending authority from this fund to the Extended Cabinet.

Mr. Yost thanked Rev. Cyndy Garn for her leadership of the Real Estate Committee.

Affiliated Organizations - Our affiliated organizations include OhioHealth, the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, Life Enriching Communities, The Wesley Communities, Otterbein SeniorLife, Preachers' Relief Society and Christian Family Credit Union (formerly United Methodist Financial Credit Union). This group of important organizations has been in the middle of some of the most difficult challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, and we are grateful for their leadership and work in the midst of these very difficult circumstances.

Mr. Yost thanked Rev. Karen Muntzing for her leadership of the Affiliated Organizations Committee.

Investment Updates – The Board of Trustees is also entrusted with the monitoring of conference investments. In 2020, the Board of Trustees placed invested assets with the newly created United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio. The Foundation has continued the investment policies and oversight practices that have been in place since 2012. Conference Trustees are represented on the Foundation's Investment Committee and report quarterly on performance and oversight matters.

Archives – Ms. Janet Blocher represents the Board on the Conference Commission on History and Archives. West and East Ohio Conference archives are housed and maintained at Ohio Wesleyan University. Due to space constraints a strategy is being developed for the growing archive documents with both a system for the physical documents and a strategy for digitizing historical documents.

The Board is thankful to local churches for capturing and maintaining their histories.

Conference Chancellor – Conference Chancellor Chris Hogan keeps the Board of Trustees apprised of substantive legal matters. In October, Mr. Hogan participated in developing a denominational response to the bankruptcy proceedings of the Boy Scouts of America related to the historical allegations of sexual abuse and misconduct. Because the United Methodist Church is second only to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in the number of sponsored troops, there is an expectation that some filed claims will include United Methodist churches. The Trustees will continue to monitor this situation.

Closed churches – Mentioned previously in this report is the Board of Trustees responsibility for closed churches. This comes after a district superintendent recommends closure or reports abandonment and the Extended Cabinet concurs. Since our last Annual Conference, the following churches are recommended for closure due to abandonment or loss of missional connection:

Miami Valley District

- Bradford UMC
- Brighton UMC
- Clayton UMC

Ohio River Valley District

- Addyston UMC

- Incline Missional UMC
- Hartwell UMC
- Edenton UMC

Mr. Yost thanked members of the Annual Conference for their trust and prayers as the responsibilities of the Board of Trustees are carried out in support of the churches and ministries of the West Ohio Conference.

Mr. Yost moved the adoption of the Trustees report including the recommendations for church closures, the conclusion of the Corporate Session and to reconvene the session of the Annual Conference.

Recommendation #5 – Loved as the Image of God

Rev. Lori Reiber, on behalf of the West Ohio UMNNext Steering Team, presented and moved Recommendation #5 found on pages 68-69 of the Book of Reports and noted an editorial correction to the Book of Reports, p. 68, row 12: replace the uppercase "G" in the word "Global" to a lower case "g." Recommendation #5 can be found in this Journal on pages 263-264.

Rev. Andrea Curry, clergy, MWD, spoke for the recommendation.

Rev. Paul Risler, clergy, FTH, moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of moving to vote on Recommendation #5 without debate. David Miller seconded. Rev. Risler spoke to the request indicating that members of the annual conference session know their minds on this recommendation. Recommendation #6 – Call to West Ohio Annual Conference to Recognize and Validate Persons’ Calls to Ordination Without Prejudice Toward Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity

Rev. David Meredith, joined by Revs. Kevin Orr and Deb Stevens, presented and moved Recommendation #6 on behalf of the Central Ohio Reconciling Ministries Team, found on pages 70-72 in the Book of Reports and found in this Journal on pages 264-266.

After speeches for the recommendation from Steven Dunn laity, CAN, and Jason Wellman clergy, CAS, and a speech against the recommendation from Justin Fuhrmann clergy, ORV, Rev. Dennis Mohler clergy, CAS, moved consideration of Recommendation 6 to be postponed indefinitely. David Miller seconded.

The annual conference heard three speeches against the motion to postpone from Rev. Jim Waugh, retired clergy, Rev. Andy Burns, clergy, CAN, and Rev. Steve Putka, clergy, CAN. Kathleen Straub, laity, CAS, provided the only speech for the motion.

Closing Worship- Retirement Service
Previously Recorded on April 25, 2021
St. Andrews UMC, Findlay

Rev. Justin Williams opened the service with words of welcome followed by Rev. Donnetta Peaks leading the Call to Worship. The introit was offered by organist Mr. Dean Altstaetter playing "Toccata #5 (To God Be the Glory)." The opening hymn, "Forward Through the Ages," was sung by Ms. Matteson and Mr. Kanyion.

Bishop Palmer welcomed all present to the worship service, pointing out that there are 30 clergy entering into the retired relationship, and those clergy have almost 1,100 years of aggregate service in the United Methodist Church. He particularly thanked Rev. Deb Stevens, who not only is retiring, but is also the planning architect of the retirement service. Bishop Palmer then introduced and welcomed the preacher for the service, Rev. Rae Lynn Schleif.

Rev. Schleif preached a powerful sermon on the text of 2 Timothy 1:8-14 focusing on the Holy Calling of a life in ministry and the "good treasure" entrusted to those answering the call to ministry. Rev. Schleif pondered that retirement from formal ministry is different than retirement from a career in the secular world. The Holy Calling does not retire and is continually life-shaping. There are more fields of service not yet touched to encounter. She challenged the soon-to-be retired clergy to find what will be the next good treasure entrusted to each, and to be open to the fields of service not yet touched. She concluded with the thought that even though the 30 retiring clergy represent 1,071 years of aggregate service, they will be adding to that total in new and different ways in all the years to come.

The retiring clergy were then introduced one by one by Rev. Peaks and Rev. Kanyion. Those present at the service came forward in the sanctuary to receive words of encouragement from Bishop Palmer and Rev. Middelberg.

Bishop Palmer and Ms. Spencer offered a responsive liturgy of thanksgiving and affirmation for the retired clergy. After a prayer by Bishop Palmer, Mr. Henning, Ms. Matteson and Mr. Altstaetter shared a vocal selection including "Precious Lord, Take My Hand," and "Just a Closer Walk With Thee." Two of the recent retirees offered a response to the service and what is yet to come.

The closing hymn, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" was offered by Mr. Henning, Ms. Matteson, and Mr. Altstaetter. Bishop Palmer and Ms. Spencer offered a closing blessing with Bishop Palmer closing the service with a sending forth message echoing the words of John Wesley who stated "may the world be your parish." Mr. Altstaetter offered "Oh Happy Day" as a piano postlude.

from West Ohio Conference Center, Worthington, Ohio

I greet you in the strong name of Jesus, of Nazareth, the Lord's Christ and our Savior.

This is the second year for us thinking about and doing an annual conference in ways we had not imagined. And if we had ever imagined them, it was a long time ago.

For example, until the year 2020, I had never delivered an Episcopal address other than face-to-face with a live audience. 2020 changed all of that. And what was altered then is still altered for you and for me. We have been changed and we will be changed some more, not just for safety's sake, for health concerns, but changed for claiming the possibilities that have emerged out of this crisis. This is, of course, just as true for you in every local church and ministry setting, and it is true also outside of the precinct of the church and the churches. We are adjusting and we are adapting and we are creating. We are indeed co-laboring with the triune God in making all things new.

I would like to use this small window of time to offer, what I refer to, as Part One of this year's Episcopal address, partly out of deference to reducing the amount of time in one sitting that you have to look at a screen and I have to talk to you through this camera. And in Part Two, after this Part One, I will offer a more tactical approach to thinking about this year's Episcopal address. So today, foundation and framework, on June the 6th, Part Two, Tactics and Strategies.

Keep in mind, this continues to be new territory for all of us, so grace and mercy are welcomed friends on the journey.

Many a United Methodist Annual Conference has started with the singing of Charles Wesley's, "And Are We Yet Alive?" In many ways, some of the lyrics have never rung more true than they do now. "And are we yet alive and see each other's face? Glory and praise to Jesus give for His redeeming grace. Preserved by power divine to full salvation here, again in Jesus' praise we join, and in His sight appear. What troubles have we seen? What conflicts have we passed? Fightings without, and fears within, since we assembled last. But out of all the Lord hath brought us by His love; and still, he doth His help afford, and hides our life above. Then let us make our boast of God's redeeming power, which saves us to the uttermost, 'till we can sin no more. Let us take up the cross 'till we the crown obtain; and gladly reckon all things loss, so we may Jesus gain."

We do indeed see one another's faces these days, albeit often in little digital boxes. I rejoice with you that caution, care of neighbor, vigilance, and vaccines have now made it more possible for us to come out from behind our screens to worship and study and fellowship and serve in person, even if it must be in smaller doses and smaller configurations. And speaking of smaller doses, we are, of course, not yet at the place to bring together 2,000 plus people into one auditorium. But keep hope alive. I have every expectation that in 2022, the West Ohio Annual Conference, we'll convene primarily in person, though perhaps, not exclusively.

What do I mean by that? We do not yet know how great the need is for reasons of safety or mission to create more hybrid environments for our work together. What I can assure you of, is that the Annual Conference Planning Committee and your conference staff have been and will continue to be vigilant in these matters. The aforementioned hymn helps to set the tone for us, but no more than the theme of perseverance, which leaps from it. Which is based on the biblical texts from the book of Hebrews chapter 12, verses one and two. Hear how it reads in the New Revised Standard Version. "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely. And let us run with perseverance, the race that is set before us. Looking to Jesus, the pioneer and the perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God."

I happened to have looked at this text in the King James Version, the New Revised Standard Version, the New International Version, the Common English Bible. And what I noticed was, that in the place where some translations, like the NRSV, use the word, perseverance, other translations, like the Common English or CEB, used the word, endurance. And in other iterations still, what is perseverance in one place, endurance in the same place. In another translation, the word comes across as, patience. Perseverance, endurance, patience.

And then I looked at the rendering of Eugene Peterson from the Message, and this is how it reads. "Do you see what this means? All these pioneers who blazed the way, all these veterans cheering us on, it means, we better get on with it. Strip down, start running, and never quit. No extra spiritual fat, no parasitic sins. Keep your eyes on Jesus, who both began and finished this race that we are in. Study how He did it because he never lost sight of where He was headed. That exhilarating finish in and with God. He could put up with anything along the way, cross, shame, whatever. And now He's there in the place of honor, right along side God." Perseverance, endurance, patience, never quitting.

There are many ways in which the book of Hebrews is complex and tricky, so the scholars tell us. Its authorship is not absolutely certain. There is not always a clear picture of who is the intended audience. Is it an epistle or is it a sermon? But what is really clear about the book of Hebrews, is that it is a word intended to encourage the hearts and minds of the weary and the faint of heart.

Dr. Tom Long puts it this way. "The preacher is not preaching into a vacuum.", he says. "He is addressing a real and urgent pastoral problem. One that seems astonishingly contemporary. His congregation is exhausted. They are tired of serving the world. They are tired of worship, tired of Christian education, tired of being peculiar and whispered about in society, tired of the spiritual struggle, tired of keeping their prayer life going." End of Dr. Long's quote.

The comparisons to our contemporary weariness are down right eerie. We are tired of living with the fear and anxiety of disease. We are tired of wearing masks. We are tired of looking at screens. We are tired of not having the physicality of community. We are tired of the extra work a pandemic brings with it. We are tired of the violence that explodes off of the screen from our homes, communities, and far away places. We are tired of the disregard of black and brown bodies. We are tired of unresolved, unreconciled racism, and white supremacy. We are tired of the political divides that have torn this nation into some shreds. We are tired of a church that has lost its way, missionally, and is on the edge of schism.

You can fill in your own list of things that you are tired of on this journey. We are tired friends and some moments and days, we want to give up, and we want to quit. Dr. Long contends along with other studies... students and scholars of the scriptures, that this was a weary community. They were pressed from within and from without. They were tired, they were weary. They were exhausted with all that it meant for them to be faithful to the God who had revealed God's self in Jesus Christ in their time and in their place. And we too, are tired.

I can hear those words from our sister in the struggle for justice and righteousness in America, Fannie Lou Hamer, who declared, "We are sick and tired of being sick and tired." I wonder if I have any witnesses out there in digital space. But she took her sick and tired self and parlayed that sickness and tiredness with injustice and lack of righteousness and disrespect and shaming, and parlayed it into energy to keep on keeping on in the struggle for justice.

So the question is begged of us in our time and place in the face of our weariness and our exhaustion and our tiredness, what will we do with our sick and tired selves? Will we stop being who we've been called to be? Will we quit? Will we wave some proverbial flag? Will we surrender? Will we say, "I'm done."? Will we just walk away from the work, from God, and from one another? Or will we choose to stay on task?

Let me assure you that there is no shame in naming weariness. There is no shame in naming what we are tired of, what is frustrating, and what is exhausting. In biblical terms, the category would be, lament. The psalmist was good at this. It shows up in other places in the Bible. People lament, they mourn, they grieve over what's not right. They lament, they mourn, and they grieve because they see something that could be better and could be different.

The only question before us is not, are we tired? And are we weary of that long litany of things that I shared, whether from Tom Long or from Greg Palmer? The question is, what will we do with that, after we've said it out loud, after we've said it in the precincts of our own hearts, in the privacy of our own homes, individually? And what will we do after we've said it to one another?

The texts that shapes our theme and gives us some huge clues about perseverance, we turn to now. Now I started with chapter 12, verses one and two. That's the text, that's the logo you've seen of perseverance, of people running in the race. But it cannot be fully understood without turning to chapter 11, where there is a long litany and listing of some of our spiritual ancestors and of their faith. There is no attempt to sanitize their stories or to make them into perfect people. But there is every effort to see that there are positive, redemptive outcomes of their lives of faith all along the way. Time will not permit me to read all of chapter 11 and take you through all of that, but it is there.

Their stories remind us that we are not the first to walk this journey, to toil and to struggle to be who God has called us to be. We're not the first to get tired, to feel frustrated, to be scandalized, to think we're getting it wrong, and to wonder what's wrong with us. No, this word of encouragement, this homily of pick me up to the Hebrews, is about speaking precisely to the kind of context and situation in which we find ourselves in the church writ large, in the United Methodist Church in this nation, and in all of the places where United Methodism finds itself.

We do not even have to go back as far as some of these biblical heroes and sheroes. In our own family stories, we have seen and heard stories of perseverance that inspire us, even now. And I speak not of something long ago in your own family history and tree, but people all around you who struggle on with dignity and purpose each and every day, because something larger is calling them into the future.

There are stories and there are people who surround us with their stories of perseverance, of resilience, of persistence in the face of obstacle. And we admire them because they keep going. I can hear the words of Langston Hughes, who, in the poem, "Mother to Son" says, "Son, life for me ain't been no crystal stair." If you don't know it, it would be well-worth five minutes for you to find it, read it, memorize it.

You will see during our session of the annual conference, videos that have been made by our communications department of people here in West Ohio, in real time who have been willing to share their stories of how they are coming through this season of crisis. They will name their own struggles, their own crises, the pandemic dominates it. But it's not the only narrative because we live in the midst of multiple pandemics. All around us are these people and their stories, from the biblical figures to people in our families, to people in our neighborhoods, to brother and sister Christian United Methodists in West Ohio. We are invited to see ourselves in the struggle and to see that we are not alone.

Can you hear the words now, that the preacher intends, seeing then that we are just about, that we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses? I can hear the hymn writers saying, "I've seen the lightning flash and I've heard the thunder roll. I felt sins breakers dashing, trying to conquer my soul, but I heard voice of Jesus say, 'Still to fight on. I'll never, I'll never, I'll never leave you alone.'" If you get nothing else, get this word. In this struggle, pandemic or not, we have never been, we are not now, and we will never be alone on the journey of becoming the beloved people and community of God.

The second thing that the writer of Hebrews counsels us, is to keep our eyes on Jesus. The writer refers to Jesus as, the author and finisher, the pioneer and the Perfector. He lets no obstacle deter Him from His goal, which was nothing less than the complete redemption of all that is. In Wesleyan terms, we refer to it as, new creation. Keep your eyes on Jesus. Sometimes, Saints, we act like who Jesus is, is elevator music, rather than something we should literally, intently, and in a focused way, be listening to all the time, drilling down deep, peeling back the layers, looking at Jesus, listening to Jesus, seeing Jesus, feeling Jesus. And discerning more deeply His way, who He was, and who He is, and in turn, who He is inviting us to be.

Do you remember 15, 20 years ago, everybody was walking around with one of those little rubber things that have words on them that you put around the wrist? By the way, they never fit me very well, so I never wore one. But that's another story for another day. WWJD, what would Jesus do? I've often wondered, not just in the living of my own life, but I wonder how seriously we take that, or was it just a fad? Was it just something that awakened like a flash storm for a moment, but we didn't drill down deep enough. We didn't put that question about, what would Jesus do, and put it alongside of all of the painful realities of life. The injustices, the economic disparities, the violence, and the pain and the suffering with which people live and with which we are sometimes complicit, even though we are not always aware of our own complicity.

To ask that question, what would Jesus do, is an invitation. It's a way of keeping our eyes on Jesus, and wondering and applying as much as we can come to understanding His life, His way of being to our context and to our situation about justice and righteousness and salvation, about love, and about relationships and about the nature of community. And so I ask you this, if our eyes are on Jesus, and even though we're wobbly and we're struggling and we're a little weary, I wonder out loud, is there anything large enough and important enough to pull us into God's preferred future?

That's really the missional question we need to be struggling with, when we look at Jesus, when we look at the saints who are surrounding us in the stadium, so to speak. Is there anything, is the reign of God, is justice here and now, is the reign of God here and now? We pray that when we pray the Lord's Prayer or the Disciples Prayer. Thy kingdom come on earth, as it is in heaven. We could stop right there, because that's a vision large enough to capture our imagination, anew and afresh as to what's possible. That God's reign, God's sovereignty, God's way of being in community and related to one another, and to God is large enough for us to be shaped by it rather than our trying to shrink it down and reshape it into something more palatable and comfortable for ourselves.

So, how will we persevere? Will there be a mission out in front of us that calls us into the future? And do we have the faith Hebrews 11, and the courage, all suffering, not withstanding, to say that, no matter what we are not turning back? Not turning back to living lives in a different way, but being called into living them in the Jesus way, who quite frankly, sometimes gets on each and every one of our nerves. Because He has the unmitigated nerve to ask us to be in loving, compassionate, merciful, and grace-filled relationships with people that we frankly just don't like.

But His way does call for us to inconvenience our preferences, and our egos for the larger vision of beloved community, of just relationships. It calls for us to release some of what we have, in order that others might just have something. It causes us not to not be who we are, but to be the very best selves that we can be. And we must persist in the doing, because at the end of the day, while it is wonderfully human, it's somewhat natural, it's a little bit instinctive, given up, quitting on God and one another, and on this world that God loves so much that God gave the son, is not who we have been called to be.

We have been called to be those who persevere, even in the face of obstacle and inconvenience. You know I turn to the song traditions, and there are many of them, of the Christian community across time. But I have a deep fondness for some of those songs that are referred to as, African American Spirituals. And I can hear one now, as I prepare to close this. It's words are simple. They are about persevering, they are about endurance, they are about patience, they are about holding on. The words say, "Hold on. Hold on. Keep your hand on the plow and hold on. Keep your hand on the plow and hold on."

What a fabulous metaphor of perseverance, that there might be some livestock out on the other end of that plow, pulling and jerking. And the ground is uneven. But if you're going to plow a straight row or an intentionally curved row, you got to hold on to where the plow and the earth and the animal, and we might say, the Spirit, and the world, and life are taking us. Keep your hand on the plow and hold on. Amen.

Live feed from Annual Conference Session at Church of the Messiah, Westerville, Ohio

Dear friends in West Ohio. Greetings again in Christ Jesus. Thanks for the opportunity to visit with you for a few moments this evening. Cynthia and I continue to be delighted to serve among you. And we are just pinching ourselves even as we were talking at breakfast this morning, about how long we have been in West Ohio. This is our longest assignment. And I assure you that my next assignment, our next assignment and posting will be outside of itineration and Episcopal Ministry. But right now, we are along for the ride and we are enjoying the journey. When we have been physically together for annual conference, just two years ago can you imagine that, we have been able to recognize both myself, but more especially, and more importantly, Cynthia. And I am grateful to her for 45 years of marriage and wedded bliss.

I don't think she knew she was going to be on camera and had I told her in advance, it would've taken her that much longer to get ready to come out today. But I want to thank you, dear, as I join and lead the people of West Ohio in thanking you for your remarkable faith, your life in Christ through prayer, your leadership. And most of all, your support of me that allows me to serve the people of West Ohio and of The United Methodist Church. And as it has been through every local church setting where we were stationed together, your faith and your consistency are an inspiration minute by minute, hour by hour, and day by day.

On multiple occasions, dear friends, it has been my joy to thank all of you for the fabulous way in which you have pivoted, adapted, and innovated, especially in the last 15 months. You have been remarkable in your perseverance. I am awed and I am humbled when I look at and think about all that you and we have gotten done in this season of crises when we have managed and juggled and made our way through, at least in part, multiple pandemics, some more of the natural order and others of the human made kind. My gratitude for what I see in local church settings and other ministry settings about how you have navigated this is also joined by my gratitude and my sense of awe and humility when I look at what our conference staff of those both at 32 Wesley Boulevard in Worthington and our deployed staff in the districts, at our camp sites, and in innumerable ministry settings. Thank you to each of you and all of you.

And speaking of assignments, of pivoting, of nimbleness, a couple of weeks ago, you received word from me that I would be taking on an additional short term assignment, namely to provide Episcopal oversight for the Illinois Great Rivers Conference from July 1 of this year through December 31st, 2021 while Bishop Beard is on a medical leave. This is not work that I sought. I am fully engaged here in the Ohio Annual Conference. However, I would want you to know the following. I am an itinerate elder in the United Methodist Church. I happen to be serving as a general superintendent, but I want to underscore at least for the elders that I am an itinerate elder. And I trust that those who have taken on holy vows to be itinerate elders.

This is not about anything limiting other clergy, but itinerate elders have taken on a vow. I know we live out those vows in the midst of other commitments, but we have got to figure out how we move together. And that was implicit and explicit in the cabinet address. So that's number one. Secondly, in light of that, I have never refused the appointment of any bishop nor have I ever refused the assignment of the North Central Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy and the delegates lay and clergy who vote on their recommendation about the assignment of bishops. Now, I'm nothing special. I've got all the warts that everybody else has. I'm merely reciting the record of how I responded when the call came about this additional assignment.

The other thing that sobered me is, and that you need to know, I'm not the only United Methodist Bishop serving more than one conference. For some bishops, they know nothing else. Especially our colleagues in the central conferences who serve multiple annual conferences. Three is the minimum. I think of the colleagues in the Philippines, most of whom have four and five annual conferences. I think of my colleague, Bishop Patrick Stripe of Central and Southern Europe who has United Methodist conferences that are spread across 14 at least sovereign nations. What I'm doing friends is no big deal. This is not about inflating this, this is about letting some air into the room. This is no big deal.

When I see myself in league with these colleagues who labor across national boundaries, political boundaries, so forth and so on. And to speak nothing of the clergy of this annual conference who serve multiple point charges and the congregations that are on multiple point charges, have been forever and ever, amen, and maybe into the future.

So you, West Ohio, are not the only conference that is sharing a bishop in this particular season. Further, both the West Ohio Conference and the Illinois Great Rivers Conference have superb staff and excellent volunteer leaders. This is the connection at its best. When the need is there, we can respond in faith. And dare I say with thanks giving, which is why I was so humbled by the video we had from Sister Betty in North Katanga about joy and hope in the midst of suffering. There's nothing about this in which I consider that I am suffering or that Cynthia's suffering. We are honored and privileged to serve. And in this case, to serve again for a short while a conference that loved us, at least as much as you do. What a privilege to literally widen the circle of prayer for Bishop Frank and Mrs. Melissa Beard, as they adjust to some new health realities for Bishop Beard.

I assured Bishop Beard by voicemail today that I was widening the prayer circle ever so wide across our nearly 1000 churches and asking all of you to join me in this season, not only in praying for the Illinois Great Rivers Conference, but specifically for the Beard's. That they will have positive outcomes, they will make a necessary adjustments and in turn have asked those folks to be praying for you in West Ohio. I count on you to pray for the Beard's and for the Saints in Great Rivers, as they are already praying for you.

Finally, just this section, don't get excited. I'm not done yet. I want to quote our sister in the Lord from centuries ago, Julian of Norwich, in her revelations of divine love where she said a lot but this phrase that leaps out, "All shall be well." And she says again, "All shall be well." And she continues, "And all manner of things shall be well." What a way to live, what a way to pray.

I want to turn quickly to a word about our theme for this annual conference, you have heard it multiple times already today about perseverance and about the readings from Hebrews. You'll hear it, not only in these next few moments, but across our time tomorrow, that is by design and with every bit of intention. So hear these words again, "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us. Looking to Jesus, the pioneer and the perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God."

Now that's where our capstone verses ended in terms of setting the theme for this annual conference, but not the message of the preacher in Hebrews. Hear verses three and four, "Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood." Several hundred of you, I understand, really nearly a thousand, have taken the time to listen in part or in whole to the audio version of Part one of this year's Episcopal Address. The good news of that, whether you liked it or didn't like it, whether you heard it or didn't heard it, it will make this part of it, Part two, a lot shorter. But thank you for tuning in.

Sometimes Episcopal addresses here and throughout our annual conferences have been used in a variety of ways. Sometimes to paint a narrative based on statistical data. Sometimes to cast a vision for some new or big direction or project to be undertaken. Sometimes to rehearse all of the good that the organization, in this case, the annual conference has accomplished in the past. You have experienced all of these.

Today, I want to use my remaining time to simply raise three missional questions for our continued pondering for the next season. I have no expectation that they can be answered today or tomorrow. My hope is that if they are anywhere near being some of the right questions that we need to ask and answer, that we will answer them with our lives with our life together and with the ministry that we do together in this annual conference.

Our text says, if you go to the King James version, in the 12th Chapter of Hebrews, it begins by saying, "Wherefore seeing that we are compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses." The other translations have dropped some of the formality of the wherefore. And that notion of seeing, "Wherefore, seeing that we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses." I want to stick a quarter in the meter and just stop there for a moment. And the first question is on this wise, I ask you, and the question is asked of me, do I see all of those around me who are sharing this journey of missional ministry, who are walking with Jesus, who are engaging their discipleship?

And what I want to underscore is the question of seeing. When the writer or preacher put these words together, albeit we get it in the English version in a variety of translations, he or she picked up after that long litany in chapter 11, the faith hall of fame. And it talked descriptively about varying ways in which men and women of the faith had lived out their lives in faithfulness and lived by faith. And brings us right to the stage of saying in effect, "In the light of this and of all of these, wherefore, seeing that we are compassed about by so great a cloud of witnesses. Seeing that we are not alone." So I ask you, do you see the others, both mystically and mysteriously, some who are no longer on terra firma, but dwell with the saints in light. Do you see them? Do you see the people who are your partners in ministry in all of the settings where you practice your ministry? Or do you see yourself running this race alone? Are we alone? Could you ever run a race like this if you work truly alone? Do we really believe that God and the saints are with us, or are we mostly functional atheists and we think it's all about us and all up to us? Or, back to seeing, do we see our neighbors? Do we see our communities? Do we see the struggles of people near and far who are crying out for life and for opportunities to thrive. Or let me go on in the text, where the text invites us to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the one who is the pioneer and perfecter of our faith. Do we really see Jesus? Or as the Reverend Suzanne Allen said in her homily at the clergy session on May the 19th in reflecting on this text, are we merely glancing at Jesus?

Are we taking a look at Jesus every now and again? Oh yeah, he's a good reference point. Or as the text invites us, do we see him, and are our eyes fixed on Jesus? Dr David Pacini, who just took his retirement from the faculty of the Candler School of Theology at Emory University, one of our United Methodist seminaries, said in a recent conversation where I was humbled to be in the midst with him, who was speaking to about a half-dozen of us by invitation of one of my Episcopal colleagues. And he began to talk with us about the future, and some of the things that were hindering our life in the church, our life in this nation, our life in seeking justice and righteousness in the world.

And this brilliant theologian said something so profound, but so simply that one could not miss it. And I've not been able to shake it now for almost three months. He said that it was his conviction, that the root of all of our sin was actually a failure to see. And then he went into, and invited us into a discussion about all of the things that we don't see, or the ways in which we wrongly see. For example our neighbors, but we don't see them as neighbors, we see them as commodities.

He said that all of our sin can be rooted in our failure to see. Occasionally someone will say to me something like, "Thank you, Bishop, for seeing me." Hm. We all need to be seen. And we need to know that we are seen. Not so much with the scrutiny that gives us a sense of nervousness, like we might stumble, fall, and fail. Not as if God or anyone else is waiting for us to fail, but that people are looking on us in hope and expectation that we actually succeed.

The saints that surround us, the angels, Jesus sitting at the right hand of the Majesty on High is looking upon us, is seeing us. And all that is pouring forth from the balconies of glory, but also with the people around us who are our partners in ministry, is the hope and the expectation that we'll actually be faithful and that we will persevere.

I see you. I know I am seen. And while that may have an element of scrutiny about it, I am reassured that I'm not alone. And I see Jesus, though perhaps not always as clearly as I ought to. And sometimes I can hardly keep my gaze on him, because living up to being who he needs me to be seems so difficult. And yet everything I need to be what he's asked me to be, I've already seen in his life, his death, and his resurrection. And sometimes I see it in you, the saints of West Ohio around me. When you act in such just, and charitable, and generous, and kind, and faithful ways. Thanks be to God. Let's see one another. And so I ask you, who do you see on the journey?

The text goes on to say, "Let us lay us aside every sin and weight that clings so closely." So the question is, what are we willing to get rid of in order to really be the church that Jesus needs in this hour?

"Let us lay aside the sin and the weight that clings to us so closely, that encumbers us, that holds us back, that makes us stumble and fall." You may train with weights around your ankles for the great race, but you don't run the race with them on. Any weights that you and I have on in the race of faith, life, and discipleship are mostly self-imposed. But sometimes they are socially imposed. And so the question of, what are we willing to lay aside to get rid of in order to really be the church is teased out with the following; can we release, West Ohio, United Methodists, Christians, can we release our idolatries and false gods? Which all too often are our opinions and our addictions to having things our way.

Could we lay aside that sin and weight? Or maybe our greatest sin is our stuckness, when we say we've never done it that way before. Let me tell you, in the last 15 months you have been doing stuff you never thought you would do or could do, and you found you needed to do it or you would have been less than faithful. Could the sin and weight we need to lay aside be our stuckness on ourselves, and the way in which we've been doing things in ministry? Not just in the local church, but in the United Methodist Church, and in the churches writ large. If we pay attention to the data of what makes people engage, come and go, whether virtually or physically, all of the messages and the signs are there. But until we can release our false gods and get our eyes back on Jesus, we will always be encumbered with sin and weight that will keep us from going as fast or as far as we need to go.

Had the Apostolic Church not adapted, just read the book of Acts. We might never be here.

We might never be here, had they never adapted, had they never pivoted, had they never innovated. After all, the whole Jesus movement and the church was a pivot and adaptation and an innovation on some things that had come before they represented new things, but they poured out of the heart of God that had been yearning for that kind of people across the generations. In verse three of Hebrews 12, we find these words, "Consider him who endured such hostility against himself from sinners, so that you may not grow weary or lose heart. In your struggle against sin, you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood."

Now, this is not about our being macabre, but it is a part of keeping our eyes on Jesus and actually reflecting upon how much he gave, how much he suffered in order that we might have the encouragement to not give up, to grow weary, or to lose heart, the encouragement to persevere. Or as brother Harper just said, "The encouragement to keep going through, to press our way."

So in our struggle, we have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood. When I think about some of those in the hall of fame in chapter 11, when I think of people in generations before me and their struggles, just to be treated like human beings in this nation, just to exercise their faith, to speak nothing of going globally, I'm saying, I've got it so easy, it's embarrassing. It doesn't actually cost you and me here in the Western hemisphere, in the United States of America in a formerly mainline denomination, doesn't cost us much to say, "We are Christians." There's no threat to our lives, to which I say, "Shame, shame, shame." We ought to be doing work that is so important that our lives would be threatened because we had so upset the status quo of the principalities and powers that are at work in this world, subjugating people and inflicting continuous suffering upon them.

No, I have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood. And may I confess you? I pray sometimes, that I'll never have to shed blood for Jesus. Shame on me. To look in the face of the one who gave so much for all of us, that I should be less than willing to suffer for His cause. The hymn writer said, "Am I a soldier of the cross? A follower of the lamb?" It's a question that I still need to answer.

Brian Stevenson of the Equal Justice Initiative says that, "Our work in changing the world, that sometimes it requires us to do uncomfortable things." This is one of his four pillars of doing justice work. And we should, in doing those uncomfortable things, expect push back. In other words, as we persevere in doing good things and pick up on Paul's admonition to the Galatians, not to grow weary in doing what is right, we should expect that there will be resistance. But when I go to the gym and lift weights, that shouldn't be able to be lifted, it is the resistance that makes me stronger. It is the resistance that keeps my loins girded up. It is the resistance that sharpens my resolve and renews my commitment to the task.

So in doing the work of Jesus, in doing the work of justice and righteousness and salvation and peace, we are called upon to do some uncomfortable things. And we need only look at these verses in Hebrews 12, three and four, and ask of ourselves, "To what lengths are we willing to go for the sake of the mission for justice to spring forth, for everybody in this world to have enough of many of the things that some of us have the privilege of take for granted?"

And so in our work of perseverance, I leave you with these three questions. I cite no statistics tonight. I paint no grand vision and offer no big project for you to take up. This is project enough. Do you see who is with you on the journey? What are you willing to get rid of in order to really be the church? And to what lengths are you willing to go for the sake of the mission of Jesus Christ in the world? In the name of God, who creates, who redeems, and who sustains us by God's own Holy Spirit, amen.

B. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Presented by: Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, Chair

As 2020-2021 marked the transition from one quadrennium to the next, the West Ohio Conference Board of Ministry marked this transition as well, first by giving thanks for the faithful service of chairperson Rev. Brian Law and many board members as they completed their term of service, and then welcoming approximately 30 new board members along with a new executive team.

The executive team for this quadrennium includes: Rev. Suzanne Allen, chair, Rev. Meshach Kanyion, vice-chair, and Rev. Steven Putka, secretary. Rev. Therese Lehman serves as the new chairperson of the Conference Relations Committee.

The impact of Covid-19 offered both significant challenges and opportunities for innovation related to the work of the Board of Ministry. While the in person national training hosted by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry was cancelled, they adapted and offered that training in a virtual format, allowing new BOM leadership to receive training in a more cost and time efficient manner. Similarly, the West Ohio BOM was able to gather by Zoom in a cost and time efficient manner for several orientation and training sessions leading up to our 2021 interviews. These trainings helped new members to be well prepared for the nature of the work and the technology needed in a virtual format.

The training was a helpful reminder of the extent of the work of the Board of Ministry. The description of this work can be found in The Book of Discipline paragraph 635.1a-z.

The highlights of this work include enlistment and recruitment of clergy leadership, theological education, mentoring, examination, interviews and recommendations, standards for evaluations, providing support services for ministers, administering the Ministerial Education Fund, and partnering with GBHEM.

All of this work is done in conjunction with the West Ohio Office of Ministry under the excellent direction of Rev. Donnetta Peaks with the invaluable assistance of Ms. Susan Thomas. Because of their high capacity leadership, all West Ohio programming related to credentialing including The Candidacy Summit for inquiring ministry candidates, Local Pastor Licensing School, The Crucible experience for provisional candidates, the Commissioning and Ordination Service, onboarding a new exec team and BOM members, and the BOM interviews and plenary were able to be accomplished by means of a virtual format from March 2020 to the present. We are extremely thankful for all they have done so that this important ministry could continue even with the constraints of the pandemic. The pilot program of the REF 8-year clergy assessment and renewal program was put on hold due to Covid-19 but will be resumed as soon as possible.

After much careful consideration and preparation, the 2021 BOM interviews and plenary were held successfully in a virtual format. Twenty-four candidates were interviewed for provisional or full membership as Deacons and Elders. We were blessed to hear the candidate's stories of God's call in their lives and their witness in the local church and other ministry settings. We were pleased to recommend 19 of the candidates to the Clergy Session of the Annual Conference for commissioning or ordination. These candidates come to the Annual conference for commissioning and ordination.

The BOM could not do this work of interviewing without the faithful work of our 8 District Committees on Ministry. They meet regularly in each district throughout the year to help candidates discern the call to Certified Lay and Licensed Local ministry as well as to Ordained Ministry. They certify and license Local Pastors and Certified Lay Ministers regularly and recommend those who are ready and called to the Board of Ordained Ministry. A special thanks to those who serve as the chairs and registrars of our DCOMS across the West Ohio Conference.

We celebrate and give thanks to God as we recognize those who have reached and been affirmed at these significant points in their ministry:

Commissioned for Provisional Membership on track toward Deacon:

- Hannah Ewald
- Angela Schroeder

Commissioned for Provisional Membership on track toward Elder:

- Mary Cheeseman
- Melissa Hart
- Audrey McClain
- Greg Miller
- R. Kevin Hall
- James Jennings
- Dominic Mejia

Approved for Full Membership and Ordination as Deacon:

- DoYoung Park

Approved for Full Membership and Ordination as Elder:

- Julie Alsip
- Clara Kwon
- Victoria Robinson
- Jennifer Bass
- Ernest Ologo
- Alex Wiles
- Jessica Cavinee
- Vincent Pontius
- Joshua Wynn

Licensed Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study:

- Robert Adams (MIV)
- Sandra Apgar (MIV)
- Bill Davis (MIV)

Lay Servant Ministers who have completed the Certified Lay Ministry Academy:

- Rebecca McLargin
- Rick Gilson
- JoAnne Rouse Clark
- John Ransom, Jr
- Glen Lash
- Jack Hott

As we look to the next year, we will continue to focus on:

- the ongoing development of Cultural Competency of our BOM and DCOM committees
- strengthening a “Culture of Call” across West Ohio
- resuming and refining the REF (Refresh, Equip, Flourish) 8-year assessment process
- supporting the work of the Conference Relations Committee and Clergy Wellness
- equipping clergy in the highest level of ethics and boundaries

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve as Chair of the Board of Ministry. We appreciate your continued prayer and support in this meaningful and transformational work of leadership formation and development across the West Ohio Conference.

C. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Presented by: Marlen Yost, Board Chair

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I'm pleased to provide this written report in anticipation of the opportunity to present virtually during the Corporate Session of this year's Annual Conference. At this writing, it's been seven months since the 2020 Annual Conference convened. We've convened four times via Zoom, including our organizational meeting. Because we're at the beginning of a quadrennium, we welcomed seven new voting members who joined five of us who returned for a second term.

Our 2021 work is largely focused on real estate matters and staying connected with our Affiliated Organizations. On the real estate front, working with members of CF&A and Camps and Retreats ministries, we are adopting a plan that will allow camps and retreats ministries greater control over multi-year major maintenance and capital planning. This is made possible by funding annually the Camps Permanent Fund with a portion of depreciation expense. Annual additions, plus investment earnings and donor contributions will provide the resources necessary to maintain our camps. The Trustees will continue its engagement with support and monitoring of the process.

The Book of Discipline assigns responsibility to all property matters to Conference Trustees. At any given time, the conference holds title to fifteen or more churches that are closed and in the process of being sold. Property management for these churches is administered by Conference staff and outside vendors. Trustees receive regular reporting that includes properties held, properties sold and what investments in mission have been made with sale proceeds. All proceeds from closed churches are deposited into the Closed Church Fund, and Conference Trustees have delegated spending authority from this fund to the Extended Cabinet. Our hope is that new ministries will be borne from these churches whose ministries have declared their missions complete.

We anticipate at some point during the quadrennium that matters decided by General Conference will direct our work regarding churches that may wish to leave the denomination. Whatever the outcome, this board will fulfill its duties on behalf of the Conference and consistent with the Book of Discipline. I'm grateful for Rev. Cyndy Garn's leadership of the Real Estate Committee.

Our affiliated organizations include OhioHealth, the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, Life Enriching Communities, The Wesley Communities, Otterbein SeniorLife, Preachers' Relief Society and Christian Family Credit Union (formerly United Methodist Financial Credit Union). Each of these are an extension of the United Methodist witness in West Ohio and the Conference is an extension of their witness. While COVID-19 has impacted nearly every sector of our economy, this group of important organizations has been in the middle of some of the most difficult challenges of the pandemic. We are grateful for their leadership and work in the midst of very difficult circumstances. Like our churches, our affiliated organizations are also attentive to denominational matters and how General Conference outcomes may impact their organizations and relationships with the United Methodist Church. I'm grateful for Rev. Karen Muntzing's leadership of the Affiliated Organizations Committee.

The final area that we monitor are Conference investments. In 2020, with the creation of the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, the Trustees placed our invested asset, our confidence and trust in the Foundation. The Foundation has continued the investment policies and oversight practices that have been in place since 2012. Conference Trustees are represented on the Foundation's Investment Committee and report quarterly on performance and other oversight matters.

In addition to the committee and connectional work above, Conference Chancellor, Chris Hogan, keeps us apprised of substantive legal matters. In October, Chris participated in developing a denominational response to the bankruptcy proceedings of the Boy Scouts of America related to historical allegations of sexual abuse and misconduct. After the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, United Methodist churches sponsor more troops than any other related entity, which suggests some filed claims will include United Methodist churches. We will continue to monitor this large and complicated case and connect local churches to capable legal advice as needed.

Thank you for your trust and prayers as we carry out our responsibilities in support of the church and the ministries of The West Ohio Conference.

D. COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

Presented by: Rev. Paula Stewart, Chair

The most daunting matter CFA focused on at the outset of 2020 was what might happen at the May 2020 General Conference and the impact its outcomes would have on West Ohio. The COVID-19 pandemic quickly eclipsed those considerations and dramatically changed, almost overnight, how we looked at finances.

Quickly, the Conference responded not only with online guidance, but with financial support and other resources to help churches navigate this unfamiliar territory. The Board of Pensions allocated $500,000 from reserves for clergy benefit grants to local churches. The Finance and Administration team quickly set up a process so church members could make online donations to their church through the Conference website at no cost to the church.

While 2020 did not start out well on apportionment receipts, COVID accelerated the decline. March apportionments were down by 22% and in April by a whopping 52%. Receipts improved somewhat in May but year to date we were still down 21%; a level that, if maintained, would have required significant expense reductions. June started a new trend with receipts being up 27% over June of 2019. Improvements generally continued and by the end of the year, receipts on apportioned connectional giving were only 3% below 2019 levels. This is an extraordinary finish considering the way the year began and it is a tribute to the West Ohio churches that recognized the value of connectional support even in uncharted waters.

Overall, apportionments were down slightly but, in almost every area, so were expenses. Camps & Retreats is the exception since it continues to incur expenses even when there is no registration and retreat income. We cannot wait for campers and retreat groups to return to our camps in 2021!

Conference Trustees approved a $1.1 million loan that included allocations to each District. We received notice in December that the loan would be forgiven in full. The end result is we ended the year in the black, as measured by the change in our unrestricted net assets. Again, this is a good outcome and certainly was not expected back in April.

Given our improved outlook, CFA approved that $200,000 be advanced from reserves to General Church Funds and Agencies. West Ohio paid 100% of the Episcopal, Black College, and Africa University Funds. West Ohio's support of the General Church funds was 88%, just under the 90% modeled in the 2020 budget.

The delay of Annual Conference to September gave CFA time to make major changes to the budget it planned to present in June. Big shifts included the Board of Pensions not requesting apportionment support, perhaps for the first time in at least 50 years. This is possible because plans are well funded and backed by investments. The other development was the decision by Conference Trustees and the Board of Pensions to invest their assets with the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio. Since the Foundation earns an investment administration fee, there is little need for apportionment support; a first since its inception as Council on Development in 1976.

While the 2021 budget was finalized in the midst of the pandemic, this year was expected to be somewhat back to normal. It has not been back to normal: expenses are lower than planned as a result of less travel, fewer meetings and in general the efficiency of online meetings. What we cannot know is what our 2021 receipts on apportionments will be, which is a reflection of local church financial health. Regardless, we continue to monitor all expenses and financial commitments in light of uncertainties.

The West Ohio Annual Conference also voted new persons to serve as members on the CFA for the next quadrennium. I was elected to chair CFA, and I am grateful to follow Chris Clough's excellent leadership of this body over the prior quadrennium. It is an honor to serve in this capacity.

The 2022 budget is being prepared with significant uncertainties in two key areas: enduring COVID impacts and the denominational change that may result from General Conference action. Nevertheless, we have worked to keep apportionments from increasing. This follows several years of material reductions in expenses and the Conference's reliance on apportionments. Budget details can be found in the Budget Recommendation.

E. EPISCOPACY

Presented by: Valarie D. Willis, Chair

Greetings to my brothers and sisters in Christ, Bishop and Mrs. Palmer, and to all members of the West Ohio Annual Conference. It has certainly been an extraordinary year in the life of the Episcopacy. Who knew that Zoom would become the platform that would keep us connected amid the pandemic and after a year of Zooming, many would become Zoom fatigued? But here we are, standing strong on our faith, reaching to serve those in need and adapting on a continuous basis.

This year was the “changing of the guards” for the Episcopacy Committee, and we are appreciative and thankful for those who served on the Episcopacy committee and welcome all the new members. The role of the Episcopacy Committee is to support our bishop, be available to the bishop for counsel, determine the needs of the episcopal area and to be advisor to the bishop.

Our wonderful team who serves with grace and candor includes:

Stephen Brooks	Rev. Wade Giffin	Dean Metzger	Rev. Jason Wellman
Rev Michaela Brown Jasper	Rev. Dr. Judy Guion-Utsler	Diana Skinner	Valarie D Willis
Rev. Mark Chow	Leslie Hall	David Smith
Hannah Ewald	George Howard	Shannon Spencer
Rev. Lauren Fuchs	Stacey Kyser	Chris Steiner

The Episcopal Committee is organized into three sub-committees:

1. Profile: This committee is charged with preparing a quadrennial report that shares with the North Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy the episcopacy leadership requirements for West Ohio. This input is taken into consideration during the assignment of Bishops.
2. Interpretation and Communication: Interpret and communicate the nature and function of the Bishop and Episcopal office to the people of the West Ohio Conference.
3. Evaluation and Leadership: Conducts an annual performance evaluation of our Episcopal Leader and reports back to the Episcopacy Committee. Provides leadership development opportunities as identified from the evaluation process and/or by the Bishop.

The West Ohio Episcopacy Committee also has two delegates who serve on the North Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy. These delegates represent the needs of West Ohio episcopal leadership and have a role in the assignment of bishops to the annual conferences.

Bishop Palmer not only serves the West Ohio Conference, but he also serves as Co-Chair on the Episcopal/United Methodist Dialogue Committee, and he serves on The Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters. Bishop Palmer serves on the boards of Ohio Health, United Theological Seminary, and several others.

During this year of uncertainty, last year’s theme for annual conference comes to mind. “Be Not Afraid.” With our churches closing, people living in the fishbowls of isolation and COVID-19 swirling like the invisible wind, we are not afraid. Bishop Palmer has led this conference to remain focused on the work that God has called us to do. He has been a leader who is not afraid to stand on the foundation of faithfulness as he leads this conference. Our bishop continues to work with the cabinet on addressing systemic racism, analyzing church data, redefining roles as needed and creating leadership structures to guide the conference.

The theme this year for our conference is “Run the race with perseverance.” The Episcopal Committee stands with our bishop as we all run the race. We know that this conference can and will persevere. We are faced with difficulties in many areas of the church, such as declining membership, challenging budgets, or natural disasters, but West Ohio will run the race, pass the baton, and keep running by the grace of God. In these challenging times, our Bishop calls us to not run away from God but run towards him.

Bishop Palmer has always encouraged us to focus on the mission of the church and he is committed to the health and stability of our pastors and congregations. Let us run together with our Bishop to do the work of God, to address racism and bring others to Christ.

During these challenging times of The United Methodist Church, Bishop Palmer’s leadership is a catalyst to drive change and unity in our conference. We are thankful for his resilience and spiritual leadership.

As Bishop Palmer enters his tenth year with us, we give our love and thanks to him and Mrs. Cynthia Palmer for their commitment to Christ. We ask that you continue to pray for each of them.

*“Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.
Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure.”*

Proverbs 4:25-26

F. EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Presented by: Rev. Kurt King, Chair

Bishop Palmer, Members of the Cabinet, honored guests and faithful disciples of Jesus Christ, on behalf of the Equitable Compensation Commission, we humbly come before this annual conference with the recommendation for Equitable Compensation.

Ministry happens when clergy, leaders and congregations put into motion what they hear from God. Jesus said, "Everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise person who built their house on rock." (Matthew 7:24) Vital and healthy ministry takes place when clergy and congregations actively support the vision and mission of reaching and making new disciples of Jesus Christ for purpose of transforming the world. When we work collaboratively, we are better positioned to support spiritual journeys in a variety of missional contexts.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, outlined in the 2016 Book of Discipline (Paragraph 625), is a way to employ financial resources as a means of support for congregational revitalization. The West Ohio Conference and churches partner together through faithful stewardship, accountability, and encouragement. The goal is to come alongside churches and clergy as a transition resource to assist congregations in the movement toward greater vitality and health.

Faithful disciples of all ages and backgrounds have the spiritual gifts, abilities and resources to transform the community where they live; and when matched with gifted clergy the movement toward transformation expands. Jesus said of his disciples, "You will be my witness to these things." (Luke 24:48) God has given us this gift of Jesus' love to share with everyone we meet. We are a United Methodist movement that believes in the power of love and prayer. When a compassionate congregation unites in prayer for and with their community, vibrant ministry takes shape. Often, however, for a congregation to accomplish their mission with their community, there needs be the proper transformational leadership, that may require temporary financial assistance to reach that goal.

As established under the guidelines of the Book of Discipline, funds have been set aside in this year's budget to provide temporary community support under the definitions presented under minimum salary support; key leadership support; key missional salary support and special salary support. Working with the Cabinet, the commission seeks to coordinate local needs, while working to minimize the need for long term minimum salary support.

The minimum salary increase recommendation for 2022 is an average of 2% over last year. This increase was determined after much discussion, as we seek to balance the issues of seeing that clergy families are properly supported versus the realization that with the costs of salary, housing, pension and health insurance is becoming a struggle for many local churches. We also continue to emphasize that minimum salaries are just that, a minimum compensation level for the purpose of determining missional support needs. Any individual local church can and should determine merit increases at or above this amount of increase.

However, we realize for us to continue ministry in many locations, a cost-of-living increase for the pastor may create undue hardship on the congregation and even possibly limit ministry in certain locations. We realize each situation is different and compensation should be determined based on the needs and conditions of the church and clergy. Furthermore, with the reduction of the Conference budget, including the Equitable Compensation line item, the amount of minimum compensation for those on full Equitable Comp must be considered.

Once again, we as a Commission are thankful for your support over the years for your clergy. We value your leadership and your thoughtful consideration of the Commission's resolution that is before you today.

G. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Presented by: Rev. Anna Guillozet, Chair

The biggest change in this year's recommendation for January of 2022 is the retiree medical transition from a Humana Medicare Advantage plan to an HRA or Health Reimbursement Arrangement. This partnership with Via Benefits and Wespath follows the lead of 31 other plan sponsors representing more than 9,000 members. This change will bring three distinct benefits for our 750 current retirees who are on the plan.

First, and most importantly, an HRA will give retirees choice. Each one will have the opportunity to select from over 35 Medicare Advantage plans and 54 Medigap Plans that best meets their unique medical and financial needs. It is an opportunity for them to "right-size" their healthcare. A retiree, for example, may desire a plan with a lower premium and a higher deductible because they are low utilizers of the plan. He/she will be able to select such a plan. However, another retiree may desire a higher premium and a lower deductible because they are high utilizers of the plan. He/she will be able to select such a plan. Under an HRA, each will have the opportunity to choose the plan and premium that best aligns with their current life situation. Since couples share an HRA, it also allows a spouse with higher medical costs to use more of the household's share of HRA money than a spouse with lower costs, if that works for their family.

Second, an HRA is cost effective. Driving carriers to compete on price may mean substantial premium savings. This also expands the risk pool considerably and leverages Centers for Medicare and Medicare Service subsidies which help control costs. A recent impact analysis conducted by Willis Towers Watson revealed 97% of West Ohio's current retirees could be better off financially in the individual marketplace with an average savings of over $1,600 per year. Moreover, funds that are deposited in the HRA and not used can be carried over from year to year and accumulate. This can provide a fund reserve to cover future premiums and deductibles.

Finally, an HRA is a more financially sustainable and flexible funding option as we look toward an uncertain church future. At present our balance sheet is strong due to the sacrificial giving and strategic money management of many people over many years. Moving to an HRA now, from a strong financial position will help ensure our promises, not just for current retirees, but future ones as well, will be met.

We know that changes in health care and how it's paid for, whether via insurance or our out of pocket share, prompts questions. Our communication plan to make sure all your questions will be addressed and that the transition for eligible retirees will go smoothly begins about the time of Annual Conference. Via Benefits' staff of licensed and certified benefit advisors will offer objective, individualized support in navigating the election of plans. We're confident in the approach because 31 other annual conferences and nearly ten thousand of United Methodist retirees have already made this transition. (West Ohio is one of the few that still sponsor a retiree group health insurance plan.) These conferences and retirees that have made this transition in the past several years have reported they are satisfied with the Via Benefits HRA model plan. We expect the same will be true for West Ohio.

H. LIGHT THE WAY

MAKING DISCIPLES OF JESUS CHRIST FOR THE TRANSFORMATION OF THE WORLD

Presented by: Rev. Doug Johns and Mr. Tom Hoffman

In 2017, the West Ohio Conference launched the Light the Way Campaign to invest significant resources in the best tools, leaders and locations that would bring more people and more communities into the light and life of Jesus Christ. Our original goals were to raise $5M and to establish a minimum of twelve new churches and or multi-site ministries over five years.

Since 2017, the Light the Way campaign raised $5M and funded a dozen diverse new faith communities and over 40 new Fresh Expressions ministries, reaching over 2300 people and baptizing over 250 new believers in West Ohio!

WE EXCEEDED BOTH OUR GOALS! BUT WE'RE NOT FINISHED YET!

JOIN US AS WE COMPLETE THE LIGHT THE WAY CAMPAIGN

This outpouring of the Holy Spirit has shown us that to be ready for the future we must continue to Light the Way for more people to find the redemptive power of Jesus Christ through a faith community.

We are launching the final phase of our campaign with a new goal to start at least 6 more faith communities, as well as an additional $2M to fund both these communities and an endowment fund to help sustain all the Light the Way faith communities into the future. Join us!

MEET SOME OF OUR NEW CONGREGATIONS

Camino De Vida Faith Community • Fremont, OH

Hayes Memorial United Methodist Church in Fremont, led by Pastor Joshua Wynn (Maumee Watershed district), believes its ministry focus is to offer compassionate community service for the Hispanic/Latino population in the church's county. They are partnering with the new faith community in Fremont, Camino De Vida (a joint partnership between the United Methodist Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church America). Camino de Vida incorporates weekly Life Group meetings, building relationships, and working to create points of entry for the increasing second and third generation Latinx population as numbers grow toward launching a worshipping community.

Mosaic Church • Dayton, OH

Mosaic Church in Dayton was birthed from two United Methodist churches, Christ UMC Kettering and Ginghamburg UMC Tipp City, is led by the Rev. Rosario "Roz" Picardo and the Rev. Wayne Botkin. "Our English-as-a-Second Language classes," Picardo said, "minister to a wide range of people new to our country. We have 15 nations represented on any given night. We just started a monthly worship gathering completely in Portuguese with our friends from Brazil. In addition to these opportunities, we offer a biweekly Bible study to Arabic speakers." "Mosaic," Botkin noted, "is just scratching the surface of living into the vision God has given us about becoming a dynamic mosaic of Jesus followers."

Engage Newark & the Little Arrows Play Café • Newark, OH

Engage is a new church start in Newark. Pastor Dave Warner describes it as "a more traditional understanding of 'church' with a very contemporary worship service that meets in a historically renovated ballroom on the floor above Little Arrows." Many have become a part of the faith community through the play cafe. Begun in July 2017 by members of Marne United Methodist Church and the Rev. Dave Warner, the nonprofit, self-sustaining play café provides safe space for children and respite for parents. About 30 people participate each day the café is open.

I. MISSIONAL CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Presented by: Rev. Clark Hess, Chair

The Apostle Paul encouraged the believers in Ephesus and the surrounding region “to make the most of every opportunity in these desperate days.” While Paul could not have envisioned a global pandemic when he penned those words, we have had to contend with one in 2020. That pandemic has no doubt tested us, but we have determined to live into his counsel in this unusual year. Despite it all, the Missional Church Development Team has been at work in creative and determined ways to fulfill our mission. The work of the MCD Team is focused on three primary strategic initiatives: 1) Revitalization and Capacity Building helping churches discover new seasons of fruitfulness, 2) New Church Development as we seek to raise up new faith communities, and 3) Fresh Expressions innovating ministry to take the love and mercy of our gracious God to people in places and spaces where they can relate.

Central to our role is the awarding of grants. Through an extensive process of grant review, assessment, and award, including Zoom and phone visits with each church, the MCD Team awarded $170,000 in grants to local churches. And through a process in partnership with Brad Aycock and New Church development, we were able to award $600,000 for New Church Start grants; $100,000 from apportionment dollars, the additional $500,000 from the Light the Way capital campaign.

One of the most satisfying aspects of our work is seeing churches that have cycled through our process implementing new ministries fueled by our grants. God has given us a front row seat to witness some of the exciting fruit of those ministries. It has been our privilege to undergird these churches and the leaders not only with our funds but also with our prayers, resources, and equipping.

Greenhouse, a catalyst for growing New Church Start leaders has fueled the formation of new faith communities reaching new people. In 2020, there were 14 participants in Greenhouse. The pandemic forced the flourishing Traction Tracks ministry to a more streamlined expression with the emergence of shorter virtual options that many took advantage of via Zoom. West Ohio has continued to see further development of Fresh Expressions in churches all across the conference. Many churches chose to use the pandemic year to engage in further training and equipping for new Fresh Expressions to launch in 2021. And while it will be reported in much greater detail in their own report, the MCD Team is the primary grant review, assessment, and award body responsible for utilization of the Light the Way funds.

The Missional Church Development Team has also experienced some key transitions in our staff. Sue Nilson Kibbey has concluded her MCD leadership and has assumed a new position at United Theological Seminary as the Director of the Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center [begun the next season of her ministry]. Brad Aycock has taken the lead role in MCD as the Director of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings. We also saw Grace Gerber transition to a new role at the WOC Center as Welcome and Hospitality Coordinator and in the turning of the calendar to a new year, the addition of Allyssa Graves as the new Administrative Coordinator.

It must be mentioned as well that a key way to make the most of every opportunity in 2020 was to dream of new expressions of future-forward ministry in 2021 and beyond. This past year has served as a seedbed for innovative developments. Keep watch for the Bishop Palmer’s Leadership Clinics, Multiply Minis, Emerge, as well as new retooling of Greenhouse and Fresh Expressions in 2021.

J. 2020 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

The Statistical Data collected from our local churches for 2020 is highlighted in this report. We continue to use the GCFA Statistical Website (Ezra) to collect our church data as this continues to provide for a better management of our data at the General Church and Conference levels. This year, with help from the District Offices we were able to collect 95% of the reports from our 970 churches. Unfortunately, there were 5% or 46 churches that did not completed their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. Capitol Area South District, Maumee Watershed District and Capitol Area North were the only districts that had all their churches complete their yearend reports. Keep in mind that with Covid-19 part of our everyday life in 2020 these numbers are off from a normal statistical year. We again allowed churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered by the Conference Statistician.

At the close of 2020, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 133,228 members. A total of 2,425 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2020. That meant that every day last year, 7 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. Like the previous years the largest increase was received on profession of faith, a total of 1,113 members. That number decreased by 1,327 from 2019. In 2020, a total of 169 churches held confirmation classes, representing 17% of our churches. In 2020 that number has increased from the previous year by 1 class.

At the close of 2020, the West Ohio Conference membership was down from what was reported at the end of 2019. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 9,506. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 26 people were leaving congregations in the conference. The largest loss was removed by death or deceased, a total of 3,115 members. This number increased from what was recorded for the year in 2019 by 260 members. The net loss from the new members minus the members lost shown below is 7,081 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 35,581 members over the last 5 years. The membership loss in 2020 of 7,081 is the fourth largest loss since 1978. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 6,677 members per year.

Starting Membership 2020	140,309
Those received during 2020 – Add	2,425
Those removed during 2020 – Subtract	-9,506
Ending Membership 2020	133,228

During 2020 worship attendance on Sunday in the West Ohio Conference had an average of 131,478 members participating in worship across the conference. Of that amount the online worship has been added. Online worship had 70,773 members participating. The average attendance in principal worship services decreased by close to 24,000 members from what was reported in 2019. These numbers were inflated or deflate depending on how you look at it by the Covid-19 pandemic. We also baptized 944 individuals during 2020. The number of baptisms decreased by 1,285 from the totals reported in 2019. A total of 278 churches or 29% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2020. Baptisms because of Covid-19 were affected greatly by the inability of worship services being not in person.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2020 was 59,009 participants. All four of the categories Children, Youth, Young Adults & Other Adults showed decreased numbers in 2020. Overall, the West Ohio Conference experienced a 32% decrease in the number of participants from 2019 to 2020. The Average Attendance at Sunday School decreased from that of 2019 by 9,776 members. There were 8,158 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2020. This was a decrease from those participating in 2019 of 23,903 or 74%. These numbers were also greatly affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.

There were 70 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2020. That was a decrease from 2019 of 68 mission teams. That accounted for 546 participants in UMVIM teams which decreased by 865 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of persons engaged in mission in the local churches was 36,821 serving 1,573,538 people in those communities. There were 704 or 73% of our congregations that had persons engaged in mission.

The West Ohio Conference recorded a decrease in total paid in 2020. The conference received $174,637,738 which was a decrease of $12,204,555 compared to 2019. That breaks out to a cost of $1,311 per member as compared to $1,334 per member in 2019. Almost 52% or 505 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2020. That number has decreased from what was reported in 2019 by 17 churches. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed a decrease of $236,059 in 2020. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $412,991. The West Ohio Advance Specials in 2020 collected a total of $100,000 in gifts. That was a decrease of $9,226 or 8% from what was reported in 2019.

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference. Hopefully in 2021 our churches will be back to a more normal day to day operation like we had grown accustom.

K. TRANSFORMATIVE DISCIPLESHIP

Presented by: Rev. Corey D. Perry, Chair

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference, greetings to you in the name of our Lord. It is my privilege to offer this report on behalf of the members of the Transformative Discipleship Team and Connectional Ministries staff.

The past year – as with so many other areas of our connection and conference – was marked by loss, changes, and opportunities that could never have been imagined. However, as this report will – I hope – illustrate, the work of the staff supporting the mission and ministry of these areas, as well as our churches and conference, have not only managed to weather the crises of the past year, but have done so in a way that has positioned them to recover quickly and thrive into a disruptive future.

Bishop Palmer spent time with the team as it formed to outline his perspective on where the conference and connection is headed, as well as his challenge to each of us. It is his vision that the church and ministry of the conference perceive itself as a “mission station” in its community and that vision will guide the work of this team for the next quadrennium. It is this foundational framework from which Transformative Discipleship will view each mission and ministry as it moves out of the crises of the past year and looks forward.

One of the areas hardest hit by the pandemic crisis was our Camps and Retreats Ministry. With the grim realities of COVID-19, the potential for our camps to become sources of transmission forced the cancellation of all residential camps through 2020. Though difficult for leadership and staff, it was most acutely felt by the children, youth and families of our congregations and communities. However, the staff worked creatively to provide Camp at Home videos for families, a fishing derby for families, chalk art competition, a fall festival, and a drive-thru Nativity where people could experience the awe and wonder of camp while abiding by COVID protocols. Each camp also created smaller, family-oriented retreat opportunities allowing “bubbled” groups to retreat together. These opportunities allowed our camp staff to share the gift of camp when so many things were taken away from our children and youth. It also provided opportunities to learn lessons that could be translated into operational plans for the coming year.

Our Camps Ministry Team, comprised of volunteer leaders, also engaged in an intentional process of identifying values and goals that will guide us into the future. Connectional Ministries, Council on Finance & Administration and The Board of Trustees worked to re-envision budgeting for Camps & Retreats, which will allow the ministry to refine its operational structure to deliver more value to the conference, its churches, and members.

The crisis precipitated by the murder of George Floyd further spurred work that had already begun within Transformative Discipleship and Connectional Ministries. The Director of Connectional Ministries was successful in securing a $1 million grant through the Lilly Endowment for a five-year Fear+Less Congregations Initiative. This will allow the conference – in partnership with Dr. Gregory Ellison’s Fearless Dialogues team – to take five cohorts of twelve congregations each through a multi-week educational encounter designed to confront and overcome three fears: fear of strangers; fear of an inability to change systems within and outside the church; and fear of the unknown. This program will work to build upon several existing initiatives in the conference: Connection Blueprint (learning community that seeks to develop congregations’ understanding of radical hospitality and missional engagement); All-In Community (restorative justice ministry to embrace members and neighbors impacted by crime and incarceration); and the conference’s Culture Coaches.

Further, it will allow participating congregations to: respond to shifting cultural realities in their communities in a way that demonstrates “incarnational hospitality;” embrace “whole-life stewardship” and move away from transactional ministry models; and create sustainable change that is founded on “mutually generative partnerships” and “missional engagement.” Through this, congregations can be mission stations with the ability to see their neighbors as gifted, hear their dreams, and partner with them in ways that heal and change individuals, congregations, and communities.

The challenges before the conference and connection have not abated, nor will they for the foreseeable future. However, with the work that has begun during the current crises – and will be sustained in the coming years – we stand confident that the witness of the conference, its churches, and ministries will shine forth the Love and Life of our Risen Lord for the healing and transformation of the world.

L. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WEST OHIO

Presented by: Bruce Boyd, Chair

Dear Members of the West Ohio Annual Conference:

2020 was a challenging year for all of us, but for the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO) 2020 was a year of huge organizational growth. As we reported to you last year, in 2019 the Council on Development transformed into the newly formed UMFWO. The transformation continued in 2020 with the comprehensive search for an Executive Director for our new organization.

The Executive Director search required us to adapt to the realities of the pandemic environment. Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Director of Human Resources, expertly led the search team through the search process, which resulted in the hiring of Susan O'Donnell Black as our first Executive Director. I am grateful for the commitment and perseverance of the team which included UMFWO Board members Tom Hofmann, Assistant District Superintendent Rev. Rae Lynn Schleif, and Bishop Palmer. Conducting a search using virtual technology was a learning experience for all of us.

With leadership in place, the Foundation Board is developing the structure to move us forward in achieving our vision to provide all local churches with the stewardship resources required to be healthy, growing, spiritually vital, risk-taking centers for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

As we move forward, the Foundation's priorities include:

- Partnering with local churches to provide stewardship training and development to inspire a culture of generosity throughout the Conference.
- Assisting donors in achieving their legacy giving priorities.
- Providing competitive investment services compatible with UMC Social Principles.

We are excited about the future of the Foundation and encourage you to learn more at www.umfwestohio.org.

As we are reminded in Jeremiah 29:11: " 'I know the plans I have for you', says the Lord, 'plans for your welfare and not for harm, to give you a future with hope. ' " It is that hope for the future that the Foundation is committed to achieve. We hope you will join us in this endeavor.

M. RECOMMENDATIONS

2022 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #1

The 2022 budget continues and in some cases, accelerates trends of recent years. This report highlights major shifts, provides a deeper explanation of work done by each area, distinguishes what apportionment support makes possible, and concludes with detailed budgets by area.

On a combined basis, the Council on Finance and Administration recommends apportioning $17.7 million, of which $2.6 million or 15% is for District Ministries, $8.8 million or 50% is for Conference Ministries, and $6.4 million or 35% is for General Church ministries. I welcome questions in advance of Annual Conference at bbrownson@wocumc.org.

2022 Budget Context

This budget has been developed during what we pray is the last phase of the COVID-19 pandemic. It assumes 2022 will be a post-COVID period. While we don't know exactly what that will look like, we believe some level of virtual meetings of all types is here to stay. We also expect that in-person meetings will have their place. The beginning of 2022 is still months away and the cumulative impact of the pandemic on our churches is not fully understood.

Resolution of denominational matters, originally expected to be addressed at the 2020 General Conference, is now anticipated in August of 2022. The delay of General Conference and how it ultimately acts on long-debated matters of doctrine and theology of and about human sexuality adds a known uncertainty to the budget process.

Continuing trends also inform the 2022 budget:

- Total amount apportioned decreases by 3.3%, building on substantial decreases in prior years.
- Aggregate Conference and District staffing levels are projected to decrease based on retirements, offset in some cases by the retention of professional services on an as-needed basis.
- Grant and other donor income, investment income, and use of accumulated reserves will provide non-apportioned sources of support.
- The Board of Pensions will not make a request for apportionment support, relying exclusively on direct billing, investment income, and donor income to carry out its work.

Significant Changes for 2022

The 2022 budget also introduces some material shifts from past years.

The work of the Districts will be supported by a single, consolidated apportioned fund. (See page 51.) Historically, each District's fund was separate. With one District fund, the apportioned amount for District support will be proportionally the same for every church in every District. Improvements or shortfalls in one area will be spread across all other Districts. While apportioned support will be from a common fund, each District has proposed a spending budget based on the anticipated District needs. The spending plan aggregates all District salaries and benefits in one area, "District Support Services." Resources after salaries and benefits will be allocated equally across all eight Districts. This shift was advanced by District Superintendents and will constructively impact how superintendents collaborate across the Districts in matters other than appointments.

Camps and Retreats, our largest and most operationally intensive program, will initiate a long-range major maintenance and capital planning framework that provides a more predictable funding stream. The plan is the joint work of Conference Trustees, Council on Finance and Administration, Camps and Retreats Ministry Team, and the Transformative Discipleship Team. While we have historically budgeted for depreciation, we have lacked a mechanism that adds that amount to a funding pool. Going forward, 75% of depreciation will be added to the Camps Permanent Fund. The 75% level will be adjusted based on operating results and apportionment income. This level also provides an incentive for fundraising to meet capital improvement needs.

The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (formerly Council on Development), in only its second full year, will operate without direct support from apportioned connectional giving. The Foundation will be supported fully by investment administration income from local church, District and Conference endowments invested with the Foundation.

What follows is a more in-depth description of the work of each area. If you are interested in the "fine print," technical notes can be found at the end of the detailed budget.

Funding Plan Discussion by Section

General Church Ministries

The General Church, including the North Central Jurisdiction, helps West Ohio churches make a difference in the Conference, our nation and around the world. The infrastructure of the General Church allows UMCOR to be among the most effective disaster relief organizations in the world. World Service, which includes UMCOR, Global Ministries, Discipleship Ministries, Higher Education and other agencies, accounts for 51% of the General Church apportioned budget. Twenty-six percent of General Church connectional giving supports education efforts of both clergy and lay through the Ministerial Education Fund, Africa University and Black College Fund. The Episcopal Fund represents 15% of the denominational budget. $6.4 million is apportioned for General Church purposes, and at the projected collection rate of 65%, apportionments will cover 90% of West Ohio's allocation.

The postponed General Conference has delayed what is anticipated to be a significant reduction in the denominational budget. In anticipation of a reduced General Church budget, the amount apportioned has been reduced. Agencies and funds of the General Church have already significantly reduced staffing levels, and more reductions are expected. While we will continue to apportion an amount greater than that which is apportioned to the Conference, the level is reduced from previous years. This will allow West Ohio to continue providing its fair share of denominational support.

Conference Ministries

Connectional Ministries

Connectional Ministries comes alongside leaders and congregations as they live into the vision God has given them to share and embody the healing and redemptive love of Jesus. Together, we work to see and hear the neighbors God has given us and discover what it looks like and sounds like to authentically connect to transform lives, congregations, and communities. Led by Bishop Palmer's vision of being mission stations in our communities, we deploy staff and trained volunteer leaders to build on the gifts and assets already present. We challenge those with whom we work to see and hear the wisdom already resident within themselves and neighbors. We work with you—the people of West Ohio—to contextualize training and resources so they fit with who you are. In partnership with the Transformative Discipleship Team, your connectional ministries staff will be focusing on the following funded initiatives with other Conference staff and Districts.

- Fear+Less Congregations Initiative: Funded through a five-year $1 million grant from the Lilly Endowment, West Ohio will partner with 24 congregations in 2022. Participating congregations from rural, urban, Appalachian, and suburban contexts will engage in three experiential learning sessions led by our partner, Fearless Dialogues, that will help us see the people and gifts in our church and community that are often hidden in plain view, and hear their stories, dreams and aspirations. From this, congregational teams will form partnerships to develop or re-imagine a missional expression that fits their context. Congregational teams will be accompanied by trained coaches and will receive a seed grant for their missional engagement. We will also identify and equip participating congregations to lead others through this process. Resources Deployed: Director of Connectional Ministries in partnership with Director of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings, Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, Director of Diversity and Inclusion, Executive Director of the UMFOW, and other staff across our Districts and Conference. We will also deploy the 10 coaches in whom West Ohio has invested.
- Connection Blueprint: Congregations are invited to form teams and participate in a learning community that builds a blueprint for connecting personal piety and community engagement. Together, congregations will learn practical tools on how to extend hospitality that results in relationships between people in the church and those who participate in an outreach ministry; how to move from a needs-based approach to an asset-based approach to ministry; how to share and integrate our faith-based identity into our missional engagement; and how to build partnerships inclusive of individuals, groups, organizations, and community leaders to deploy the assets of each. Resources Deployed: Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement in partnership with the Rev. John Edgar, Executive Director of Community Development for All People, the Director of Connectional Ministries, and other leaders across the Conference.
- Equipping Laity: Mission Stations require called, equipped and empowered laity who live out their baptismal vows in their daily lives and in relational mission in their communities. Laity discernment retreats have already helped more than 40 people discover and claim their call. Through our Lay Servant Ministries, over 30 people volunteer their time to train and equip laity, and as a result, more than 61 congregations and the University of Cincinnati Wesley Foundation are benefitting from the leadership of 103 Certified Lay Speakers and Ministers. We will continue to invest in equipping new people to discover how God has empowered them to live out their call. West Ohio also invests in the faith and leadership formation of college students through grant support and by creating space for their voices and perspectives to shape who we are as a Conference. Resources Deployed: West Ohio's lay leaders, Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, Director of Camps, Retreats & Next Gen Empowerment, Coordinator of Lay Servant Ministries, Director of Connectional Ministries and other West Ohio staff and volunteer leaders.
- Restorative Justice: Through West Ohio's All in Community, we engage individuals, churches, criminal justice professionals, and community leaders at the local level to restore hope and provide healing in lives involved in the criminal justice system. This happens through multiple learning opportunities that integrate trauma-informed care, cultural competency, and anti-racism efforts. By working in partnership with the Ohio Department of Rehabilitation and Corrections and others, we will continue to build capacity for a systemic, culturally inclusive model for disrupting the community-to-prison pipeline and facilitating greater social and racial justice within the West Ohio Conference. 1,045 people from over 425 West Ohio congregations are currently committed to this ministry and will continue to expand their witness and impact. Resources Deployed: West Ohio's All In Community contractor in partnership with the Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, Mission and Communication Coordinator and 29 volunteer leaders.

- Cultural Competency and Anti-Racism: West Ohio is committed to equipping leaders, structures and congregations to better work across diversity and create inclusive faith communities where the Gospel is lived. The outcome of this cultural competency work is that our churches, worshipping communities and members will reach out to new people and new communities in new ways to strengthen the number and impact of disciples in West Ohio. This work is integrated throughout the structure of the Conference and is cost-neutral other than continued training of West Ohio Cultural Coaches/Guides. Resources Deployed: Director of Diversity and Inclusion, the Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, Director of Connectional Ministries, Director of the Office of Ministry, Director of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings, District staff, and a team of 19 trained cultural guides.
- Leadership Development: We are committed to multiplying leadership. As a staff team, we have recruited, equipped, deployed and supported 368 volunteer leaders who work with congregations, train others and lead missional engagements. In 2022, we will continue to expand the number of people who are trained and will deploy and support them to work across our Conference to maximize our missional impact. Resources Deployed: All Connectional Ministries staff are involved in this work, collaborating with each other and with other ministry areas across the Conference and Districts.
- Camps and Retreats: Camping and Retreat Ministries exist to create opportunities for children, youth and adults of all ages to experience Jesus and to spend time in the great outdoors given to us by our Creator. In 2022, our three West Ohio camps anticipate hosting 2,900 campers (ages 7-17) and 360 retreat groups, while partnering with over 100 congregations. As we work to engage even more West Ohio congregations, we enhance our ability to reach first time campers, recruit a diverse summer camp staff, develop connections with youth leaders and parents, and lay the groundwork for future financial support. Resources Deployed: Director of Camps, Retreats, & Next Gen Engagement, Camp Directors along with the Director of Connectional Ministries, Director of Diversity and Inclusion, Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, Executive Director of the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, and Chief Financial and Administrative Officer. 64 young adult summer staff will be sharing Jesus' love with campers.

In addition to ministries funded by apportioned dollars, multiple areas within Connectional Ministries are entirely self-funded beyond staff compensation. Some of these ministries include:

- Disaster Response Ministry: West Ohio has deployed more than 160 trained early responders to extend Christ-like compassion to neighbors during times of crisis. These trainings are entirely funded by class fees and led by five UMCOR-trained volunteer leaders. In addition, West Ohio provides grants to communities impacted by natural disasters and supports case management services, all funded by the generous donations of churches and individuals across the Conference. Resources Deployed: Mission and Communication Coordinator, Conference Disaster Response Coordinator, volunteer trainers.
- Volunteers in Mission: Shaped through Imago Dei missiology, West Ohio trains and deploys people locally, nationally, and internationally to live their faith in service of their neighbor's dreams and aspirations. Team leader trainings are funded through class fees and led by experienced volunteer leaders. Each year, West Ohio teams experience God's love alongside the people of Mexico, North Katanga, Colombia, Costa Rica, Appalachia, and more. All travel expenses are funded by volunteer teams. Resources Deployed: Mission and Communication Coordinator, volunteer trainers, mission team leaders.
- Covenantal Mission Partnerships: West Ohio maintains mission partnerships with Methodist churches, agencies, and ministries in Cambodia, DR Congo, Laos, Mexico, and Russia. Though apportioned dollars are allotted to ensure continuous support of ministries in North Katanga, DR Congo, the Conference also raises funds to offset these expenditures. Additionally, we support the missional priorities of our mission partners through the generous gifts of people in our congregations through the Advance. West Ohio plans to offer some virtual resourcing opportunities where people in West Ohio can learn from our partners and share in faith together. Resources Deployed: Director of Connectional Ministries, West Ohio Conference Bishop, Mission and Communication Coordinator.

- Bishop Palmer's Leadership Clinics: Live, online opportunities provide access to leadership insights from diverse and influential voices.
- Multiply Minis: Developed based on WOC Leader feedback, these relevant, timely trainings help churches and leaders multiply their impact.
- Emerge: Contextual, immersive, boot-camp-style learning experience designed to equip established churches with tools to lead with a new vision for mission and ministry.
- Greenhouse and Innovative Expressions: Leadership development to train and deploy spiritual entrepreneurs who are called to start new faith communities/fresh expressions.
- Revitalization Grants: Intended to provide churches with resources to address matters inhibiting vitality in order to build their congregational capacity.
- New Faith Community Grants: Grants for emerging churches and new faith communities led by specially trained laity and/or clergy from West Ohio's Greenhouse.

For questions about Fresh Starts & New Beginnings, contact Brad Aycock, at bradaycock@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200.

Office of Ministry

The Office of Ministry is responsible for caring for persons as they discern call, pursue varying paths of credentialing, and follow the required educational tracks in their call to ministry. Students are also supported financially for Seminary and Course of Study work. The Office of Ministry also oversees the Board of Ordained Ministry, which makes determinations regarding candidates for ordination. Programming in the Office of Ministry includes:

- Candidacy Summit Retreat: Provides an introduction to clergy candidacy.
- Local Pastors Licensing School: Allows ministry candidates to become certified to lead churches and administer the sacraments.
- Crucible: Two-year residency program for Provisional Deacons and Elders.
- Next Generation Ministry Leadership Intern Program: College students work in a local church, explore seminary programs, and gain real life ministry experience.
- Clergy Assessments: The Book of Discipline requires a comprehensive clergy review and assessment every eight years.

The Office of Ministry will continue to partner with Diversity and Inclusion to equip clergy and congregations for Cross-Racial and Cross-Cultural appointments. The Office expects to receive non-apportioned support from tuition, registration fees, and funds designated for the work of the office. Twenty-five percent of receipts toward the denomination's Ministerial Education Fund is retained within the Conference and used by the Office and Board of Ordained Ministry.

For questions regarding the budget and work of the Office of Ministry, contact Rev. Donnetta Peaks at dpeaks@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200.

Episcopal Area Leadership

Bishop Palmer and his leadership team set the vision for how the West Ohio Conference will meet the mission of making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our communities, our Conference, and our world. To this end, the Bishop oversees the following areas, which are budgeted to incur $2,647,000 of expenses in 2022 with all but $196,000 provided by apportioned connectional giving.

- Annual Conference
- Episcopal Office Administration
- District Superintendents & Cabinet
- Equitable Compensation
- Conference Communications

Together with the District Superintendents, the Bishop provides for the deployment of credentialed clergy and oversees the process by which local churches meet the administrative requirements of the Book of Discipline. In addition, the Episcopal leadership team partners with other Conference teams to provide resources for our churches to achieve their mission of discipleship and transformation. Those resources include missional grants, conflict mediation, training and coaching, finding new places for new people, and strategic planning assistance.

Bishop Palmer's salary, benefits, travel and support are provided for and paid directly from the Episcopal Fund of the General Church. Questions about the budget and responsibilities of Episcopal Area Leadership can be directed to Rev. Linda Middelberg at lmiddelberg@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200.

Communications

As we learned in 2020, effective communication is inseparable from effective ministry. In this program area, the Communications Team provides resources to support everything from detailed safety information, such as COVID-19 protocols, to prerecorded sermons from Bishop Palmer and the cabinet so pastors can take much-deserved breaks. In addition, the team resources the Annual Conference session, whether virtual or in-person. Day-to-day operations include providing an active social media ministry, video production, crisis communications, technological support for leadership trainings, as well as storytelling, web and graphic design resources, and general communications training.

Questions about Communications can be directed to Kay Panovec at kpanovec@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200.

Finance & Administration and Board of Trustees

Finance & Administration includes many functions that span the Districts and Conference, including accounting, treasury management, human resource management, information technology, conference statistics, and facilities and property management. The area equips local churches through training and online content, and it resources the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Chancellor, Board of Trustees, and the Foundation's Investment Policy Committee.

2022 will be the first full year of financially administering all Districts. With the Board of Pensions and the Foundation separately incorporated, there are 12 distinct legal entities and over 100 designated and donor-restricted funds in the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Conference. While there is some complexity in our legal structure, consolidated financial administration is efficient and provides for consistent reporting across areas.

While program income is limited, interest and dividend income is earned on operating cash balances and reserves. Looking ahead, additional efficiencies in finance and administration will likely be incremental and driven largely by technology.

Questions about the Finance & Administration and Trustee Budgets can be directed to Bill Brownson at bbrownson@wocumc.org or 614-505-7440.

Districts

As noted at the outset, how Districts are supported through apportionments will change in 2022. While superintendents are provided for in the Conference budget, much of the programming they oversee is made possible by staff and professional services provided by apportioned connectional giving for District budgets.

In the same way District apportionments are being pooled, some District resources will be combined. Four Regional Missional Specialists will support Districts and superintendents with organizing community circuits of local churches, facilitating dialogues with churches contemplating mergers or other strategic options, coaching and mediating, and being a link between Conference and District programming. These positions were formerly clergy assistants to superintendents. Rev. Linda Middelberg, Bishop Palmer's clergy assistant, will coordinate the work of the Regional Missional Specialists.

While superintendents will supervise other District staff, their salary and benefits expenses will be pooled as well. With District budgets structured this way, the optimal resource can be deployed regardless of the District. Further, financial resourcing decisions can be focused on effective grantmaking and supplemental professional services within each District.

Apportionment support for Districts in 2022 is $2.6 million compared to $2.7 million in 2021, a 4% reduction.

Questions about the District budgets can be directed to your District superintendent or Linda Middelberg at lmiddelberg@wocumc.org.

Self-Supporting Programming

United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio

The UMFOW envisions a day when all congregations of the West Ohio Conference possess the financial resources required to be healthy, growing, spiritually vital, risk-taking centers for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Foundation expects to achieve its vision through:

- Local Church Partnerships: Providing stewardship education and training to develop a culture of generosity within the Conference.
- Planned Giving: Assisting donors in achieving their individual legacy giving priorities by providing planned giving guidance and options.
- Investment Services: Providing competitive endowment and investment management services compatible with UMC Social Principles.

This vision is made possible by investment administration fee income of $265,000 on nearly $90 million of local church, District and Conference assets invested with the Foundation. This support covers all direct expenses of the Foundation, eliminating the need for support from apportioned connectional giving.

Direct questions about the Foundation to its Executive Director, Susan Black, at sblack@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200.

Board of Pensions

The Board of Pensions, which oversees more than $15 million of clergy benefit expenditures, is financially the largest Conference or District program area. Most of the expense is related to the active clergy health plan, followed by clergy pension plan liabilities. Beginning in 2022, retiree health care will be through an HRA program rather than a group insurance plan. The financial support level will be the same or better than the current plan, and retirees will have the option to pay for a supplemental plan that best meets their needs. As a result, there will be no direct billing of retirees for their share of the plan, nor will there be a large insurance premium. The result is a reduction in both income and expense for retiree healthcare.

What is not covered by direct billing for clergy benefits will be provided for from investments in the Clergy Benefits fund, which at the time of this report was valued at $65 million, well in excess of the actuarial liabilities of the Board (i.e., the amount needed to make good on our benefit promises).

2022 will be the second year in which the Board of Pensions has not requested apportionment support.

Additional information regarding the work of the Board of Pensions can be found in Recommendation #3 and on page 50, lines 170-202.

Questions should be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer and HR Director, at mikremnitzer@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200, ext. 226.

2. The Council on Finance and Administration, using the formula, shall mail apportionments for 2022 to each local church by Friday, October 8, 2021.
3. District apportionments will use the same formula and be based on a consolidated district apportionment budget.

Receipts and Payments:

All payments to the Annual Conference and General Church apportionment funds shall be made through and recorded by the Conference Treasurer's office. In addition to apportioned funds, non-apportioned benevolences paid directly by a local church should be reported on Table II of the church's annual statistical report.

Budgets and Reports:

1. The Council on Finance and Administration budget report to the Annual Conference shall include at least the proposed budget, the current budget, the previous year's budget, and actual expenses. The report published in the Journal shall also chart a four-year history of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), Conference Average Compensation (CAC), the Consumer Price Index (CPI-U), the Grand Total Paid (GTP) by local churches, and the Conference budget.

(NOTE: Any change in compensation is considered in the context of the Conference's financial position. In some years, the increase will be zero, regardless of the amount recommended in this legislation.)
2. The IRS rate for volunteers shall be paid when an expense is vouchered by any board or committee for automobile travel on Conference business.
3. The Conference shall reimburse two lay alternate and two clergy alternate delegates to the regular or special called General and Jurisdictional Conference based on the per diem as set by the business offices of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Miscellaneous:

1. Lay and clergy directories shall be published annually in the Journal. Electronic database versions of these directories are for the exclusive use of the Conference councils, boards, and committees for their specific ministries. The directory database shall not be sold or loaned to individuals, groups, or commercial organizations or otherwise made available in a form that facilitates direct solicitation of clergy and lay members by such individuals or organizations.

2. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration through the Conference Treasurer’s office shall send, at least annually to each pastor and local church treasurer, information that may be helpful to their financial operations. This may include tax, legal, stewardship, and fiduciary responsibility bulletins.
3. Effective July 1, 2007, local church/charges, member, or constituents of a local church/charge shall not make a loan or a grant to a clergy person. When a local church, its members or constituents, acts as a banker to its pastor, the dynamics of the relationship between the pastor and the congregation are very likely to be changed and may adversely affect the ministry of both congregation and pastor.

Recommendation #2

2022 Recommendation Commission on Equitable Compensation

Adopted

Ministry happens when clergy, leaders and congregations put into motion what they hear from God. Jesus said, “Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise person who built their house on rock.” (Matthew 7:24) Vital and healthy ministry takes place when clergy and congregations actively support the vision and mission of reaching and making new disciples of Jesus Christ for purpose of transforming the world. When we work collaboratively, we are better positioned to support spiritual journeys in a variety of missional contexts.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, outlined in the 2016 Book of Discipline (Paragraph 625), is a way to employ financial resources as a means of support for congregational revitalization. The West Ohio Conference and churches partner together through faithful stewardship, accountability, and encouragement. The goal is to come alongside churches and clergy as a transition resource to assist congregations in the movement toward greater vitality and health.

Guidelines and Recommendations

The Commission presents the following guidelines and recommendations for the calendar year 2022 with consideration of the projected General Board of Pensions Conference Average Compensation (C.A.C.) of $66,186 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided).

A. Minimum Salary

Recommended Minimum Salaries	2022*	2021
Elder/Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$44,270	$43,400
Provisional Elder/Provisional Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$40,140	$39,350
Associate Member Full-Time appointment	$40,140	$39,350
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time (Course of Study completed or equivalent)	$38,710	$37,950
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time	$36,680	$35,960

*Average increase 2%

Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than full-time service under the provisions of paragraph 338.2 of the 2016 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the Conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.
- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.

- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/racial considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its pastor shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.
- g. Any situations limiting full itineracy of pastors will be taken under consideration prior to approving equitable compensation amounts

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require pastoral leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides pastoral support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long-term minimum salary support by:

- 1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the pastor of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.
 - 2. Limiting the maximum number of years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per pastor or church. Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year.
 - 3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan.
 - 4. Being aware that churches and charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time pastor, or to realign the charge.
 - 5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team.
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and pastors, that total ministerial support includes items beyond cash salary, such as accountable reimbursements, housing, utilities, pension benefits and health insurance.
- E. It is the responsibility of the pastor of any church not receiving agreed upon compensation from the church during the calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier of March 15th of next year; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment of change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under the 2016 Book of Discipline Paragraph 342.4 once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such pastor.
- F. The commission recognizes that clergy compensation contributes to pastoral morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all person, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and pastors.

Introduction to Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

This year's recommendation from the Conference Board of Pensions is mostly consistent with past years with a few exceptions listed below.

Specific items of note in this year's recommendation include:

- Eligible retirees will transition to a Health Reimbursement Arrangement for 2022 (see Healthcare Benefits #2)
- In addition to full-time appointments, West Ohio will continue to include clergy serving ½ and ¾ time in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the denomination's pension plan for clergy. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #2)
- For the Pre-82 clergy pension plan, the past service rate (PSR) will increase to $623. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #7)
- Local churches will continue to be billed directly for clergy pension costs. The billing rate will remain at 11% of plan compensation (cash salary and housing) for the CRSP defined benefit portion of the plan, capped at DAC (Denominational Average Compensation). (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #5)
- Retiree housing allowance exclusion will remain unchanged

Questions about this recommendation can be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200.

Recommendation #3

2022 Board of Pensions and Health Benefits

Adopted

Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain a retirement program for the benefit of ordained ministers and their families, other church workers, and lay employees (§1501). As a part of those plans (as approved by the General Conference) participation by full-time ordained clergy is required. The Discipline does not give permission for a local church to deny payment of the retirement benefits for any pastor appointed to that charge. Such payments are part of the total obligations of receiving the appointment of a pastor.
2. The 2012 General Conference made Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) eligibility optional for Annual Conferences for those clergy with less than full-time appointments. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits approved the continued CRSP eligibility of three-quarter and one-half time appointments effective January 1, 2014. The Board affirms this recommendation for 2021.
3. Licensed local pastors (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if the pastor is appointed less than full-time. Provisional elders and deacons and full elders and deacons (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if they are appointed half time. To waive participation, the pastor must complete, have notarized, and return a "Waiver of Participation", which is supplied by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The Plan Compensation shall include salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided.
5. The contribution rate for funding the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) will be billed in two parts; the Defined Benefit (DB) portion shall not exceed 11% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)¹. The DAC for 2022 is $75,570. The rate for funding of the Defined Contribution (DC) portion shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation. (The participant must be enrolled and making a minimum of 1% United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) contribution to have the full 3% credit to CRSP-DC.) Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
6. The contribution rate for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation for all full-time or three-quarter time appointments for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors. Contributions will be paid monthly by each charge for their pastor or pastors. The West Ohio Conference, acting as an agent of Wespath, shall be responsible for the collection of these funds. Because each full-time or three-quarter time appointment for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors must be part of the CPP, it is the obligation of each local church to pay this cost. Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.

7. The base annuity rate for 2022 on Pre-82 pensions will increase to $623. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Each eligible clergy member and local pastor will contribute at least 3% of his or her plan compensation to the UMPIP unless opting out of the auto-enrollment feature. Additionally, each eligible clergy member and local pastor will have their UMPIP contribution increased 1% until a maximum of 10% is reached unless opting out of auto-escalation. Participants may contribute more than the 10% max, if desired. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.
10. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the benefit package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact his or her District Superintendent.
11. A death benefit of $50,000 is part of CPP for active clergy. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and full-time licensed local clergypersons.

Health Care Benefits

1. Active Pastors: Eligibility

- a. Each charge shall fund health insurance for its eligible pastors and families through the West Ohio Conference program. The following chart shows who shall be covered and who has responsibility for payment of premiums.

Status	Time	Coverage	Premium Payment
Full Member Provisional Member Associate Member	3/4 time and FT	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Local Pastor	Full Time	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Full Member Provisional Member Associate Member	1/2 time	Optional	Subject to District Superintendent and local church approval

- b. Pastors under full-time appointment to West Ohio Conference local churches, District Offices or Conference Office will participate in the Conference health insurance plan. If such pastors have duplicate coverage through a spouse's employment, have access to military coverage or prior employer insurance they may use those plans. A written waiver is required to use other insurance.
 - i. Should a church provide compensation to pastors that opt out of the Conference plan, care should be taken not to violate employer payment plan rules, the violation of which could subject the church to financial penalties. Clergy opting out of the West Ohio Conference health insurance plan for any other reason must do so in writing and the decision is irrevocable: he or she will be prohibited from accessing a West Ohio Conference active or retiree health plan in the future.
- c. A pastor serving in active full-time ministry beyond his/her 65th birthday will remain on the Conference health insurance plan.
- d. If one in an active clergy couple dies, the appointment of the surviving spouse will be responsible for health insurance as an active participant and responsible for payment of premium.
- e. Surviving spouses and qualified dependents of deceased active clergy previously serving in an appointment will pay 25% of the premium cost of the policy in use for the 24 months following the clergy's date of death. Thereafter, access will be based on years of service consistent with the premium sharing available to retirees.

2. Retired Pastors, Surviving Spouses, Medical Leave participants

Eligibility: When a pastor retires under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b or ¶358.2c health insurance is available to the pastor, spouse, and eligible dependents.

- a. Beginning 1/1/2022, a Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) based on years of service toward retirement eligibility will be provided for each eligible retiree and spouse.
- b. Retirees under age 65 will be provided a stipend to purchase an individual policy or to remain on the Conference plan. The amount of this stipend will be a fixed dollar amount consistent with the amount toward post 65 retirees, which is based on years of service toward retirement eligibility.
- c. Upon retirement at age 65 or thereafter, the pastor and spouse (at age 65) are responsible for enrolling in Medicare Part A and B. Those having opted out of Social Security will not have access to West Ohio Conference retiree (over 65 years) insurance.
- d. Retired clergy or surviving spouses who remarry will not have access to Conference insurance for a new dependent.
- e. Pastors who transfer from an Episcopal appointment in another United Methodist Conference to an Episcopal appointment in the West Ohio Conference where the Conference has pension responsibility will be granted years of service from previous Conferences.

3. Other Health Care Provisions

- a. All full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees of the West Ohio Conference and its District Offices will have access to health insurance under the same provisions as active and retired clergy.
- b. Any participant who terminates employment may continue their health insurance for up to 12 months at his or her own expense. The participant's payment for insurance will continue through the former local church to the Conference until coverage is terminated or 12 months pass, whichever occurs first.
- c. The Conference Board of Pension shall be empowered to select the carrier, set the premium rate, and adjust benefits and method of funding the total health insurance program in a manner that is deemed appropriate and equitable for both local churches and participants in the program.
- d. The Conference Board of Pension shall extend an invitation to the Board of Ministry to review and comment on material changes in the Board of Pension recommendation to Annual Conference at least 30 days prior to Annual Conference.

General

1. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is designed for eligible clergy and lay Conference and District employees and their dependent family members who seek professional emotional assistance. This includes certified lay ministers and pastors appointed to a local church, clergy appointed to extension ministry and serving on Conference and District staffs, as well as lay Conference and District staff. Pastors appointed to their first church and newly hired Conference and District lay staff are eligible after 6 months. This service is provided by OhioHealth at no cost.
2. A moving reimbursement (receipt(s) of cost) of up to $3,500 is paid to each full-time and three-quarter time clergy household of the retiring class and each member accepting CPP disability leave and the families of active full-time members in the event of the death of the member, provided they have not previously had a move reimbursed and provided they have been a participating member in the Conference Pension Program for the last five years prior to retirement.
3. The Board requests no apportionments in 2022 to support its work.
4. The church from which the pastor is moving will pay pension payments for pastors moving at conference time for the whole month of June. Payments for new pastors will begin on the first of the month following the appointment.
5. All churches are encouraged to include eligible full-time church lay employees in UMPIP; the retirement Benefits program offered by Wespath. ¶258.2g (12)
6. The Conference will post on its website the date when the 2022 Comprehensive Funding Plan from Wespath releases its opinion. This became an annual requirement because of 2012 General Conference legislation.

Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Ohio Conference

The West Ohio Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

Whereas the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergy”), and

Whereas the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergy with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation, and

Whereas pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergy are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergy in consideration of previous active service, and

Whereas the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergy who are or were members of this Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) during the year 2022 by each retired or disabled Clergy who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy; and Therefore, be it resolved that pension or disability payments to which rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans and/or annuities from funds authorized under the Discipline. This may include payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline. Those payments may result from any service a Clergy rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergy of this Conference rendered to:

- any local church
- Annual Conference of the Church
- general agency of the Church
- other institution of the Church
- former denomination that is now a part of the Church
- any other employer

that employed the Clergy to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergy’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year..

Recommendation #4Delegation Resolution Re: Christmas Covenant*Referred to the West Ohio Delegation

Whereas, the connectional ties between the church in the United States and the Central Conferences is of sacred worth, and is vital to the ministry and work of the global United Methodist Church; and

Whereas delegates and leaders from Africa and the Philippines worked together towards a response to how we move forward as a global church.

Whereas delegates and leaders from central conferences rarely submit legislation to General Conference.

Whereas, the creation of a U.S. Regional Conference and conversion of the Central Conferences to Regional Conferences, as outlined in the Christmas Covenant, help to establish structural parity throughout the global church; and

Whereas, the creation of a U.S. Regional Conference, as outlined in the Christmas Covenant from the Philippines, will align and establish the governance necessary to allow the church to accommodate ministry across various contexts, and more effectively make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world;

Whereas Annual Conferences in the Philippines have endorsed and submitted the petition to the General Conference and Annual Conferences in the SEJ and SCJ have affirmed the petition.

Whereas additional background and specific information can be found at this website <https://www.christmascovenant.com/pageecc>.

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference Delegation has endorsed the Christmas Covenant.

Therefore the West Ohio Annual Conference affirms the Christmas Covenant.

Now, therefore be it resolved we, the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church support the Christmas Covenant legislation in full, including the creation of a US Regional Conference; and

Be it further resolved we, the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, recognize and support the leadership of our Central Conferences in the creation and furtherance of the Christmas Covenant legislation; and

Be it further resolved the conference secretary shall send copies of this resolution to all delegates to General Conference from the West Ohio Annual Conference, and urge them to support the Christmas Covenant and to make such legislation a priority for the West Ohio AC delegation at General Conference in 2022; and

Be it further resolved the conference secretary shall send copies of this resolution to the Commission on the General Conference, and urge them to take such action as is necessary for the full consideration of legislation related to the Christmas Covenant from the Philippines Annual Conference-Cavite-by a Committee of the Whole, for the General Conference in 2022

FROM: Rev Roger Grace, Mr. Bill Brownson, Rev Karen Cook, and Mr. George Howard on behalf of the West Ohio Delegation to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Recommendation #5Loved as the Image of God*Adopted

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference maintains and affirms that “all persons are individuals of sacred worth, created in the image of God. All persons need the ministry of the Church in their struggles for human fulfillment, as well as the spiritual and emotional care of a fellowship that enables reconciling relationships with God, with others, and with self.” The United Methodist Book of Discipline, 2016, ¶161;

Whereas the West Ohio Conference also maintains that: “We recognize that God made all creation and saw that it was good. As a diverse people of God who bring special gifts and evidences of God’s grace to the unity of the Church and to society, we are called to be faithful to the example of Jesus’ ministry to all persons”. The United Methodist Book of Discipline 2016 ¶140;

Whereas “inclusiveness means openness, acceptance, and support that enables all persons to participate in the life of the Church, the community, and the world; therefore, inclusiveness denies every semblance of discrimination.” The United Methodist Book of Discipline 2016 ¶140;

Whereas, as part of a global United Methodist Church, we, as West Ohio Conference Members, celebrate the “rich quality of our Church, especially as it has developed in the last century, is its global character. ...United Methodists, as a diverse people, continue to strive for consensus in understanding the gospel. In our diversity, we are held together by a shared inheritance and a common desire to participate in the creative and redemptive activity of God. Our task is to articulate our vision in a way that will draw us together as a people in mission.” The United Methodist Church Book of Discipline 2016. ¶105:, and thus, we strive to be in mission and ministry with all people;

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference maintains and affirms that our primary purpose is to “make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world”;

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference serves an area of diverse communities across the spectrum of race, class, orientation, setting, education and language, and find all of these qualities of value and worth;

Whereas the West Ohio Annual Conference seeks to be in ministry in such a manner that reflects all of these values with all people and through all people.

Therefore be it resolved that the West Ohio Annual Conference will seek to be aligned in spirit and practice with an expression of United Methodism that best captures and brings about the spirit and vision of a theologically diverse conference that is willing and able to create spaces and commit to being fully accepting and inclusive of all people.

Recommendation #6

Call to West Ohio Annual Conference to Recognize and Validate Persons' Calls to Ordination Without Prejudice Toward Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity

Postponed Indefinitely

Whereas, throughout the history of the church, its views of the world and of what is supported by Biblical and Christian teaching has shifted. In the 1700s, the Biblically grounded theory that the earth was approximately 6,000 years old gave way to a scientific understanding that the earth is millions of years old. In the 1800s, Biblical support for chattel slavery gave way increasingly to Biblical support for the eradication of slavery in all its forms, a position that was held by John Wesley. In the 1900s, Biblical support for the practice of refusing ordination to women gave way to Biblical support for the belief that God calls women and men, not only to ordination but to the vocation of bishop. And now, in the 2000s, Biblical support for the rejection of openly LGBTQIA persons as capable of being called and validated for ordained ministry is giving way to Biblical support for the practice of ordaining people of all sexual orientations and gender identity who have experienced the call and demonstrate the fruits for ordained ministry. This history is a demonstration of how the Spirit of God is continuing to lead the church into the fullness of the truth (John 14:25-26).

Whereas, this history reflects the best of our Wesleyan tradition. Specifically, as United Methodists, we see how our theological task, as described in the Book of Discipline (§105), is put to use constructively, “in that every generation must appropriate creatively the wisdom of the past and seek God in their midst in order to think afresh about God, revelation, sin, redemption, worship, the church, freedom, justice, moral responsibility, and other significant theological concerns.” Committed to the primacy of Scripture, we are challenged to test our “expressions of faith by asking...do they provide the Church and its members with a witness that is faithful to the gospel as reflected in our living heritage and that is authentic and convincing in the light of human experience and the present state of human knowledge.” This is our heritage that carries forward in these times of change. It is this heritage that assists us in more fully realizing the commitment we have made in our Constitution that “all persons are of sacred worth [and that] no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, status or economic condition” (§4. Article IV.)

Whereas, in the United Methodist Church, the vows of baptism are the same for all disciples, lay and clergy. On behalf of the whole church, we are each asked: “Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Savior, put your whole trust in his grace, and promise to serve him as your Lord, in union with the Church which Christ has opened to people of all ages, nations, and races?” This vow neither makes nor implies any disqualifying distinction among those who would so confess, such as ones based on gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other “status.”

Therefore, by virtue of our own vows, we recognize the sacred worth of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons as beloved children of God. Furthermore, our baptismal vows call upon us to exercise “the freedom and power God gives [us] to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.” To that end we find the current language in the Book of Discipline that discriminates against the ordination of otherwise qualified candidates to be unjust.

Therefore, we in the West Ohio Annual Conference affirm candidates of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We recognize that to present themselves for ordination, they have made and fulfilled their baptismal vows in their profession of faith, reception into membership, walk of discipleship, and disciplined participation in the candidacy and ordination process. Therefore, we promise to serve Christ as Lord in union with the church which Christ has opened to all people.

Further, we call upon the West Ohio Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to exercise faithfully their vows of baptism and to consider requests for ordination and conference membership without prejudice toward a candidate’s sexual orientation or gender identity.

VIII. FINANCIAL REPORTS

A. CFO REPORT

Presented by: Bill Brownson

Despite the challenges of navigating a pandemic, the Conference, inclusive of the Districts, ended 2020 in a financially solid position. Because our finances – expense management, reserve building and investment management — have been tended to for many years, we started the pandemic from a position of financial strength that allowed us to be responsive to the needs of local churches and program staff.

Three things combined to help overcome somewhat lower than expected apportionment receipts. First, like many churches, the conference and districts jointly applied for and were granted a $1.1 million PPP loan, all of which has been forgiven. Second, our balance sheet is dominated by investments so when investment returns are strong, as they were in 2020, that creates capacity. Finally, we have diligently been monitoring benefit plan commitments to make sure we can honor them over the long term. Because retiree insurance claims were less than expected in 2019, premiums went down in 2020. That led to a lower actuarial health care liability — $46 million instead of $50 million. This is one way improvement in wellness helps us maintain generous benefits that we can pay for. On that count, we have $65 million invested to cover current and future benefits.

In the spirit of the Parable of the Talents in Matthew 25, we have not buried our treasure – which is your treasure.

- Though changed in delivery, the work of the conference continued, in some cases at an accelerated rate (video production, for example).
- Disasters were responded to, cultural competency tended to, new clergy were ordained and commissioned, pastors retired and others were appointed to new churches – our ministries ably continued.
- At the outset of the pandemic, the Board of Pensions approved $500,000 in clergy benefit grants to local churches.
- Almost all budgeted grant programs continued without reduction.
- Late in 2020, we approved $120,000 in Technology Support Grants as part of a $200,000 program to help churches continue living into a future that builds on what we've learned during COVID. Many districts extended technology support grants as well.
- The Council on Finance and Administration approved an additional $200,000 in support to General Church agencies and funds to help keep them strong and their work moving forward.
- The Council on Development became its own legal entity as The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio and the Board of Pension is likewise now its own legal entity.

These are just a few of the ways we not only continued advancing our plans but, in some cases, accelerated them in a time of considerable change and uncertainty.

This is my 11th CFO report to Annual Conference. As I look back ten years from a financial perspective, we have progressed from having liabilities that exceeded our assets – we didn't have enough assets to make good on our benefit promises – to having all of our long term benefit promises covered by investments and then some. It was in some regards a decade of managing and declaring victory over the funding of retiree health care and pension plan funding.

I believe real estate will emerge as a key theme in the next ten years. Research shows that supporting our places of worship are falling on fewer people and it's getting more expensive, crowding out resources for mission. In combination with worship and faith communities being and looking different than it used to — just think about how COVID has changed worship — I expect Conference Trustees will be administering the disposition of many churches and related property in the coming years. What better way to honor those who have gone before than by being strategic with investing sale proceeds in new churches and faith communities and revitalizing others.

Whatever the future holds, as indicated at the outset, the Conference — which includes eight districts, a mission board, the Foundation and the Board of Pensions — is well positioned to continue equipping local church leaders, both lay and clergy – to transform people and communities.

For a more comprehensive understanding of Conference finances, be sure to read in this Book of Reports the reports of Trustees, Council on Finance and Administration, and Board of Pensions, along with the 2022 budget information, which includes 2020 actual results.

As always, I welcome your comments and questions at bbrownson@wocumc.org or at 614-505-7440.

B. 2022 MISSION & MINISTRY FUNDING PLAN

The West Ohio Annual Conference and its Districts' Budgets rely significantly on receipts from Connectional Giving apportioned three funds:

1. Districts Ministries Fund, which provides for staffing (except superintendents), programming and grants.
2. Conference Ministries Fund combines all Conference offices (Connectional Ministries, Missional Church Development, Financial Administration, Episcopal Office and District Leadership, Communications).
3. Seven General Agency and the North Central Jurisdiction are combined into the General Church Ministries Fund.

General Church funds cannot be used by the Annual Conference for any purpose and will be forwarded pro-rata based on the denominational budget to the General Church each month. The exception is receipts on the Ministerial Education Fund, 25% of which is retained by Annual Conferences for Ministerial Education purposes.

The detailed 2022 budget also shows the 2021 and 2020 budgets as well as 2020 actual results. As separate legal entities and no longer reliant on apportionment support, the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO) and the Board of Pensions information is reported but after the Conference Ministries budget. The consolidated Districts budgets follow the Conference budget. The format strives to reflect all sources used to meet expenditures, including donor income and program income.

The total amount of apportioned Connectional Giving in 2022 will be $17,741,000, a reduction of $615,000 or 3.3%. This follows a reduction of more than $1 million in the 2021 budget from the 2020 budget.

C. AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees
West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 28 to 33 is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and it is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the consolidating information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2020 and 2019

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and healthcare programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

The more than 975 member churches are organized into eight districts. The Conference is legally the sole member of each of the eight districts included in these consolidated financial statements. The eight districts are:

- Capitol Area North (CAN)
- Capitol Area South (CAS)
- Foothills (FTH)
- Maumee Watershed (MWD)
- Miami Valley (MIV)
- Northwest Plains (NWP)
- Ohio River Valley (ORV)
- Shawnee Valley (SHV)

Because of the control exercised by the Conference over the Community Ministries of the Capitol Area (CAM), that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements.

In 2020, the Conference organized and incorporated the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, Inc. and the Board of Pensions of The West Ohio Conference, Inc. In each case, the Conference is the sole legal member, the Conference exercises control, and the financial activity will be included in the consolidated financial statements. No financial transactions have been recorded in either corporation as of December 31, 2020.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). Under U.S. GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net asset with donor restrictions.

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions- Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions- Net assets that are “temporarily restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time; and net assets that are “permanently restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as with donor restrictions. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as with donor restrictions. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be held in perpetuity by others and classified as net assets with donor restrictions. Net assets held by others represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Net assets without donor restrictions include resources without restrictions, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification to net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents excludes the cash components of investments.

The Conference maintain financial relationships with financial institutions subject to FDIC or NCUA membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. Balances are insured subject to the regulatory guidelines for banks and credit unions. Further, periodic reviews of financial institution relationships include assessment of capital adequacy. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $3.1 million and $1.9 million at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Accounts receivable and revenue

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Requests for apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue based on the satisfaction of the performance obligations over time. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

Medical Coverage Insurance - The Conference operates a medical coverage plan covering eligible lay employees, eligible clergy employees, eligible retired clergy of the Conference, and member churches. Medical coverage premiums are collected from member churches and retirees monthly. Revenue is recognized based on the related satisfaction of the performance obligations over time, which is monthly. Receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts as payments are automatically pulled electronically when invoiced.

Camp Operations - The Conference operates three camps throughout its region. Camp sessions primarily occur in the summer. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the time of the camp session. As such, no receivables are recorded. Any revenue collected in the current year pertaining to a camp session for the next year is recognized as deferred revenue.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the completion of the event. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statement of activities. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Total revenue recognized at a point in time is $185,218 and $889,771 for December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. Total revenue recognized over time is $24,660,461 and $24,794,350 for December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Investment returns, including interest income, dividends, unrealized and realized gains or losses and fees are included in the consolidated statement of activities. See Notes 4 and 6.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2020 or 2019.

The Conference holds approximately 798 acres of land related to its camps that were donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Conference is holding 11 properties for resale at December 31, 2020 and was holding 12 properties for resale at December 31, 2019. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions (BOP) (formerly Board of Pensions and Health Benefits), Trustees, or The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO) (formerly Council on Development (COD))). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the Conference, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives or adopts the policy of the UMFWO if invested with that entity.

Contributions

Revenues from contributions are recognized when a donor's unconditional commitment is received. Donor contributions are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are released to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions originally, and then released to net assets without donor restrictions in the same year. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair value at the date of the gift.

Expense allocation

The Conference allocates a portion of administrative expenses to program and mission services based on various direct costs related to each program and an analysis of personnel time.

Income and property taxes

The Conference is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for unrelated business income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2020 or 2019. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2020 and 2019.

Life annuity gifts

The UMFWO receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made to the December 31, 2019 financial statement presentation to correspond to the current year's format.

Subsequent events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure May 28, 2021, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

2. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN RECEIVABLES

The Conference conducts fundraising activities on an ongoing basis and some of those efforts result in multi-year promises to give. Pledges are recorded at their estimated fair value using discount rates ranging from 5.20% to 6.17%. Pledge campaign receivables as of December 31 are as follows:

	2020	2019
Pledges due in:
Less than one year	$ 17,500	8,750
One to five years	35,000	35,000
More than five years	157,500	166,250
	210,000	210,000
Less discount to present value	(116,444)	(116,444)
	$ 93,556	93,556

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference provide loans to member churches for purposes of providing a source of funds to pay for renovation projects or new construction. Payments are due either on a monthly or quarterly basis, or in a lump sum upon completion of project construction. Interest charged may be at a rate of Prime (3.25% and 4.75% at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively) plus 2.00%, the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) (0.078% and 1.543% at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively) plus 0.90%, a fixed rate ranging from 2.25% to 4.25%, or be interest free. The payment terms range from due upon project completion up to 17 years.

Notes receivable are considered delinquent if required payments are not made; however, loans are not charged incremental interest or penalty fees provided foreclosure of property does not occur. Based on this practice, despite loans made to churches closely related to the Conference, there is a certain level of credit risk that may become significant.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. Based on collection activity and known financial status of the church, an allowance may be recorded. The allowance for uncollectible notes receivable was $25,615 and $27,015 at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

Maturities of notes receivable over the subsequent five years and thereafter are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2021		$	29,125
2022			23,607
2023			15,591
2024			7,404
2025			6,824
Thereafter			13,616
		$	96,167

4. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2020	2019
Money market	$ 1,428,294	2,184,053
Government obligations	4,160,237	2,742,929
Corporate securities	5,285,227	6,433,657
Common stock	32,652,585	31,010,957
Mutual funds	62,183,421	54,989,998
Certificates of deposit	1,296,390	2,006,515
	$ 107,006,154	99,368,109

5. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ASSETS HELD BY OTHERS

ORV has a beneficial interest in two assets held by others. The assets are not in possession of the Affiliate and are administered by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Under the terms of the endowment, ORV has the irrevocable right to receive income earned on the endowment assets held by others in perpetuity. ORV has recorded an asset titled "beneficial interest in assets held by others" equivalent to the present value of the expected future cash flows from the endowments, approximated by the estimated fair value of the endowments' assets.

Additionally, another bequest was identified by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church where the beneficiary is the BOP. It was determined that only the initial bequest amount was to be held in perpetuity so only that corpus was recorded as permanently restricted and the investment income from the gift was recorded as other restricted assets held by others at December 31, 2020 and 2019.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2020 and 2019.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in assets held by others: Valuation is determined by the underlying interest in funds held by the custodian, which are primarily invested in marketable securities with quoted market prices.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31:

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2020 and 2019. Property held for sale is valued at $2,425,998 and $2,107,958 as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively, as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Changes in the fair value of properties held for sale and beneficial interest in assets held by others, which are measured on a recurring and nonrecurring basis using significant unobservable (Level 3) inputs, for 2020 and 2019:

	Recurring	Nonrecurring

The Conference has acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the Conference determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

7. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

ORV maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (1.75% and 3.25% at December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively). The assets of the ORV are pledged as collateral.

ORV was a guarantor on the commercial loan of a local church in that district. At December 31, 2019, the outstanding balance on the loan was approximately $1.2 million. The local church was current on the loan as of December 31, 2019, and management did not expect to be required to perform on the loan. During 2020, the terms of the loan were renegotiated which relieved the ORV of its guarantor status. Accordingly, no related liability is recorded in the consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2020 and 2019.

8. PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM LOAN

The Conference received a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act for $1,119,400 in May 2020. Under the terms of the loan, all or a portion of the loan may be forgiven in accordance with the program requirements. Repayments of unforgiven principal and interest at 1% begins in the tenth month following the date of the note in equal installments over eighteen months. The Conference applied for full forgiveness of the PPP loan and received approval of forgiveness in the entire amount of the PPP loan in December 2020 from the bank and the Small Business Administration (SBA). The related revenue from the forgiveness is included in miscellaneous revenue on the consolidated statement of activities for the year ended December 31, 2020 because management determined the conditions for forgiveness were met.

9. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2020	2019
Land and improvements	$ 3,704,915	3,457,929
Buildings and building improvements	12,778,183	12,978,553

	$ 16,371,986	16,368,217

10. OPERATING LEASES

ORV leases office space as an operating lease commencing in January 2018 from a local church, with annual payments of $1. As compensation to the Lessor, Lessee will pay for repairs and remediation to the property as set out in Exhibit B to the lease. Since the commencement of the lease, ORV has paid $196,675 towards the repairs and remediation of the property.

The Conference leases certain other office equipment under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various times over the next five years. Total lease expenditures in 2020 and 2019 were $114,847 and $168,177, respectively. Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2021	$ 27,592
2022	27,592
2023	27,592
2024	27,592
2025	16,096
	$ 126,464

11. NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

The net assets with donor restrictions that are restricted by time or purpose includes assets and trust obligations of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that have not been met. Net assets restricted by time or purpose at December 31, are restricted to the following uses:

	2020	2019
Church buildings	$ 2,904,198	2,563,909
District operations	1,358,040	1,220,016

	$ 15,033,594	13,735,282

The net asset with donor restrictions that are held by others includes assets of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the corpus of the original gift. See Note 5 regarding beneficial interest in assets held by others. Net assets that are being held by others at December 31, are restricted to the following:

	2020	2019
Beneficial interest in assets held by others	$ 122,998	122,998
Local churches	204,301	206,057
Church buildings	68,696	68,696
Cemetery support endowments	22,726	22,726
	$ 418,721	420,477

12. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The UMFWO is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the UMFWO. Total estimated fair value of the UMFWO's interest in these funds at December 31, 2020 and 2019, is not available.

13. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2020	2019
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 85,471	106,252
Expenses
Salaries	179,627	210,740
Payroll taxes and benefits	61,831	62,801
Travel	2,052	8,288
Episcopal initiatives	21,182	87,328
Occupancy and office expenses	51,502	56,107
	316,194	425,264
	$ (230,723)	(319,012)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. None of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2020 or 2019.

14. ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

Summary of changes in endowment net assets for 2020 and 2019:

15. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering substantially all employees, and is a participant in a denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 16. GAAP requires an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit plan, or post-retirement benefits plan, as an asset or liability in its consolidated statement of financial position.

For pension plans, the asset or liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the projected benefit obligation. Pension plans recognize changes in the funded status in the year in which the changes occur through net assets without donor restricted revenue or expense. For post-retirement plans other than pension plans, the asset and liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the accumulated benefit obligation.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the BOP. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $64.0 million and $58.2 million as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

16. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Pre-82 Plan

The Conference participates in a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan (the Plan), administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBPHB) of The United Methodist Church, covering all clergy with Pre-82 pension credit service. The benefits are based on the greater of the past service pension rate multiplied by the number of the clergy's Pre-82 years of service in the Plan, or the service annuity benefit specified by the Plan.

Annual contributions by the Conference are determined within certain guidelines established by the GBPHB. Contributions made by the Conference are held in a general pool with the contributions of other conferences, and are generally available to pay the beneficiaries of all employers in the Plan. The Conference's account within the Plan was over-funded as of the January 1, 2020 and January 1, 2019 valuation. The Conference was not required and did not make any contributions for 2020 or 2019.

The GBPHB prepares actuarial valuations annually as of January 1 and generally issues its report each September. The most recent valuation reflects the Plan asset values and liability funding status as of January 1, 2020.

Plan information and assumptions at January 1:

	2020	2019
Assets and funding:
Fair value of plan assets	$ 66,327,111	69,299,295
Less pension benefit obligation	(65,092,883)	(65,398,291)

Past service rate (PSR) increase	2.00%	2.00%
Mortality table	RP-14 (MP-16)	RP-14 (MP-16)

All Plan assets are invested in the Multiple Asset Fund (MAF) of the GBPHB. The investment objective of the MAF is to maximize long-term investment returns, including current income and capital appreciation, while reducing short-term risk by investing in a broad mix of investments. Weighted-average asset allocations of Plan investments as of December 31:

	2020			2019

Ministerial Pension Plan 1982- 2006 (MPP)

The Conference participates in a 403(b) defined contribution plan, the MPP for clergy employees. Eligible employees are 100% vested in their contributions. When the Plan was active, the Conference made a matching contribution equal to 12% of Denomination Average Compensation (DAC) for clergy employees. This Plan was closed to new contributions at December 31, 2006.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Effective January 1, 2007, the GBPHB amended its pension plan, creating the CRSP, which has both a defined benefit and defined contribution component. The defined contribution component of the CRSP is capped at 3% of eligible compensation. The defined benefit component provides annual income based on years of service and a percentage of DAC (1.25% for service years 2007 through 2013 and 1.00% thereafter).

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. Although a surplus was available, the Conference made a full contribution of $3,353,473 and $3,384,168 years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to GBPHB, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the BOP.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Affiliates. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Affiliates make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with the GBPHB. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions totaled approximately $193,000 and $163,000 for years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively.

17. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference is substantially supported by earned revenue. The Conference also receives contributions with donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Conference must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors. Thus, financial assets may not be available for general expenditure within one year. As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

	2020	2019
Financial assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 5,122,199	3,674,243
Investments	107,006,154	99,368,109
Accounts receivable	2,155,190	1,085,513
Financial assets available at year-end	114,283,543	104,127,865
Less those unavailable for general expenditures within one year:
Restricted by donor	15,452,315	14,155,759
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year before board designated and post-retirement benefit obligations	98,831,228	89,972,106
Board designated	43,698,543	32,154,971
Post-retirement benefits obligations	46,243,630	50,033,518
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 8,889,055	7,783,617

18. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

An outbreak of a novel strain of coronavirus (COVID-19) has disrupted supply chains and affected production and sales across a range of industries. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Conference's operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak. Impact on the Conference's donors, employees, and vendors cannot be predicted, and the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Conference's financial condition or results of operations is uncertain at this time.

D. CLERGY PROCEDURES

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

2. COMPENSATION FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and re-centering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge's Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

*Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee.

More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

In fulfilling these positions, it is further recommended the District Program Council or equivalent chair, district youth president, district associate lay leader, district director of Lay Servant Ministries, lay speakers and lay supply pastors be given consideration for these positions. 11. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

12. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST

- a. When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. The chair and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the recommendation shall be entitled to two minutes to close the discussion. 17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If he/she does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on the issues before this conference, providing he/she surrenders the chair to someone of his/her appointing at any time that he/she feels he/she should apprise the conference on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

MEMOIRS

JON BARKER

The Reverend Jon W. Barker died at the age of 82 on January 30, 2021, at his home in Maineville, Ohio. Jon was born in Willoughby, Ohio, on February 24, 1938, to Opal and Wilby Barker. The family soon moved to Dresden, Ohio, where Jon graduated from Jefferson High School in 1956. He graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1960 and received his Master of Divinity Degree from Methodist Theological School in Ohio in 1964.

Jon heard the call of Jesus to "Follow me" at the age of 15 at Lancaster Campground. It was at another camp, Camp Sabrosky, that he met fellow counselor Elaine Blank in 1965. They were married in Coldwater, Ohio in 1966.

Jon's appointments included Marathon Charge, Edon, Chillicothe Trinity, Magnetic Springs, Arcadia, New Knoxville, Zanesville Faith, Loveland, Collingwood, Elmore St. Paul Trinity, and North College Hill. After retirement in 2002, he also was appointed to South Lebanon.

In the 1960's he was an Army Chaplain for three years serving the Ohio National Guard. In several of the communities in which he lived he became the chaplain for the Police and/or Fire Departments. From 2007-2011 he was the chaplain to the Ohio State Firefighters' Association.

Jon was also active in the American Legion posts in each of his communities, and was the chaplain (on loan from the Army!) to the Cincinnati Submarine Base. His brother, Tim, was the submariner.

His hobby passion was the Pennsylvania Railroad Technical and Historical Society. His love for the railroad began as a child in his hometown of Dresden, Ohio. He had many friends who shared his passion, and he retired in the Cincinnati area in order to continue his visits with them and their layouts.

PAUL MINUS JR

Paul Murray Minus, Jr was born on July 26, 1935. He died on February 12, 2021, in Claremont, California, at the age of eighty-five years, seven months, and seventeen days.

Paul was preceded in death by his first wife, Nancy, a daughter Susan, a son David, and second wife, Carolyn Dickinson McIntyre Minus. Carolyn had been a national and international activist for social justice with the United Methodist Church, in her own right; she died on March 7, 1994. Paul is survived by his wife, Jean Minus, a sister, Betty, and son Stephen; stepchildren, Andrew, Kathryn, and Tim; grandchildren, Justin, Erin, Emily, Eliot, Elinor, Madelyn, Cordelia, Charlotte, and Aimee.

He grew up in Charleston, South Carolina, leaving a few weeks after his sixteenth birthday to attend Yale University. He received a doctorate from Yale Divinity School in 1962. Paul had begun his ministry in the South Carolina Conference in 1957, while attending school. He served as chaplain for a year at Florida State University and then moved with Nancy and their two young sons to The West Ohio Conference. For the next twenty-four years, Paul taught church history at the Methodist Theological School in Delaware.

Paul never stopped working toward effecting God's kingdom on earth. He was arrested for trying to enter a white church with students of color in Mississippi, led an unsuccessful campaign to reject the formation of Ohio's statewide lottery, and worked with local and international business leaders to establish responsible marketing of infant formula in developing countries. He founded the Council for Ethics in Economics in Columbus, to help business leaders address the ethical ramifications of their work. He wrote books on reconciling Catholics and Protestants; on Christian responsibility in the face of a hungry world; on the life of Social Gospel pioneer, Walter Rauschenbusch. At the age of sixty, Paul retired from the presidency of the Council and began working with it and Trinity Episcopal Church to help Christian laity bring to their workplaces the values of their faith. Later in Cape Cod, he founded the Faith Communities Environmental Network, which now includes more than thirty Cape Cod faith communities who have joined forces to battle the climate crisis together. At the end of his life, Paul lived with Jean at Pilgrim Place, a senior community in California. There he oversaw the energy retrofit of eighty of the community's individual homes and established the Napier Initiative, a program by which students at the city's five colleges are matched with mentors at Pilgrim Place and awarded cash prizes to further environmental and social justice programs of their own devising. Paul used his many gifts to create institutions that would survive him and continue his work.

The memorial service was zoomed on April 10, 2021, with Barbara Troxel presiding and C. Joseph Sprague preaching. Committal of ashes was at Walnut Grove Cemetery in Worthington on June 19.

G KEITH NASH

Reverend Keith Nash, age 95, of Wesley Glen Retirement Community, died February 5, 2021.

Keith was born in Dayton, Ohio on August 4, 1925, to John and Lula Nash., the youngest of four children. He graduated from Miami University where his major was Chemistry. He was President of the Methodist Men's Fraternity and active in Wesley Foundation-two groups that influenced future decisions regarding his life's work. Keith completed one year of Graduate School at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, where he met LaVerne (an active Methodist!), and soon to be wife. They were married on April 3, 1948, in her Chicago church.

Laverne discovered his trove of unanswered letters from college friends-now attending seminary. All were questioning his career choice. After many discussions together, consultation with the Methodist clergy at their local church and much praying-the answer was clear. Thus, seminary training was to be the next step in this journey.

Keith graduated from Garrett in 1953 but had already taken his first appointment early in 1952. He served four congregations, mostly in central Ohio, for the next 10 years. An opportunity came to serve a special Associateship at First Methodist Church in downtown Chicago. The whole family enjoyed big city life for 5 years. They returned to Ohio for Keith's next 5 appointments and the last 24 years of active ministry: retiring at Bexley U.M. in 1991. He is survived by his wife of 72 years (La Verne), children: Marcia (Mike) Dungan, Roger (Tricia) Nash, Karla (Randy) Jones, 6 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

Charles was a graduate of Memphis State University, where he received undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degrees in Sacred Music & Organ. He began his full time Minister of Music career in the spring of 1962 at First Methodist Church in Brownsville, Tennessee, where he served until July, 1968. From 1968-1973, he served First Methodist, Milan, Tennessee; 1973-1983, First Methodist, Big Spring, Texas; 1983-1985, St. Paul, Abilene, Texas; 1985-1994, Whitehaven United Methodist, Memphis, Tennessee; September 1994-December 2005, First United Methodist, Middletown, Ohio, where he retired from full time ministry. After retirement, Charles and Patty moved to Knoxville, Tennessee, where their children had settled. It was time to be closer to the grandchildren, who were growing up too fast. Charles continued to serve as a substitute organist in many area churches before becoming the organist at Central United Methodist, playing his last service on October 25, 2020. Central Church followed all of the meeting restrictions issued by the conference and we are confident that Charles did not come in contact with COVID-19 there.

Charles was ordained a Deacon in the United Methodist Church at the West Ohio Conference in 1997. He was a life member of the American Guild of Organists, and was a past Dean of the Dayton, Ohio chapter. He was a past Rotary International president, a Paul Harris Fellow and was a volunteer teacher at Joy of Music School in Knoxville.

SUSAN ROADS

The Rev. Dr. Susan Kay (Kelley) Roads, originally of Seaman Ohio, was born on June 26, 1945, to her parents Byron S. Kelley and Almeda Sue (Stamper) Kelley. She was married to Rev. George H. Roads, also a United Methodist pastor who retired in 1997.

Susan was a graduate of Seaman High School, Wilmington College, The Methodist Theological School and Ashland University in Ashland Ohio, where she received her doctorate of ministry.

During her 2nd year of seminary, Susan was appointed to Ridgeway UM Church. After graduation, she was appointed clergy to the New Holland and Atlanta UM Church charge, followed by United Methodist churches in Peebles, Wilkins, Monclova, and Bryan, Ohio. Susan retired from ministry in 2011. She and her husband George, together ministered 91 years.

Susan was very creative and was always into something new. Susan spent many hours helping Bob McEwen get elected to State Representative for Ohio, running for city council in Marion, Ohio, and being very active in the Emmaus Community in several cities in southern Ohio. Before going to seminary, she ministered (and entertained) several church banquets by speaking the Word and singing favorite gospel hymns. Susan collected music and also laughs. She brought a party to every encounter she was presented.

Susan believed that the most powerful thing you can do is to spend your precious time talking with God and lifting your loved ones up in prayer. We are reassured in the knowledge that Susan is now with our heavenly Father and will be joining in a party there.

Susan is survived by husband George, daughter JoAnn Spears of Beavercreek, Ohio and daughter Peggy Sturdivant and husband Willis of Leitchfield, Kentucky, granddaughter Vanessa Trapp (Michael), granddaughter Emilie VanderKolk (Miles), and five great-grandchildren Corwin, Skylar, Harley, Nikolai and Knox.

GEORGE L SIDWELL

George Lincoln Sidwell, Jr, was born to Freda (Masterson) and George Sidwell, on September 10, 1924. He died on March 4, 2021, at the age of ninety-six years, six months, and twenty-four days.

In addition to his parents, George was preceded in death by his wife, Edna Rae (Leonard) Sidwell; sisters, Hildreth Sidwell and Loretta Lou Padelford and a son, George Lincoln Sidwell III. He is survived by children, Donna Rae (Fernando) DeGarcia of Richfield, Minnesota, David Sidwell of Dayton, Ohio, and M Kathryn Jimenez of Dublin, Ohio; ten grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren; sister, Norma, and James Dew.

George lived his life by his favorite psalm, the twenty-third. He sincerely followed the Lord as his shepherd and trusted all his needs to God. His pastures were not always green, but he had a way of finding still waters in the midst of adversity and leading others there as well. Whether it was serving in the Marine Corps during World War II, leading small rural churches after the war, navigating the difficult conditions as a missionary for twelve years in post-war Korea, or simply guiding friends, relatives, and parishoners through prayer, he restored many souls in God's name. His faith and spirit of service sustained many through his time serving churches, including Gambier, Amity, Rio Grande Parish, Columbus North Broadway, and Englewood, retiring on September 1, 1989. He founded Northmont Fish, a food bank that has expanded to include other resources for Englewood and the surrounding community. He was the one who, while waiting for his own surgery, prayed for others around him. He was the one to whom his children and grandchildren turned for extra prayers that produced minor miracles.

He knew no fear because he relied on the rod and the staff of his faith to sustain him, even in the most difficult circumstances. He was caregiver, companion, and support for his beloved wife while she suffered the ravages of cancer over thirteen years. Their shared faith sustained them through the valley of her death and helped him face the same challenge again when their son, Linc, died from the same cancer.

George saw his cup as more than half full. He saw it as running over with blessings. To him, each person he met, each opportunity to help was a blessing. Even after retiring from a long career of service, he continued to volunteer in ministry and service to the poor. Goodness and mercy did follow him all the days of his life. There is no doubt that he will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

XII HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the "shores of the setting sun" on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the "lower conference" would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the "upper conference" – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

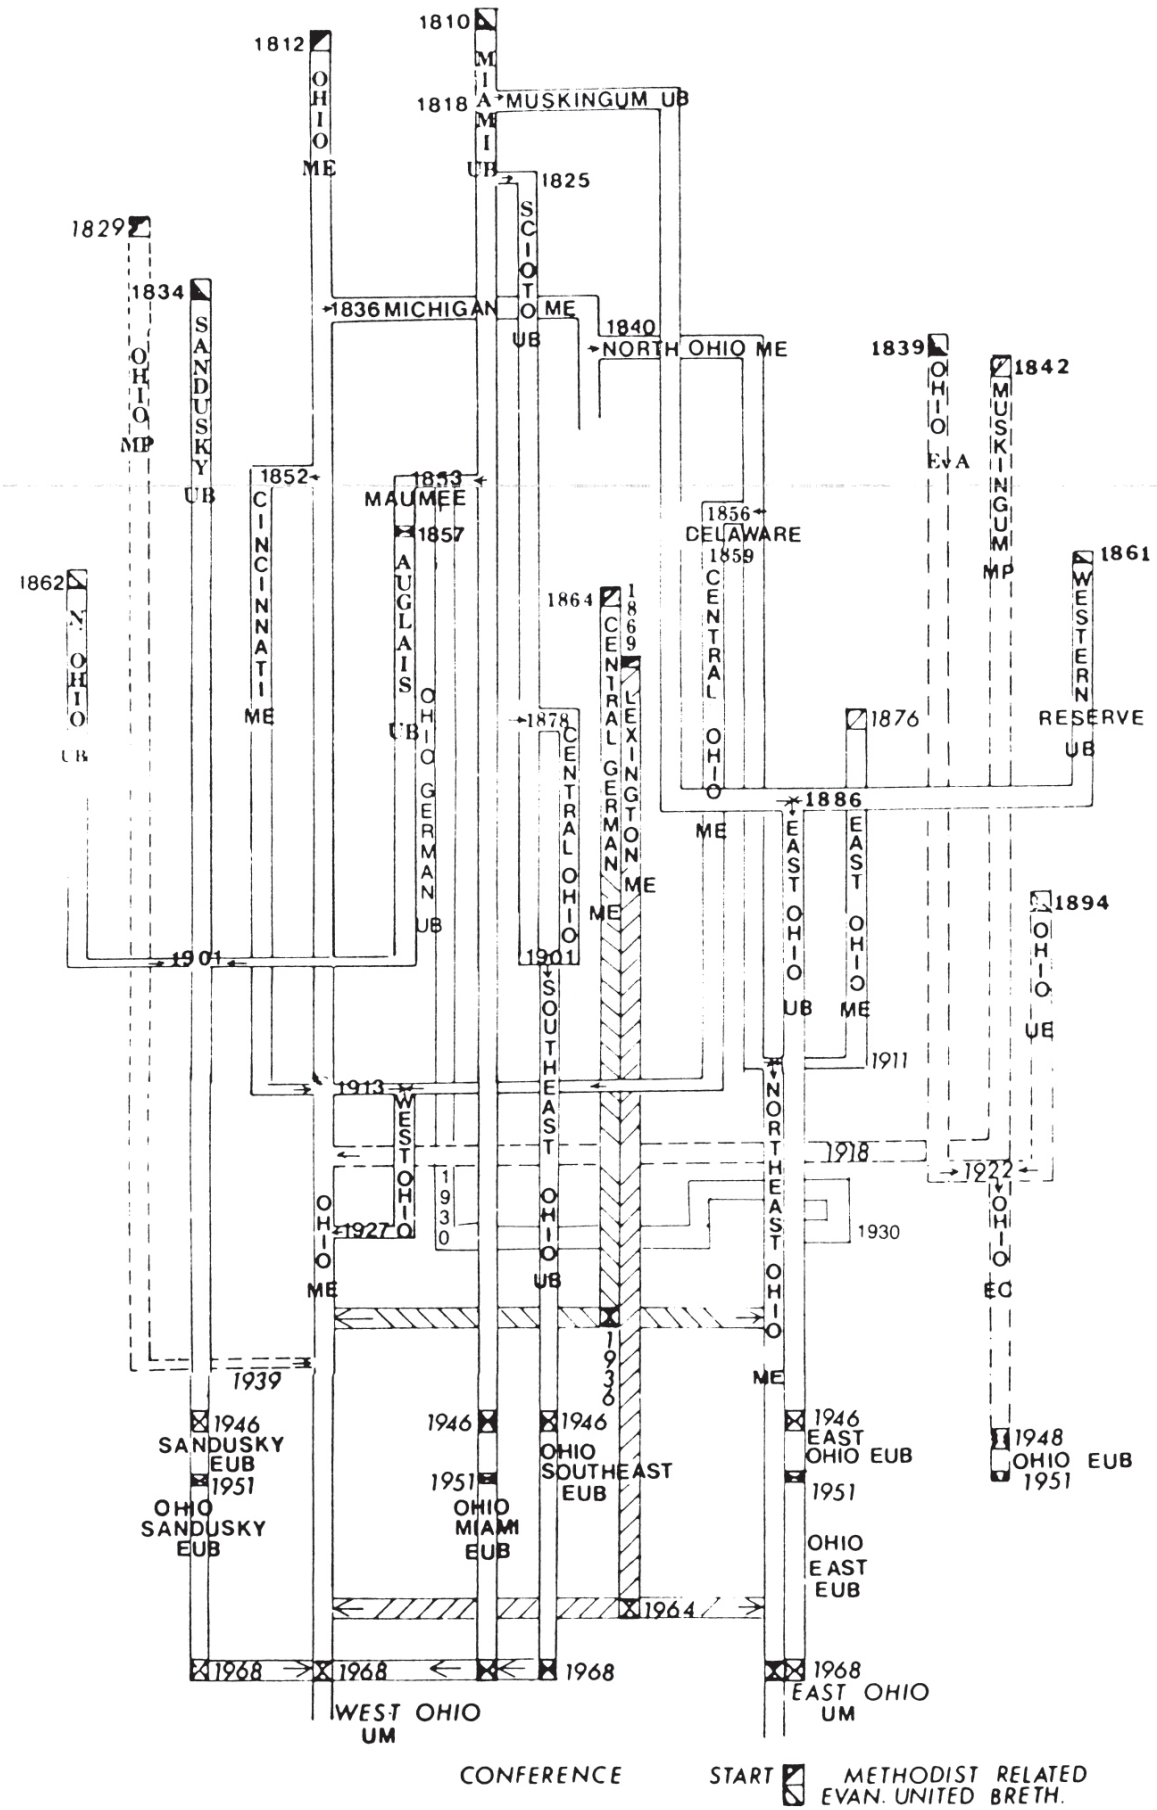

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

This is the 224th year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 210th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

XIII ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 2020

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Thank you, West Ohio Conference, for helping to prepare young leaders to be “an aroma that brings life” to a world that is crying out for justice, compassion, healing and wholeness (2 Corinthians 2:14-16). Your prayers and gifts provide a strong foundation for the students, faculty, staff and alumni of Africa University as they engage in disciple-making by example.

Africa University is immensely grateful to the West Ohio Conference for investing 100 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund in 2020. Thank you for being dedicated and generous partners in ministry with Africa University. By giving so consistently, even in difficult times, West Ohio United Methodist congregations are a source of encouragement, momentum and strength.

COVID-19 and the resulting global health crisis have brought about profound and lasting adjustments in how we live, work, serve and connect. For Africa University, these include:

- A shift to online-only teaching and learning from late March through December 2020. As the only university in Zimbabwe accredited to offer online degrees, Africa University had the infrastructure and expertise to transition smoothly and break new ground with competency-based student assessment tools.
- Gifts totaling more than $300,000 from across the United Methodist connection that were designated for COVID-19 relief efforts. These second-mile gifts enabled Africa University to care for almost 300 international students who were stranded on its campus between March and July 2020 and assist students whose families were experiencing financial hardship.
- Excellent student retention and modest enrollment growth, with a 99 percent uptake of online learning by students. More than 3,000 students enrolled for the 2020-2021 academic year—an increase of 16 percent over the previous year—with 2,395 studying full-time. Fifty-seven percent of full-time students were female, and 24 percent were international.
- Innovation, outreach and service through:
 - o The development and distribution of masks and hand sanitizer that are now certified for commercial production.
 - o The launch, via a web application, of farm to household delivery of fresh produce, meat and poultry products by the Africa University Dream Farm Trust.
 - o Two student-led initiatives—Feed a Family and Ben Hill UMC Women’s Residence Girl Child Support Program—that provided medical care, food and school fees assistance to vulnerable families in the wider community.
- The successful completion of two new buildings—the Highland Park UMC-funded student union facility and a dormitory for female students. A new solar farm powers the Highland Park women’s dormitory.

Africa University’s online campus is here to stay, thanks to infrastructure upgrades and the lessons learned in 2020. Going forward, Africa University is committed to widening its impact by generating sustainable solutions of perennial challenges, launching new programs and partnerships, and offering a blend of in-person and online learning options.

In a fragile and interconnected world and family of faith, the West Ohio Conference’s steadfast engagement enables Africa University to transform the lives of young people and grow vibrant, worshipping communities.

In journeying alongside Africa University in ministry, West Ohio United Methodists are the church in the world—seeding hope and sharing the love of Christ. Thank you, West Ohio Conference, for affirming that when we are all in it together, God’s grace is indeed sufficient. To God be the glory.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since our founding in 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has educated more than 10,000 students, shaping thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ. We continued our work even through this most difficult year, with the coronavirus continuing its march around the world, a reckoning for racial injustice rolling across our nation, and a toxic, divisive political atmosphere challenging our civic life. Perhaps there has been no better year than this to underscore the importance of faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries throughout the world—the type of leaders we form at Candler.

Though our mission remains unchanged, the pandemic has necessitated many changes in how we undertake that mission: We have shifted classes online, redesigned syllabi to support optimal online learning, developed new ways to worship and experience community together in the virtual sphere, and discerned which new habits and modalities have promise for enriching our work even after the pandemic ends. Through these efforts, we and our students have gained deep experience in being flexible, adaptable, and creative as we respond to the demands of ever-changing contexts—experience that not only serves us well now, but will continue to serve us and our ministries far into the future.

Candler is one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, we enthusiastically welcome students from 44 denominations, with 46% of MDiv students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 483 from 12 countries and 37 states, 44 percent persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. This diversity is a rich blessing, and this year we created a new staff position of assistant director of student life for diversity, equity and inclusion to foster understanding and ensure we are responsive to the needs of our diverse student body.

We offer six single degrees (MDiv, MTS, MRL MRPL, ThM, DMin) and ten dual degrees. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while completing their degrees. Our new Chaplaincy concentration is now among our most popular, and our Teaching Parish program enables students to serve as student pastors in local churches throughout the southeast, learning firsthand about shepherding a congregation; this year, there were 36 participants.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid remains among our top priorities. In 2019-2020, we awarded nearly $6.6 million in financial aid, with 100% of MDiv and 98% of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, and master of religious leadership students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition for the length of their program.

The demands of the pandemic did not diminish Candler's robust schedule of events. Candler's Black Church Studies program celebrated its 30th anniversary with a yearlong slate of online lectures and panel discussions, now available at vimeo.com/candler. We also launched The Candler Foundry to make theological education accessible to all, through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and Facebook Live panel discussions connecting theology with current issues in the world. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen Associate Professor of Reconciliation and Theology, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Director of the Center for Reconciliation will become Dean of Duke Divinity School (DDS) July 1, 2021. Dean Gregory L. Jones will leave DDS to become president of Belmont University.

Duke Divinity School (DDS) continues to discern fresh strategies to respond faithfully and wisely to the changing church and the world. The disruptions, challenges, and injustices of 2020 occupied enormous attention as the school adapted to different modes of teaching/learning and interacting while also managing financial challenges both to DDS and Duke University.

DDS announced a new hybrid version of its Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program that will give students the opportunity to earn the M.Div. degree without relocating to Durham, N.C. The hybrid learning curriculum combines remote coursework with week-long residential intensives, where students connect in-person. The first cohort will begin coursework in fall 2021.

DDS welcomed the largest incoming class in school history with 257 new students from 35 different states and seven countries, including China, Italy, Japan, Kenya, Nigeria, South Korea and the United States. Our Master of Arts in Christian Practice (28 students) and Doctor of Ministry (52 students) programs received record enrollments. The Master of Theology (13 students), Master of Theological Studies (34 students), and Doctor of Theology (6 students) had strong enrollment. Our new Certificate in Theology and Health Care will enroll 6 students, all of whom are TMC Fellows. Across all degree programs, 31 percent of the incoming class identified as a race/ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 21 percent of all students, Asian students, 5 percent; and American Indian students, 2 percent. 45 percent of students in the incoming class were female, and 55 percent were male. The Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree program gained 113 new students. Students from minority groups comprised more than 25 percent of incoming M.Div. students, with black students making up 19 percent. Female students made up 46 percent of incoming M.Div. students, while males were 54 percent. There were 30 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 30 percent affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Nondenominational students made up 16 percent of the new M.Div. students; Baptists, 16 percent; and Anglican-Episcopalian, 9 percent.

2020 also witnessed an expansion of DDS's partnerships, including the Kern Family Foundation partnership with the Office of Wesleyan Engagement to provide accelerated pathways for undergraduate students to pursue the Master of Divinity degree at Duke. DDS welcomed its first cohort of students at Martin Methodist College, taking classes at Duke. The Americas Initiative, a fellowship of organizations, scholars and practitioners convened by the Center for Reconciliation, is working on peacebuilding among Latin American and Latinx communities, particularly those of Indigenous and African descent. The five-year Black Pastoral Leadership Collaboration, begun in the fall of 2019 and jointly funded by DDS and the Provost's Office, is working to harness the research and experiential wisdom of Black pastoral leaders nationally through a leadership school and practical theology archiving project.

DDS sought to reckon in deeper and broader ways with systemic racism and injustice, particularly in light of the overlapping pandemics of COVID-19, economic crisis, and mental health challenges, and the school sought opportunities to strengthen its partnership and racial justice work across Duke University. A Story Listening and Gathering project solicited past or present students, faculty, and staff to share stories of how race and racial discrimination affects daily life at DDS with a goal of understanding the experiences of the community and to inform the school's broader anti-racism efforts. A new Race and the Professions Fellowship, in partnership with the Kenan Institute for Ethics, and the Churches Promoting Recovery Project, in partnership with the Theology, Medicine, and Culture Initiative, provided new opportunities for students to deepen their vocational formation and reimagine community transformation beyond campus.

DDS hired eight new faculty members in 2020. Peter Casarella is a Professor of Theology and has published widely on medieval Christian Neoplatonism, contemporary theological aesthetics, intercultural thought, and the Hispanic/Latino presence in the U.S. Catholic Church.

Sarah Barton is an Assistant Professor of Occupational Therapy and Theological Ethics whose scholarly work is focused in theological ethics, with special attention to theological anthropology, disability, liturgy, and pastoral care. She has a joint faculty appointment as assistant professor of occupational therapy at Duke University Medical Center.

Quinton Dixie, Associate Research Professor of Church History and Black Church Studies, specializes in American religious history and has written on a wide range of topics, from the African American Civil Rights Movement to the history of Black Baptists in the U.S.

Zebulon Highben is Associate Professor of the Practice of Church Music at Duke Divinity School and Director of Chapel Music at Duke University Chapel, and his research interests include hymnody, liturgy, music and exegesis, the musical heritage of the Reformation.

Alma Tinoco Ruiz is a Lecturer in Homiletics and Evangelism and Director of the Hispanic House of Studies. She is a practical theologian whose work centers on the intersection of homiletics, pastoral care, and evangelism and she is a provisional elder in the United Methodist Church.

Janet Martin Soskice is the William K. Warren Distinguished Research Professor of Catholic Theology and for the past 30 years was on The Faculty of Divinity at the University of Cambridge. Her work lies at the intersection of Christian theology and philosophy.

Norbert Wilson is Professor of Food, Economics, and Community, and his research explores food issues such as access, choice, and food waste. He is an ordained vocational deacon in the Episcopal Church USA.

Wylin D. Wilson is an Assistant Professor of Theological Ethics, and prior to joining the Duke faculty, she was on faculty at the Harvard Medical School Center for Bioethics and was a senior fellow at the Center for the Study of World Religions at Harvard Divinity School. Her research focuses on religion, gender, and bioethics, including rural bioethics and Black Church studies.

Respectfully submitted,

L. Gregory Jones
Dean of Duke Divinity School

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

"I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?" — Isaiah 43:19

It appears God is doing some new things at United Theological Seminary, even in the midst of health, racial, and political crises.

God is doing a new thing at United financially. United continues to make progress toward its goal of becoming debt-free by the Seminary's 150th anniversary on October 11, 2021. Thanks to the faithfulness and generosity of alumni/ae and donors, less than $1 million remains of the original $4 million mortgage debt. After the mortgage is paid in full, the Seminary plans to convert those mortgage payments into money for student scholarships.

God is doing a new thing in enrollment. Over the last five years, United's Doctor of Ministry program has grown by 48%, from 170 students in the 2016-17 academic year to 251 in 2020-21. In Fall 2021, Dr. Elvin Sadler, General Secretary of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, will become the Associate Dean for Doctoral Studies, upon the retirement of Dr. Harold Hudson who has been a vital leader at the Seminary for 17 years.

God is doing a new thing with partners in church renewal. In the 2020-21 academic year, United has partnered with Fresh Expressions US and the Mosaix Global Network to introduce two new Houses of Study. These houses oversee specialized tracks in the Doctor of Ministry and Master of Divinity programs. Rev. Dr. Michael Beck is director of the Fresh Expressions House of Studies, and Dr. Harry Li is director of the Mosaix House of Studies.

In collaboration with the Northwest Texas Conference of The United Methodist Church, United also introduced Rooted/Enraizados, a certificate program for coaches and mentors of Hispanic/Latino church planters. In 2020-21, the program served students from more than five annual conferences.

God is doing a new thing with the establishment of The Bishop Bruce Ough Innovation Center. Beginning in 2021, the Innovation Center honors the ministry of Bishop Bruce Ough by providing a hub of learning for church leaders seeking the framework, support, and courage to introduce the Gospel of Jesus Christ in new and creative ways. Rev. Sue Nilson Kibbey joins United as the inaugural director of the Innovation Center.

United's prayer is that United Methodists will perceive the new things that God is doing in our communities, congregations, and ministries as we strive to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Grace and peace,

Dr. Kent Millard
President

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

For the world, 2020 was a year like no other. In the midst of a global pandemic, plus resurgent racism, mass unemployment, and politically challenging times in the US, Wesley remained committed to fostering wisdom and courage, preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries while remaining grounded in our biblical and theological traditions for the sake of God's inbreaking kingdom. The mode of educational delivery changed overnight, as we became an all-online seminary on March 15, 2020 and have remained so to keep students, faculty, staff and all members of the Wesley community safe from COVID-19 exposure on campus. This is simply Wesley modelling what we teach our students: to be committed to our God-given mission while being innovative and responsive in the delivery of ministry. Here are some of the ways we are accomplishing that with our many partners in this mission, as we seek to faithfully minister to the world in the future.

Research projects support congregational community engagement and envision future ministry

Wesley is pleased to announce new opportunities for UMC congregations to explore, clarify, and pursue thriving in their communities. Through The Source Collaborative, Wesley will work with three cohorts of regional congregations in a two-year process of prayer, community engagement, congregational visioning, and coaching, with the goal of following Jesus in mission and ministry. Interested congregations can contact innovation@wesleyseminary.edu for more information. This work, funded by a $1 million Lilly Endowment, Inc, grant, raises Wesley's role as a leading research and development seminary for the whole church and complements Wesley's other Lilly Endowment-funded projects focused on congregational vitality.

The Religious Workforce Project is an expansive study of the current and future nature of religious work, particularly in local congregations, so as to understand what opportunities and constraints may exist in the future and to adapt resources and training accordingly. Through the Wesley Innovation Hub, the seminary has worked with 18 congregations in the greater Washington area to experiment with ministries with young adults outside the church. Together, these projects forge insight into future ministry and local church development, influencing the way students are trained in master's, doctoral, and course of study education, but also informing workshops, podcasts, articles, and training for church leaders working in their communities across the country.

We invite you to discover the latest research and conversations generated by the Wesley community through our new web portal, #EngageInTheseTimes, at www.wesleyseminary.edu/#engage.

Using research and partnerships to reach and equip the next generation of ministers

Research shows that the primary way people learn about and begin to consider seminary options is through their pastor or an alumnus. Whether you feel called or you know someone who does, Wesley is ready to work with you as we make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today—for laity and clergy, for those seeking a degree or certification or continuing education, and for ministry from within or beyond the church.

Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused around specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, children and youth ministry and advocacy, or African American church leadership.

For full-time students, we offer a modern and affordable residential community in the nation's capital. Our Community Engagement Fellows program prepares students to engage in entrepreneurial, community-based ministry. Generous stipends are available for each Fellow while they complete their MDiv degree. Our 3+3 Fast Track BA/MDiv program with Shenandoah University allows students to complete both degrees in six years, entering ministry more quickly and with less debt.

For people with work, ministry, and family commitments, Wesley's Master of Divinity degree can now be completed via online, weekend, short-term intensive, and weeknight courses in 5 years. Check out upcoming flexible course offerings for Summer and Fall 2021 at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley works with each student to make seminary affordable. Thanks to the consistent support of graduates, congregations, and friends, Wesley provides more than $2 million annually in scholarships. In addition to our regular merit awards, ranging from 25% to 100% tuition with stipends, Wesley has released special additional scholarships: full-tuition scholarships for people recommended by Wesley alumni, campus ministers, or Christian camping or service ministries who feel called to leadership in the church as it is becoming; Next Call in Ministry scholarships for students who have worked in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years; and Generación Latinx Scholarships for emerging Latinx/Hispanic leaders for ministries both within and beyond the church.

Take your ministry to the next level

In addition to full master's degrees, Wesley offers graduate certificates for those preparing for specialized ministry! The new Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is designed for people who work with and advocate for children and young people, whether in churches, schools, or non-profit organizations. The non-residential certificate can be completed in 12 to 15 months through online coursework and up to two residential sessions. Wesley is a leader in Doctor of Ministry programs in specialized tracks that can include international study. Wesley is pleased to announce three new Doctor of Ministry tracks for 2022: Ministry in a Digital Age, a timely new track exploring the new opportunities and challenges of online ministry; Justice, Compassion, and Witness in a Turbulent World, hosted in Cambridge, England; and a program focused on Latinx ministry. As well, new 2022 cohorts for our popular DMin areas of focus will be offered for Military Chaplains and CPE chaplains, our international mission-focused Global Church Leadership program, and Wesley's premiere DMin program in innovative church administration "Church Leadership Excellence." Find out more or apply at www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

Enrich your congregational outreach and explore new dimensions of ministry

The Lewis Center for Church Leadership continues to be on the leading edge of research for the local church. The Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter is the go-to source for over 20,000 people in ministry each week. The Community Engagement Institute embraces a vibrant vision to be the premier center for churches and faith-based organization engaging their communities. The innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program prepares congregations for public health work in their parishes. Contact Dr. Tom Pruski at tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu for more information or to register for future certificate classes.

The Center for Public Theology equips pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. For more information, visit <http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/>.

The Henry Luce III Center for the Arts and Religion works with students, religious communities, artists, and scholars exploring the intersection of the arts and theology. By engaging in innovative research, staging challenging exhibitions in our Dadian Gallery, and hosting visiting artists in our on-campus studio, the Luce Center seeks to promote dialogue and foster inspired creativity.
