IV DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Laity Session
June 4, 2017 5:30 p.m.

Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer opened the Laity Session of the 2017 West Ohio Annual Conference by introducing Ms. Mary Shumard and Mr. Mitchell Harper, Conference Co-Lay Leaders. Bishop Palmer then introduced Gaston and Jeanne Ntambo. Gaston serves as the pilot for the Wings of the Morning Ministry, which is an aviation ministry in the North Katanga Conference in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. Bishop Palmer prayed for Gaston and Jeanne Ntambo and the Wings of the Morning Ministry.

Ms. Shumard prayed for the Laity Session. Ms. Shumard then presented the nomination of Ms. Tracey Chambers for the position of Director of Lay Speaking Ministries and described the responsibilities of the Director. Ms. Chambers was introduced and elected as the Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. Bishop Palmer prayed for Ms. Chambers and the work that she has been called to do and for the whole of lay ministry.

The Co-Lay Leaders engaged in a conversation with Bishop Palmer on their views.

- He asked them, "What comes to mind when you hear 'Remember your baptism?'" They responded that it is a reminder of the power they have from God.

Other questions that were asked:

- "What does it mean to be a 'full time' Christian?" It means to be focused on ministry. Sometimes people forget that there is a difference between a "follower" and a "disciple", and we must do what is pleasing to God.
- "What does a lay/ clergy relationship look like, especially at its best?" Don't assume anything – keep the lines of communication open, and encourage each other. Clergy have to recognize that the laity are also "called", and understanding by both is essential. (Bishop Palmer commented that what ought to be deleted from our language is the term, "I'm just a lay person.") One must understand that one goes into the ministry according to a "call" and not according to what you like to do.
- "What are the resources we have?" Our resource is that Jesus is with us. It is important to work toward building relationships of trust.
- "What are you most hopeful about?" People coming back to the realization of the Holy Spirit. Hope is the knowing that whatever comes our way, Jesus is there and we can trust him.

The conversation ended with the Laity Session expressing appreciation for Ms. Shumard and Mr. Harper and Bishop Palmer blessing them in a prayer. Ms. Shumard offered a word of affirmation to the laity and challenged the laity to reaffirm their call or decide a new one. She closed the session with a reminder to attend the Opening Worship Memorial Celebration.

Opening Worship Memorial Celebration with Communion

June 4, 2017 7:30 p.m.

Church of the Messiah Jubilation Bell Ringers offered their gift of music as clergy, laity, spouses and guests gathered for the opening worship service of Annual Conference. Rev. Mark Chow, chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, welcomed everyone to worship then introduced our Conference Worship Leader Mr. Chuck Bell and the Conference House Band.

Our theme for the week, Be Not Afraid- God is With Us, words taken from Isaiah 43, was proclaimed through a variety of voices via video. Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer then officially opened the 48th Session of the West Ohio Conference at 7:40 p.m. Rev. Meredith McDougale led the call to worship, processional songs included All Who Are Thirsty and How Great Thou Art, followed by a collective profession of faith.

Rev. Amy Aspey, Annual Conference Secretary, read the Roll Call of the Victorious, while a bell tolled and candles were lit in memory of clergy (listed on page 211 in the BAC), spouses, children of clergy, and the laity of our districts who have all died since the prior annual conference session. A prayer of commendation followed with the sung response For all the Saints.

Rev. Matt Yoder read the Scripture lesson from Isaiah 43:1-2, followed by the hymn Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah. Bishop Palmer preached the sermon "Treading on the Verge of Jordan" that focused on the reality of death yet encouraged us to cling to the promises of God, including fresh mercy every day for our "rascality." He reminded us that our theme for this week and this quadrennium is also a theme for the entire Word of God—Be not afraid. God is with us. Quoting verse three of the previous hymn, he invited us to live all the time ready to live and ready to die, trusting in God's promises and resurrection power.

Church of the Messiah UMC Youth Choir offered their gift of music to God in song. Bishop Palmer, Rev. McDougale and Rev. Yoder presided over the table of Holy Communion, which was then shared throughout the auditorium. Worship concluded with the song In Christ Alone and the benediction by Bishop Palmer.

Clergy Session
June 5, 2017 8:00 a.m.

Rev. Wade Giffin, standing in for Rev. Kathleen Brown, the Director of the Office of Ministry, greeted the body by reminding them who could be present at this closed session. Bishop Palmer then called the Clergy Session of the 2017 West Ohio Annual Conference to order at 8:05 a.m., inviting the body to uphold the new quadrennial leadership team in prayer.

Rev. Steve Rath invited the clergy to join in a medley of hymns including Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing, Great is Thy Faithfulness, Blessed Assurance, and My Hope is Built and Rev. April Casperson read from Isaiah 43:1-2.

Rev. April Casperson, Chair of the West Ohio Board of Ordained Ministry, offered some opening remarks. She once again reminded the body that this was a closed session and no postings were allowed on social media. She then shared a written statement from Rev. Kathleen Brown, Director of the Office of Ministry, who was unable to attend Annual Conference due to health concerns and had invited Rev. Wade Giffin to fill in to cover her duties. Bishop Palmer then lifted up prayer concerns and led the body in prayer.

Rev. Giffin made a motion to include all essential non-voting personnel to remain present for their work and ministry involved with the session. The motion passed by verbal vote.

Bishop Palmer invited Rev. April Casperson to lead the body through the Business of the Annual Conference (BAC), found on pages 192-222. Beginning with those recommended by the Board of Ministry for provisional membership, Bishop asked if there were any questions. There were none. Rev. Casperson then read the names of all recommended for provisional membership until all candidates were on the stage. She moved their election. (BAC #28, page 205) They were elected by verbal vote. Bishop Palmer then offered a prayer for the newly elected provisional class.

Next Bishop Palmer asked if there were any questions for those provisional members recommended by the Board of Ministry for ordination and full connection. There were none. Rev. Casperson then read the names of all recommended for ordination as a deacon until all were on the stage. She moved their election. (BAC #32, #33, page 207) They were elected by verbal vote. Rev. Casperson then read the names of all recommended for ordination as an elder until all were on stage. She moved their election. (BAC #32, #34, page 207) They were elected by verbal vote. Bishop Palmer then offered a prayer for the newly elected full member class.

Rev. Casperson next moved to receive four full member elders by transfer into West Ohio. They were received by verbal vote. (BAC #38, page 208)

Rev. Jon Ferguson, chair of the Order of Elders, read the names of all clergy retiring this year until all present were on stage. He stated that this class represented 841 years of combined service. Rev. Ferguson moved that their request for retired status be granted. (BAC #53-56, page 214-215) The motion was affirmed by verbal vote and a standing ovation. Bishop Palmer then offered a prayer for the retiring class.

Rev. Amy Aspey, Annual Conference Secretary, read the Roll Call of the Victorious for all clergy who had died since the last clergy session. (BAC #48, page 211) As each name was read, a bell tolled. Bishop Palmer then offered a prayer for their faithful service.

Continuing with the business of the annual conference, Rev. Casperson shared for information only candidates listed in the BAC #19 and #20 (page 196-198). She moved the approval of licensing for all full-time and part-time local pastors listed in BAC #21 (page 199). They were approved by hand vote.

BAC #22 (page 203) was shared for information only, those discontinued as local pastors. Then Rev. Casperson moved the reinstatement of a local pastor in BAC #23 (page 204) and it was approved by hand vote.

Laity Address

Conference Lay Leader Ms. Mary Shumard, Certified Lay Minister, began the Laity Address by reminding all present that clergy and lay working together with the sole purpose of building up God’s Kingdom is the most powerful evangelistic tool we have to fulfill our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Quoting from the Book of Discipline paragraphs 127 and 134, she reminded all that God has called both lay and clergy and our faith tradition recognizes both as key ingredients to the success of its mission. We are all called into ministry through our baptism, united with all members of the body of Christ, and empowered with spiritual gifts to serve God in a variety of ways.

Through her experiences in the local congregation, the district, and the conference over the past 37 years, she has seen in action the partnerships that exist between clergy and laity. She also has noticed four foundational needs that exist within most local congregations to make the partnership of lay and clergy more productive and beneficial. These needs include:

- 1-promoting God’s individual call in such a way to recognize and validate the call of the laity
 - 2-encouraging laity to discover and use their spiritual gifts within the local church
 - 3-empowering laity who want and need to be directed, instructed and guided into Christ-centered leadership skills through conference and district trainings
 - 4-clergy and laity both leading by example in daily routines
- Together, healthy partnerships bring to fruition to the church’s mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ.

Teaching Session

June 6, 2017 1:30 p.m.

Dr. Elaine Heath, Dean of Duke Divinity School and an elder in the United Methodist Church, offered our teaching sessions at this year's annual conference based on her book "God Unbound: Wisdom from Galatians for the Anxious Church." Her first session was titled, "A Third Great Awakening: What is God Doing?"

She began by sharing a vision she had 32 years ago while in a Pentecostal church in Canada that she would one day stand on a stage in front of many ministers and lay leaders and proclaim to them, "The church is not a business. The church is the body of Christ. It's time to come back to our first love." That vision was fulfilled in our presence on this day.

Echoing Isaiah 43:19, Dr. Heath declared that God is doing a new thing, and that new thing she believes is the third great awakening, a new holiness movement. For over a decade now she has been focusing on new expressions of church that are emerging around the world. Many of these are intentional, organic communities of faith and some follow a Wesleyan rule of life steeped in prayer, hospitality and justice.

As a student of reform movements throughout history, she shared how the ancient Celts spread the gospel in an organic, intentional, invitational, non-violent way of planting new monastic communities. She reminded us that as an apostolic people we are to be gathered, blessed, broken and sent out to proclaim the Gospel.

Then using a diagram adapted from Deborah Frieze in "Walk Out Walk On" Dr. Heath discussed the challenge of change to a system such as the institutional church. She discussed the high anxiety of these times of change, and the need for those in leadership to have the capacity to see where we come from and love the people there as well as see the new thing God is doing and bless the pioneers.

Dr. Heath then spoke about the current need for 1) biodiversity, where multiple new expressions and forms of church exist alongside the established church, 2) liturgy as the work of the people, where the future relies on well-equipped laity, and 3) signs and wonders, where we as the church could be the leaders in deep reconciliation following Jesus' call to love one another. Dr. Heath concluded by inviting all present to consider what the Spirit is saying to the church today: "How can we help our faith communities remain gathered around the triune God during culture shift? How can we keep in step with the Spirit?"

Tuesday Afternoon Session June 6, 2017 2:30 p.m.

The afternoon business session began with a greeting and words of encouragement for the work of the church across the state of Ohio from East Ohio Conference Bishop Tracy Smith Malone.

Order of the Day: Board of Ordained Ministry Report

Rev. April Casperson, the chair of the West Ohio Conference Board of Ministry, shared the 2017 Board of Ministry report. She stated that in 2016 key members of the executive team attended a national training hosted by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Over the next four years, the Board will focus on its primary work together: the task of credentialing those called to ministry.

The Board will engage in the process of leadership recruitment, cultivation and formation in three ways:

1. Continue to engage in consistent training for new and returning board members
2. Be proactive about supporting clergy health and self-care
3. Continue to implement cross-cultural leadership skills and intercultural competency

The Board affirms that a call to ministry requires three things: gifts and graces, a call from God, and confirmation from the community. In the midst of diversity, the Board of Ministry is united in its work to credential those called to ministry with the United Methodist Church and the West Ohio Conference. Even more importantly, the Board is unified by the work and grace of Jesus Christ.

Rev. Casperson thanked the leaders of the Office of Ministry, Rev. Kathy Brown and Rev. Donnetta Peaks. She recognized Rev. Brian Law, vice chair, and Rev. Rachel Miller, secretary, then recognized all Board of Ministry members.

June 6, 2017 4:30 p.m.

As Mr. Andrew Willis played the processional hymn, God of Grace and God of Glory, retirees and spouses, clergy being commissioned and ordained and their families, ordinand sponsors and banners all processed into Hoover Auditorium. Bishop Palmer led the opening prayer and a recognition of common ministry rooted in our baptism. Thirty-five retirees were recognized with a combined 884 years of service. (listed on page 214 in the BAC) The Doxology was sung, 2 Timothy 1:6-14 was read, and the Annual Conference House Band sang Grace Greater Than Our Sin. Bishop Palmer introduced our preacher for the service, East Ohio Bishop Tracy Smith Malone. Bishop Malone preached on “The Courage of Conviction.” She encouraged those being commissioned and ordained to rekindle the gift of God within them, be bold in their witness, and keep at work.

Following the offering, candidates for commissioning and ordination were presented and examined by Bishop Palmer. Five deacons and twenty-two elders were commissioned (listed on page 205 in the BAC). Five deacons and fourteen elders were ordained. (listed on page 207 in the BAC) Steve McGuire was brought into full membership. Bishop Malone and the Rev. Bishop Suzanne Darcy Dillahunt, Bishop of the Southern Ohio Synod of the ELCA, assisted in the ordination service. Four retirees bestowed the symbols of ministry on four newly ordained clergy, then everyone joined in the singing of the closing hymn Joy to the World. Following the postlude the congregation was sent forth for an evening of continued celebration with the new retirees and clergy and the intergenerational event “Rock the Dock.”

Worship Service with Missionary Commissioning

June 7, 2017 8:30 a.m.

Wednesday morning’s worship service reminded West Ohio of its ministry connections around the world. After Mr. Chuck Bell thanked the House Band by name and prayed a blessing upon their ministry, Rev. John Ma led the call to worship, Anointing Fall on Me, was sung, then missionaries Mr. Gaston Ntambo and Ms. Mariellyn Grace led a litany for the mission of the church. Bishop Palmer had the privilege of commissioning Ms. Elizabeth Heft as a General Board of Global Ministries United Methodist Missionary, assisted by Mr. George Howard, Executive Director, General Board of Global Ministries and Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner. Ms. Heft will be assigned to Palestine. The final hymn was Lord You Give the Great Commission, sung to a different tune than in the hymnal, then Ms. Heft lifted up the prayers of the people followed by Rev. Ma offering the closing prayer.

Teaching Session 9:00 a.m.

Dr. Elaine Heath, Dean of Duke Divinity School, returned to continue her teaching sessions on her book “God Unbound: Wisdom from Galatians for the Anxious Church.” This second session was titled, “Prophets, Reformers, Movements and the Church.”

Reminding us once again that Isaiah 43:19 calls us to perceive the new thing God is doing, she recalled that every time in history the church began to accommodate the world too much, God would bring forth prophets, reformers, mystics, and others who would bug us. She then shared several examples of such people from our church history and their impact on the church as they often focused on intentional communities reaching out with the timeless Gospel in new ways. She told the stories of Benedict of Nursia, the Beguines and Beghards, Martin Luther, John Wesley, Dorothy Day, Clarence Jordan and Koinonia Farm, and Gordon and Mary Cosby at the Church of the Savior in DC. Each one of these examples is an example of intentional discipleship lived out in different ways, perceived in their time as God doing a new thing.

Dr. Heath went on to describe the New Monastic Movement that has grown in the past 15 years. The New Monastic Movement invites us to take seriously our discipleship for our own salvation and for honesty in how we are living. She and her husband have been a part of an intentional community for several years with neighbors and friends.

Next Dr. Heath asked the question, "How can we help the established, inherited church make the shift, participating in the new thing that God is doing instead of trying to kill it?" She encouraged established churches to become an anchor church, joining God in what God is doing in new ways all around us, and sharing the example of Tube Station in Cornwall.

In the midst of our current anxiety, she challenged us to be open to the ways the God in us can connect to the God out there. And if we find ourselves as the leaders in the midst of such anxiety, to stay grounded in Jesus through prayer, serious spiritual disciplines and even therapy. Remembering Genesis 1, the "tohu va vohu," the "chaos and confusion" which were God's building blocks for creation, may help us remember when we find ourselves in the tension between old and new wineskins for the Gospel that God is with us and "God is not bound by our anxiety or lack of imagination."

Asking the question, "How can we cooperate with our persistent God?" Dr. Heath stated that we need to return to cultivating a contemplative stance which includes showing up, paying attention, cooperating with God, and releasing the outcome of our obedience. In her final thoughts to help us do so, she reminded us 1) organic is best, 2) take all the time you need, and 3) this movement is not to make a profit or shore up programs inside the church. The church will look different in the future than it looks today. She closed her teaching session by praying for our leaders and our churches.

Wednesday Morning Session June 7, 2017 10:20 a.m.

The morning session began with reports celebrating the many ways West Ohio is in mission throughout the world.

Mission Partnerships Report

Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner, Director of Connectional Ministries, reminded us of the gift of being in connection with Christians around the world and the gift of our West Ohio intentional commitments with partners around the world. She referred to the printed Missional Report handed out to conference members earlier in the week.

Rev. Stickley-Miner celebrated the growth and vision of the church in Laos, where the United Methodist Church is technically illegal. She shared that the leaders of the Oriental Conference in Mexico have been praying daily for West Ohio. Bishop Palmer, Rev. Stickley-Miner, and several Cabinet members will be traveling to their Annual Conference next week. She celebrated the motorcycle ministry of the Foothills and Shawnee Valley Districts with our partners in Vietnam.

Rev. Stickley-Miner concluded with an invitation to be a deeper partner as we learn from our brothers and sisters around the world.

Wings of the Morning

Missionaries Gaston and Jeanne Ntambo were welcomed back to West Ohio. They will be itinerating through the conference over the next few months.

Gaston brought greetings from his father and the new Bishop of North Katanga, Bishop Mante Muyombo. The last time he was at Lakeside we were having a fundraising celebration after having raised $2 million to purchase a new plane for this aviation ministry. He shared a story about how a goat was able to bring a man to the Lord. Gaston reminded us if God can use a goat, and God can use him, and if God can use us, anything is possible.

"When I received the new airplane I left in a hurry and I forgot to say one thing. I believe that Anything that this conference can put it mind to it can accomplish. I have seen it. And it has nothing to do with the money but it has everything to do with how united, determined and prayerful you can all be."

Gaston then shared a few stories and pictures of how the new plane is saving lives. He flew 170 children back and forth in 2016 for treatment. He ended with saying "Thank you for being in partnership with my people and Thank you for making a difference every day in our lives."

General Advance Giving Report

George Howard, Executive Director of Global Coaching & Strategies Initiatives with the General Board of Global Ministries and laity from West Ohio, brought greetings from GBGM General Secretary Thomas Kemper, and the 350 missionaries serving around the world, then thanked West Ohio for the gift of Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner to the global church.

Mr. Howard shared a video of the relocation of the Global Ministries headquarters to Atlanta as well as the formation of global offices throughout the world. 350 missionaries "from everywhere to everywhere" share the gospel in many ways. Global Ministries are also committed to global health and continues its work through UMCOR. He encouraged conference members to find more information at umcmmission.org.

Mr. Howard then reminded us of missionaries sent throughout the world from West Ohio. The Vincents planting churches in Zambia. Elizabeth Heft, commissioned that morning, teaching in Palestine. Others we claim include the Ntambos in the Congo and the Tos in Vietnam. Next week the first student from the orphanage in Kamina we built and have supported since 2006 will graduate from Africa University with a scholarship from West Ohio. Mr. Howard brought their thanks and prayers.

West Ohio is the leading mission giving conference in the denomination. On behalf of Global Ministries Mr. Howard presented two awards to Bishop Palmer and the West Ohio Conference:

1-Highest Total giving to UMCOR in 2016

2-Highest Total giving to the Advance in 2016 with a grand total of $1,889,495

Mr. Howard thanked West Ohio for our connectedness to the Gospel and to the world through our support of mission. Bishop Palmer then thanked Mr. Howard for his words and thanked West Ohio for their faithful giving.

Bishop then introduced Mr. Mitchell Harper, one of our conference lay leaders.

Africa University Fund

Claudine Leary, a graduate of Africa University and member of West Ohio Conference, presented West Ohio with a banner for giving 100% to the Africa University Fund and thanked West Ohio for our faithful giving, sacrifice and prayer that is making a big difference in Africa and around the world. On June 10, 2017, 674 men and women will graduate from Africa University. Rev. Leary invited us to consider giving $25 to celebrate Africa University's 25-year anniversary.

VII REPORTS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Transcribed from the video recording of the Episcopal address at the 2017 West Ohio Annual Conference on Monday, June 5, 2017.

Tonight I want to talk with you a little bit about some directions I see, and also address some of our anxieties and fears in the life of the church with an eye toward turning into the pain in order that we might find the hope in the church and in the world.

Earlier today in the report on the Light the Way campaign it was noted that we have a newly refurbished mission statement and vision statement for the West Ohio Annual Conference, and it plays upon what's already in the Book of Discipline which is the mission of every annual conference which is to equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

In seeking to articulate what might that look like in West Ohio in particular we have added to it, not in contradiction, but expanding it just so that we can live more fully into that aspiration, that hope, that vision, that mission and that dream. The statement says we believe that that transformed world looks like a world of justice, of love and peace that is filled with people who are growing in the likeness of Jesus Christ.

And so as you can hear and see and will see more and more through all of the mediums of the annual conference, we are looking more and more to live into this mission and this vision and to use it as a plumb line and as a test for everything that we're engaged in, every activity, every dream, every vision, every project and every program, and to say if we engage this, if we ask for money for this, is it going to help us more nearly fulfill the mission that has been given to every United Methodist annual conference which is to equip local churches for this primary mission, and does that transformed world look like there is more justice, more love, more peace and are more people responding to the love of Jesus Christ as proclaimed in word and deed through the church, and are they choosing to live more and more of their lives in the likeness of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Now against our high aspirations there are always things that are troubling, even bedeviling. There are movements as we're trying to move out missionally into that challenge us as individuals and as an institution called an annual conference in the United Methodist Church. And who among us in these more recent years has not spent lots of time even wallowing, for as some of us may be and hearing and responding to the palpable anxiety of the church, the cries of fear, of hopelessness, of falling faint even in doing good, of discouragement, of disillusionment and disappointment. And the purpose of vision and mission is to jerk us back into a different narrative in which we substitute these words for the ones that are on the screen now. We choose to be a people of hope, a people of courage, a people of strength, a people of vision, a people of energy, a people who have imagination, and most of all, people who are deeply grounded and growing in our faith and choosing to do it together.

It goes without saying and would be an enormous understatement to say that our denomination is not in a period of tremendous anxiety. And while in one sense we're waiting for things to happen at the general church level, our primary work on a day-to-day, week-to-week and month-to-month basis and the place ultimately where we have the greatest opportunity to make change in all that we say, all that we do and all that we are, to rehearse a different narrative, if you will, is in the places where we live—closer to the ground, so to speak.

That's not a dis to the series of conferences that helped to shape and define us as United Methodists. But it does say in this arena within particular boundaries, we can choose to live with as much hope, as much courage, as much faith, as much imagination as we choose to. Among the things that have troubled us, of course, has been our now 45 year (and it's really a little closer to 50) debate about human sexuality. And our struggle in particular about how might the church live in a healing and hopeful relationship with all of God's people, including our gay and lesbian sisters and brothers who are already a part of the church and of this very assembly. To that end the General Conference and the delegates, some of them have been before you during these days, voted to ask the Council of Bishops to appoint a Commission On A Way Forward.

I want to take just a few moments to tell you about that work in which we've been engaged. It took until the fall of 2016 to get the commission named. And that's a part of the nuance-ing and delicacy and the complexity in a global church of trying to have a body that has some chance of looking something like the church looks in terms of nationality, in terms of the way in which people do church, in terms of people that are gay and straight, etc. etc. So that body was constituted in the late fall of last year, began meeting near the end of January. Between January and the first weekend in April there were 3 meetings. So people have expended themselves greatly to come to these meetings with only one resignation thus far and that because of just too much of the press of time and other responsibilities. And the task of the commission is to bring back to the Council of Bishops and in turn the council's responsibility will be to take that work and to bring it, we pray, in some useable and hopeful form that is forward-facing, that invites the church to discover the ways in which we might remain unified about our most slippery issue that has sought to divide us across almost 50 years.

I want to report to you that the members of that commission, of which I'm one, have worked faithfully and diligently. People have spent time and invested in one another spending time in prayer, doing deepened kind of get-acquainted, studying the bible (Galatians), reading together The Anatomy of Peace from The Arbinger Institute. We have begun to be in work groups formed around particular tasks. And in the next several months it's my hope and expectation that there will be more forthcoming from our work that will begin to look like it has been shaped into possible pathways for the commission, the council and the whole church to kind of chew on and to say, Is there a way that we can address this dilemma for the church that maximizes the presence of the United Methodist Church in all of the places in which we find ourselves around the globe.

So we've got a charge, and we have a sense of mission and scope that says we want at the end of the day to carry on these conversations, to deal with any proposals that may come out of the work of this commission in a way that invites the church to discover that they have already been given the gift of unity from the heart and spirit of Jesus Christ. And one of the ways in which we can find to express both that unity and to create some space for moving forward together so that we never lose sight... (Remember that first slide.) ...of our mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

I'm not Pollyanna about the future, but I choose to be a prisoner of hope about the future and that together we will find a way. May I say to you, like many of you, on any difficult matter in my personal life or otherwise just...just about the time I'm ready to give up on somebody or on some group or on some movement, God shows up in peculiar ways.

I happen to have the privilege of serving the church in some other venues in ecumenical dialog, and have been working with our Episcopalian sisters and brothers in a bilateral conversation that we pray will lead in due season to a full communion agreement. Along the way we've had several arresting points where we thought we were gonna need to walk away from one another, not in a sense of anger, but in a sense we just can't get past this interpretive matter of the nature of real presence in the Eucharist or around whether we should serve wine or grape juice in the Eucharist, or around the historic episcopate. We went through a process as we began to get toward a consensus that allowed us to commit to the church our work in a foundational document which you've read about in recent weeks, where we moved past the place where we were viewing one another as objects that needed to be fixed and began to ask a different question about what is it that we hold sufficiently in common where we can link heart and arms and minds to go forth to serve the world more faithfully and effectively together—not in organic union or merger. That is not on the table. It's never been on the table in this dialog. But is there a robustness of partnership that we might call full communion. And do we see...

And this is ecumenical work at its best. ...in one another the signs of the fullness of what church is sufficiently to move forward in these conversations.

I say to you that is another way of looking at the work of the commission on the way forward. Do we, despite all of our differences around human sexual expression, find in one another individually, in our camps and in our tribes sufficient signs of the triune God at work in our respective lives to say we choose to be in co-mission together for the sake of the world, that God loves so much that God gave God's only begotten son that whosoever should believe on him would not perish but have everlasting life? What is essential for us to agree on in order to be church together that's called United Methodist?

I don't have the answer to that. I have some hunches to that that are satisfying to me. I have some things that I've personally taken off the table and to say that for me, as a child of God, as a baptized believer, as a follower of Jesus Christ, as a leader in the church, that if it were up to me only these are not deal-breakers. My friends, we've got to shorten the list in all of our relationships about what are the deal-breakers and decide what are the things that will hold us together. We must decide what really matters.

I want to say to you this is the United Methodist way. We always begin with what we hold in common. In the Book of Discipline there is actually some exciting stuff. In the section on Our Theological Task lays out clearly and cogently what we hold in common with other Christians.

I caught a plane in Bloomington, Illinois, some years ago when I was serving there. I think I was flying to New York for an engagement, and I'd come from a busy day of preaching and teaching in the life of a former conference that I served. I was not able to take off my clerical collar, which is most often how I preach and speak, especially if I know I'm going to sweat a lot. So I got on the plane sat down in my seat. It was the last flight out of Bloomington headed into LaGuardia. I was just tired, exhausted and I just wanted to drop my head down and go to sleep.

I sat down next to a woman as you might imagine after while when the plane took off she started a conversation. You already know what she led with. Well, what do you do? I was just tired enough and it was just late enough that I wanted to give a wise a wisenheimer kind of answer. Like, do you think I'm just dressed up like this for my health, Halloween, etc. But the Holy Spirit restrained me and saved me from being a jerk.

As it turns out she was a U.S. citizen, but her birth place was in one of the countries of Latin American and she was intrigued. And so I said "I'm a pastor." And she said, "Oh yeah, what kind of pastor are you?" And I said, "I'm a United Methodist pastor." And eventually she got to finding out actually what my day job is, and then she said, "I was raised Roman Catholic. My mother is very devout, but I've not found as much meaning in it as I would like to in these years since confirmation." But she wasn't dissing it, wasn't saying she was an unbeliever, just simply saying she had kind of been distanced from the church but wasn't blaming anyone.

Then she said, "Well, tell me, what's unique about United Methodists." And I discovered in that moment that I had actually read our theological task a time or two. And that I had been wired and nurtured and shaped as a United Methodist in this Wesleyan tradition not to begin the conversation with everything that was unique to United Methodism or to a Wesleyan approach to a Christian faith. And I said, "Ma'am, if you don't mind, could I begin..." And I did just what the Discipline does. I tell you, this is how we think. This is what's in the Book. We begin at the place of saying what we have in common with all Christians. In one sense the nuances and the distinctiveness is not nearly as important, and in fact it doesn't even make sense if we don't begin with what we hold in common with all Christians. That's our approach to theology as United Methodists. We seek to say we hold in common with all Christians a deep faith and conviction in the triune God and that that triune God, creator and redeemer and sanctifier has been, is now and will continue to be at work bringing new creation into this world.

What if that were our paradigm? We're such an argumentative culture and argumentative church. And if you keep arguing all the time... This is an editorial. ...you're just gonna end up mean. I've seen meanness and I want you to know it doesn't all take place at the General Conference. It doesn't all take place here. I get notes from some of you in your local churches, and they are not always inspiring. I asked a church recently through their district superintendent, is the word 'forgiveness' in your lexicon as a Christian community?

I say all of this as a kind of a teasing out of the challenging difficult work that the commission has to do, subsequently the General Conference will have to do, the Council of Bishops will have to do. But what an opportunity to reposition ourselves and rename the terms of the conversation so that, as some of us have been learning and many of you have noted, that we can come to every relationship, every engagement, individual, one-on-one, group and otherwise with a heart of peace, rather than a heart that is filled with animosity.

On the slides with the words that were going in different directions you saw one of the words that we needed to put into place of something to be deleted, was courage—the courage to move beyond our fears of what might really be possible for us if we came to this conversation and we had a different template in our heads.

In the Book of Deuteronomy, at 31:6 and in Joshua 1:9 almost identical words. And I want to acknowledge parenthetically, though not importantly, I get that if you read deeply into these texts, particularly the Joshua text, there are some things with which people of faith in the triune God need to wrestle with about inheriting the promises as the result of the obliteration of other people. But I'm coming to that in a minute. But I want to just raise these words off of the page for you, that say in Deuteronomy, "Be strong and bold. Have no fear or dread of them, because it is the Lord your God who goes with you. He will not fail you or forsake you." And in the Joshua text, "I hereby command you..." Now that's pretty strong. "...I command you..." This is to fearful people that are on the edge of something new. "...be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened or dismayed. For the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

What if, in the engagement of this difficult and challenging conversation about human sexual expression or anything else that might even come up tonight, we were the people, we were the church, we, West Ohio, were the conference that said, You know, we're just about to wave some colored flag and we're about to throw in the towel 'cause we don't know if we can hang together anymore, but could it be that we're right on the edge of a new future. If we just hold on long enough light is gonna break forth through the darkness. Something new will be birthed. I don't want to miss the newness that God just might be trying to work in the United Methodist Church and in the West Ohio Annual Conference. But because we're already fearful and anxious we've gotta hear the voice of the holy one say us, "Be courageous. Move forward without fear." And this is the word resembling what's at the 28th chapter at the end of Saint Matthew's Gospel. But here in Deuteronomy, here in Joshua and many other places in Scripture, as you go, go in the assurance that I go with you.

Some of you who have emailed me and gotten a direct email back from me. At the bottom of my email is a quote I've had for several years from Dietrich Bonhoeffer which says, "Christianity stands or falls with its revolutionary protest against violence, arbitrariness and cry of power and with its plea for the weak. Christians are doing too little to make these points clear rather than too much. Christendom adjusts itself far too easily to the worship of power. Christians should give more offense, should shock the world far more than they are doing right now." Now let that settle in in your mind and spirit.

The formerly mainline institutional church has spent so much time trying to blend in with the culture that it could be that the salt has lost its savor. It's just like you kind of drift into that. It is when we are preoccupied with our entitlements, our prerogatives and our privileges more than we're preoccupied with the world to which the Father sent the Son. So I wish you could hear Dietrich's "we stand or fall with our revolutionary protest against violence, arbitrariness and pride of power and with our plea (or may I say or not) for the weak. We're doing far too little to make this clear rather than far too much.

I want us in this particular age to grow the kind of courage, to speak for the most vulnerable in our culture. I see signs that it is already breaking out among us. I was moved beyond belief earlier today when we saw the video about All In Community. I remember 3 years or more ago when I asked you step up and find some way to connect with people on the spectrum of incarceration that you and your congregation could engage. And I want to say to you, you in your churches, in your settings, in your discipleship, you have been magnificent and over the top. And Lisa's story that we saw on video today and what she has done because the Whitehall church said, There's room for you here. We've got a gospel of forgiveness, a gospel of hope and a gospel of healing, made it possible for her to claim a life that she thought had passed her by, or that she had relinquished because of her previous behaviors and what she would view as failures and shortcomings.

In our world where we're in a huge dust-up about how we're to be in relationship with our neighbors, we argue and fuss over immigration policy. We can't find our voice in such profound ways that sometimes we even attack people whose skin is olive, whose first language may not be English, but who were born in this nation. What would it look like keeping Bonhoeffer, to speak nothing of Jesus, in mind, if we took all of the initiatives that we could in all the places that we live to say we intend by God's grace to be a welcoming and hospitable presence to all of our neighbors—ALL of our neighbors, not just those that look like us, walk like us, talk like us, have education and income like us, accents are like our accents? What if we took that seriously and responded to the question long ago that was turned back on that inquiring mind and that said to the master, "And just who is my neighbor?" Who is my neighbor? Of course it was the one who responded with mercy, with healing, with compassion, and with embrace.

We are called and I want to invite you into an initiative where we are engaged robustly in the welcoming of our neighbor in our communities, urban, town and rural and where we engage based upon what we United Methodists have said through our Discipline and our Book of Resolutions and Social Principles about immigration in this nation. We've gotta stop fooling around with this. We have the genius in this room, and it would be true in every other annual conference, to find a way at the ground level and also at the level of public policy in statehouses, in local councils and in the Congress and the White House of these United States.

I've thrived on my trips to our mission partners in the Democratic Republic of Congo, our friend Bishop Ntambo, our friend now of course Bishop Mande, as we've gone to visit the North Katanga Episcopal area. What a leader Bishop Ntambo has been. We all know that. His accolades are too many to name. I expect nothing but a similar kind of outreaching leadership on the part of our friend and brother Bishop Mande who will begin his first series of annual conferences on Wednesday of this week. And we've already invited you to prayer for him. But on the times that I have been there one of the things that has moved me beyond belief is that in services of worship for the annual conference and for The Congo Central Conference where in March of this year we were consecrating 3 new bishops of the United Methodist Church there was a Muslim Imam, who came to be a part of that worship service. There he is on the screen sitting next to Bishop Ntambo. This is the world that we've dreamed of. This is a different narrative than all of the Muslims around us must surely be terrorists. These are in Christian United Methodist services of worship where the outreach of the United Methodist Church has been so meaningful, so powerful, so profound, there was such respect for the retiring bishop that as new bishops were being consecrated other religious leaders of other faith traditions came to that service, came and talked to the annual conference.

Laboring in this partnership with our global partners we've got far more to learn than we think we have. We are not only the deliverers of missions. We need to be the recipients of mission. We not only have resources to give, we've got resources to receive.

How many Muslims neighbors feel so welcome by you and your church that they might just drop in? I know of a couple of congregations—Forest Chapel congregation in Cincinnati in the ORV has a little delegation of Nepalese sisters and brothers who do not profess the name of Jesus. But they come in and sit on the back row because Pastor Kabamba has said, You are welcome in this place. When I said embracing our neighbors, I'm serious about embracing our neighbors and not choosing to see the walls or fences that have dominated us so much before.

One final word on this initiative to welcome all of our neighbors. I'm wearing a pin under my Episcopal pin. It's a dove with an olive branch. It was a gift. I received it today. I didn't know it was coming, but I had seen and admired someone else's. And it was a reminder from a member of the Armstrong Chapel Church in Cincinnati and of a delegation of members of this conference who came to visit with me to talk about how together we might more robustly serve the conversation about the Israeli and Palestinian conflict and choose to put on the lenses that allow us to see enough room for both and our call to see them in global community and as healthy neighbors to one another. What for some in that area look like security fences through the eyes of our Palestinian sisters and brothers looking at those fences around the settlements, they see them as apartheid fences. What does it mean to live with our neighbors? And will we find a way to stand with both?

One of the things that I have rejoiced in is in my trips to the Holy Land spending increasing time in Palestinian territory and on the West Bank. And I want to encourage all of you that if you have the opportunity, whether with me or another group, to go to the Holy Land to find ways to spend time with both Jewish and Palestinian sisters and brothers who may be Muslim or Christian and discover and learn from both their stories. Place it in the context of an ancient story and to say how might we live into a new story together in the 21st century where we come toward one another with a heart of peace?

I beg of you to join that conversation and to see on this screen what all of us have seen in our neighborhoods which is not an especially religiously-motivated sign, but I simply have seen it so much around that I could not help but share it with you, even though I know you've seen it in several languages say, "No matter where you're from, we are glad you are our neighbor."

Now thirdly, we have been a leader in this annual conference in the Global Health Initiative. There's been a kind of tweaking of the language. We're beginning to embrace, and as one of our four foci Abundant Health and Abundant Health for all. I want you to partner under the rubrics of our Social Principles, our Book of Resolutions and the convictions expressed in our Discipline in helping those who cannot yet find a healing and redemptive way to see that our conviction as United Methodists that health care ought to have access and that means not just that it's fair, but that it's financially accessible for all. Abundant health for all.

These are interconnected. The second thing... This is all under Abundant Health. We have a mess on our hands with the opioid crisis. You know those stories. I've been to some of your places. I've talked to pastors who have said to me straightway, I serve in a suburban community. I've buried 4, 5 young people for opioid overdose, black tar heroin overdoses. People want the ministry of the church. They let me bury their child, but in the church at large they don't want to talk about it. May I say to you, it isn't gonna go away by our not talking about it. It's not gonna get better because we don't talk about it. We've got to step to this thing. It is affecting people of all classes in too many places.

This morning I heard a story that broke my heart from Dayton Children's Hospital from Pastor Daryl Fairchild who said that an adult who had the black tar heroin in a kind of a gummy bear candy form. A one-year-old got a hold of it. And I inevitably asked the question, Did the child survive? Pastor Daryl dropped his head and said, No.

Will we work to have abundant health for all? Will we deal with addiction? Will we remind people that they are forgiven, or people that have already lost loved ones to this or their lives are in an uproar? Will we have a place for them where they can work through this and work out their soul's salvation? What is an epidemic is soon in my judgment to be a pandemic. Will the United Methodist Church and the only place where we've got influence really, friends, is West Ohio. Will our one thousand and twenty congregations step into that conversation of Abundant Health?

Oh, I'm not done yet. I'm still on Abundant Health. Will we have the moral courage in our communities and in this nation, without specific blame to particular groupings and tribes, to say once and for all that gun violence is a public health crisis in America? I remind you that we serve the Prince of Peace. And we have declared that he is Lord or all. Either he is, or he isn't. But the test is, will we live like he is Lord of our lives?

And the fourth matter under Abundant Health that we will be coming toward across this next year will be the launch of a task force on the last Monday of June on clergy wellness in our annual conference in all of its dimensions—physical, spiritual, financial and emotional. I look to have a good report that will come to you about ways we can step into the challenge and the opportunity, but also to say to you that everything we can do that doesn't require a vote we ought to get at it as soon as we can.

Finally friends you heard a wonderful presentation this morning. We'll have a worship service focused on it tomorrow, around the Light the Way campaign. And that campaign, as you've heard, is focused on raising some of the capital that will be needed. And it's only a part of it. ...to resource the planting and (we pray) the multiplication of new congregations and faith communities and to strategically engage in our best opportunities to redevelop other congregations that already exist by investing in them dramatically in such ways that they can move into the next cycle of their lives.

I have sometimes been inspired and often troubled, and only troubled because it is so true, by the great bishop and missiologist Leslie Newbigin. He says "Spiritual renewal will only happen when local congregations renounce an introverted concern for their own life and recognize that they exist for the sake of those who are not members, as a sign, as an instrument and as a foretaste of God's redeeming grace for the whole of life and society."

My friends the church is not just about us. Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Sovereign God, did not call this movement into being just so we could get together in a few tabernacles scattered across the landscape to become a mutual admiration society. I mean, we're admirable, but...but we've been taught together to go out into the world in the power of the Holy Spirit to give away what we have received as a gift. Not because we're more holy or more pious, but because the gift is so wonderful. It's the pearl of precious price. We wouldn't think of locking it up inside of a wood clap, or brick, or a steel or a glass or a concrete precinct so we could come in and admire the pearl of precious price every seven days. This gospel is too good to be pent up in your church building and pent up in you.

Would you join me? I need help on this. I mean, truth be told, I've spend almost all of my time with church folks. And I love church folks. I love the church. But new beginning is messing with me. Bonhoeffer is messing with me. Jesus is messing with me. "Go ye into ALL the world."

So I want to say is, I need you, friends, to get with this campaign. But I want to assure you it will only provide a seeding of all of the capital that will be needed. But here's what I want... I don't want you to wait until we get five million dollars. I want you to go back and have a conversation in your local church and I don't care how small you are. I believe any church that truly seeks to be the church and bears the mark of church one, holy, catholic and apostolic can grow from where it is. It's not always numbers. But I tell you, if there's enough growth in grace somebody will come to see what this thing is that you're talking about in all the places where you live.

Let me say it another way. Will we love this world and its people as much as God in Christ has loved it? Or will we spend all of our time trying to keep a thousand and twenty churches open in West Ohio to stay the same way they are, just waiting until we can bury mamma. Now, I ain't mad at momma, poppa, auntie, or uncle. But what I want to say is, keeping it open to do that is sweet, but it is not a mission from on high. It's not a mission from on high. You can't convince me that that's what Jesus had in mind. And so in your church, however small or however large, let's keep the main thing the main thing.

The current Archbishop of Canterbury (and I'm coming to a close...gotta taste for some black cherry ice cream)... Justin Welby, said in an endowed lecture that he gave somewhere in the last few years, that the church exists for these two reasons: to glorify God in Jesus Christ and to make new disciples of Jesus Christ. Period. Hard stop, as you've heard me say. He goes on to say after that hard stop, he offers this editorial, but not other...not unimportant. And he says, Everything else is decoration. Glorify God in Jesus Christ; make new disciples. I just want that to sink in.

Everything else... It's a bold statement. Everything else is decoration. He says, It may be quite lovely decoration, but it's decoration nonetheless. Perhaps the thing that we need to be the least fearful and most courageous about is the courage to actually be the church that Dr. Bryan Stone of Boston University School of Theology says in his work on evangelization that the church is God's strategy for evangelism.

So tonight will you think about being church? Will you think about stepping in to speak for those who can't speak for themselves? Will you think about uttering the name of Jesus when people speak to you of their lostness, their loneliness? And would you do it not just with your words, but with your sense of community and incarnation?

I'm confident that the God who said in Christ, I will be with you even to the close of the age, will keep God's promise to us. And so I end with this hymn: how to reach the masses, those of every birth, for an answer Jesus gave the key. He said if I, if I be lifted up from the earth I'll draw everybody unto me. He went...the writer goes on to say, The world is hungering for living bread, not stale toast, living bread, lift the Savior up for them to see. Trust him. Do not doubt the words that he said. I'll draw all...I'll draw all men, all women, all boys, all girls, unto me. Oh, don't exalt the preacher and don't exalt the pew. Preach the gospel, simple, pure and free. And you will find, West Ohio, that the promise is true. He'll draw...he'll draw...he'll draw everybody unto himself. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost. Amen.

B. BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

OPENING

Bishop, members of the cabinet and members of this annual conference, I would like to say it is a privilege and honor to stand before you this afternoon but that would be a lie. I would rather be anywhere else than here. Bishop I know you will find this hard to believe, but the truth of the matter is I do not like to speak in front of people. I only speak to my congregation on Sunday because God called me to be a preacher. But I preach under duress every week. When Bill Brownson approached me with the idea of chairing this board I told him "no thank you" because I knew that the chair had to address the entire conference. However I did allow that I would ask my wife what she thought about my taking on this responsibility. A wise husband always checks with his wife about such things. I told her that I could easily chair the meetings. After all I have been a United Methodist minister 44 years. Meetings are as much a part of me as his breathing. But I told her about having to give this presentation. Bishop I think you know my wife. She is a beautiful woman - soft, genteel, supportive and loving. In addition she is also a clinical psychologist so she knew exactly what to say to me as my loving spouse. You know what she said? "Suck it up!!!" So here I am. But trust me, my report will be brief.

JUST TWO THINGS

If I were to sum up my words to you in two sentences it would sound like this for both the pension side of things as well as the health side of things: 1. The Board will watch out for you as best as we can and 2. You are your own best advocate. The recommendation from the board is found on The Book of Reports pages 41 to 47.

HEALTH CARE PLANS

With regard to the healthcare plans for retired as well as active clergy, we review these plans every year. But as you know predicting the future of healthcare is anybody's guess. We do not expect the retired clergy plan to change this year and we hope that the active clergy plan does not change as well. However, we will review the latest claims data in August in preparation for setting 2018 premiums, which must cover the costs of our self-insured active plan, and in the case of the retiree plan, keep our long-term health care liability in check. The world of healthcare is turbulent. Whether such turbulence leads to changes next year or beyond, I would simply ask that we all be both understanding and flexible. While I don't expect it to be next year, one day we may even find ourselves facing a decision to cease offering a health insurance plan and instead recommend other means for clergy to purchase health insurance.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

The second thing I want to say about our health plans is, "you are your own best advocate." One thing remains true whether we are talking about the retiree plan or the active plan – the costs reflect the health of those who are covered. We have a personal responsibility to God, our families, our congregations and ourselves to take the best possible care of ourselves that we can. Cost can be held stable or reduced only if you, and I do not mean the corporate you, but rather the individual you, take better care of yourself. We will continue to try to provide incentives through such programs as the Virgin Pulse program and cash incentives for such things as getting an annual physical, which you may already know about through a recent email from the Conference. The bottom line is we must take better care of ourselves. As a matter of personal privilege and counsel, I would encourage each and every person in the active program to contribute as much as you can to your Health Savings Plan. Everyone knows the likelihood of needing money for healthcare increases toward the end of life. Make sure you make the most of the tax-deferred benefit of this savings plan. Even if you do not use the money for health expenses it is still yours. It can function like an IRA in retirement if you don't use it for health care.

PENSIONS

On the pension side of things I would repeat what I have already said about healthcare. The Conference Board of Pensions is here to help you. For instance, we are having a Mission Possible event in September. Whether you're going to retire in two years or 32 years this daylong seminar will give you a good path for planning your retirement as well as understanding the nuances of the plan. We also have excellent benefit officers in Mike Kremnitzer and Sandi George. I think you have seen from the earlier slides that in conjunction with Wespeth, we are reasonably well funded for our liabilities. The good news is that the markets are up. I'm not sure I am saying this correctly, but the bad news is you are living longer, so we are recommending for example that the pre-82 past service rate remain the same for 2018. The gains found in the stock market on the one hand are lost to the actuarial tables on the other.

HELP YOURSELF

As I said with healthcare, so I would say of pensions: help yourselves. You are your best advocate as you move toward retirement. Take advantage of the opportunities you have not only to understand your retirement plan, but also to invest in it. I am frankly staggered and amazed at how many of our clergy fail to make a personal contribution to their retirement plans. I understand financial needs are often great, particularly for clergy in smaller churches. I have been there myself. But I also know when I started out it was mandatory that we make personal contributions to the plan and frankly my wife and I could not afford it. We never got them, but we were eligible for food stamps as it was. We were paying for seminary full time and raising 2 kids all on the grand total of $5200 a year. But now toward the end of my career I have seen how the miracle of compounding really comes into play. The sad thing is twofold: number one, clergy are no longer required to make personal contributions - which, by the way, I would change if it were left up to me. Number two, because clergy are not making personal contributions they are missing out on the church's matching contribution. That is to say they could well be leaving more than a hundred thousand dollars in future benefits on the table. Too many of our clergy are taking short-term gains for huge long-term losses.

CONCLUSION

Well, I am at the end of my words. I apologize if I have offended any of our clergy because I know in my pastoral heart that unsolicited advice is always a put down. Nevertheless, as a seasoned old fart I would encourage all of our clergy to do what you can to be knowledgeable of the plans that you are in. What you don't know can hurt you and what you do know can help you. Just as importantly, take better care of your health and your finances for the future and do it beginning today. It will not only help you but the churches you lead.

RECOMMENDATION

Bishop, members of the cabinet, and members of this annual conference I want to thank Mike Kremnitzer our Conference Benefits Officer and Bill Brownson, CFO and Dir. of Administration for all of their help this year. They are superb assets to our church. Please note that on page 46, line 3, that (June 1, 2017 should replace "date to be supplied"). With that, I move the adoption of recommendation number three and would note that this recommendation remains substantially unchanged from last year when it passed with over 98% support.

Rev. Barry DeShetler, Chair

C. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Thank you, Bishop Palmer. I move that this session of the Annual Conference be adjourned and that the Corporate Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church be convened.

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference:

As elected laity and clergy, we give of our time, energy and attention to our Conference to provide governance oversight to investments, our affiliated organizations, property and legal matters. When we do this well and over a long period of time, you should be freed to focus on your local church and other ministries knowing that our collective resources are being effectively cared for. Not only should we “Be Not Afraid,” we should take comfort in knowing this work is being attended to prudently and throughout the year.

The first area I'll speak to is Investments.

Investments make up 86% of the Conference's assets so it's important to share with you what the investments are for and how we oversee them. Through the Conference Investment Policy Committee, the Trustees ensure proper oversight of $78 million as of March 31 of this year. After a down year in 2015, markets bounced back in 2016. Our investment managers, Huntington National Bank and Morgan Stanley both outperformed their balanced and growth portfolio benchmarks. The Committee, which meets quarterly, ensures that these assets are available to meet their intended needs with the appropriate balance of returns and risk.

As of March 31:

- $47.4million is reserved for Clergy Benefits, which is primarily designated for Retiree Health Care.
- $14.5 million is comprised of funds administered by the Council on Development and held for others, including the endowments of many local churches and districts. This is the fastest growing segment of investment assets and reflects the success of the Council on Development's Endowment Program.
- $6.1 million is restricted for specific use and largely overseen by the Trustees, including those earmarked for camps, church extension loans and the Gardner Retired Clergy Housing Assistance Fund.
- $7.7 million has been designated by Conference Boards for specific purposes such as Starting New Churches and Clergy Leadership, the Trustee's Capital Fund and operating reserves set by CF&A.

Both managers invest within guidelines set by our Investment Policy Statement, which incorporate limitations set forth in the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church and those of the West Ohio Conference. This is socially responsible investing, one aspect of which is to avoid taking ownership positions in companies engaged in activities that are not aligned with goals and purposes of the church. I'd like to thank Trustee Todd Ehninger who chairs the Conference Investment Policy Committee and all the other members who ensure these important missional assets are tended to throughout the year.

Affiliated Organizations

The Trustees' second area of focus is affiliated organizations and relationships with each are overseen by the Affiliated Organizations Committee that Trustee Ann Hartmann chairs.

- We are in relationship with four organizations that serve primarily seniors: Hill View Retirement Services in the Shawnee Valley District, Life Enriching Communities in greater Cincinnati, Methodist ElderCare Services in central Ohio and Otterbein Senior Lifestyle Choices, which operates in many locations along the western edge of our conference. Each serve their respective communities, providing housing and other care to -- among others -- many United Methodists and our clergy.
- We are also in relationship with Preacher's Relief Society, and the United Methodist Financial Credit Union.
- Finally, we are the sole members of three organizations and maintain close relationships with each:
 - o Our newest, which grew out of a 2008 study, is the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, and just this year hired its second Executive Director,
 - o Ohio Health, one of Ohio's largest health systems,
 - o And UMCH Family Services, which is serving more families and children than ever before. UMCH is also the owner of 42 acres in Worthington that it is working on developing. This last point provides a perfect segue to the work of our Real Estate Committee.

Real Estate and Property Matters

- As you'll recall from the three most recent annual conferences, UMCH family services owns the current Conference Center. This body has previously authorized the Conference Trustees to acquire and renovate our current building, and I'm very pleased to say that we are finally at the end stages of closing on the purchase option available to the Conference under its lease.

- In anticipation of closing, we are planning the much-needed renovations of 32 Wesley. The change in ownership and a prudent investment in the building will reduce Conference expenses and hopefully prove to be a good long-term investment. Next year at this time I hope to report that we are nearing completion on renovation plans.
- The Real Estate Committee also is in relationship with the three camps operated by the Conference. We have worked to understand the strategy and plan for our camping ministries and to make the investments necessary for that ministry to advance. We were very pleased to participate this spring in a Best Practices Peer Review of our Camps & Retreats programs and look forward to seeing the results shortly. The results should help guide the Trustees and all of us in making good investments in this important program.
- We also completed the sale of Camp Asbury as directed by this body last year.
- I'd like to thank the Real Estate Committee and its chair, Julie Hurtig, for all of their work in the past year.
- Finally, the Trustees have the responsibility for property of closed local churches. This comes about after a District Superintendent recommends closure or reports abandonment, and the Extended Cabinet concurs. Since our last Annual Conference, the following churches are recommended for closure due to abandonment or loss of missional connection:
 - o In the Miami Valley District, Higher Ground, effective December 31
 - o In the Miami Valley District, Residence Park, effective December 31
 - o In the Maumee Watershed District, The Village, effective February 19

Legal Matters

I'm now pleased to introduce Chris Hogan who will bring the Chancellor's Report.
Chris Hogan

Chris offered his remarks, promoting the Legal Forum, noting the page on which it is advertised in the program guide and the work of the Safe Sanctuaries Task Force

Ann Baird -

Thank you, Chris.

As Chair, it's been my pleasure to work with this year's board, with Chris Hogan, Bishop Palmer and many others. For the trustees who are here, please stand so we can thank you for your work. I look forward to continuing the work of the Trustees on behalf of the mission of the West Ohio Conference.

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference, this concludes our report.

Bishop, if you are ready, I move that the Trustee Report be adopted, including the recommendations for church closures.

BISHOP PALMER TAKES VOTE

Bishop, I now move that the Corporate Session be adjourned and that the Annual Conference Session be reconvened.

BISHOP PALMER TAKES VOTE

Mrs. Ann Baird
Chair, Board of Trustees

D. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Good Afternoon Bishop Palmer and Members of Annual Conference. I am pleased to be with you today to report on progress that we have made in the West Ohio Conference regarding what has become known as Recommendation 6. Recommendation 6 is the Resolution for Review of West Ohio Conference Financial and Apportionment Strategies and Administration. The resolution was presented to and approved by the membership of the 2015 meeting of the annual conference.

Re-cap of Recommendation

There are four basic components of Recommendation 6:

- The formation of a task force to bring a plan for conference finance that seeks to maximize the resources available for mission and ministry through our local congregations.
- The task force will explore meaningful opportunities to increase efficiencies of institutional and administrative functions.
- Recommend an intentional strategy of stewardship education across the conference, and
- Examine the current apportionment formula and identify strategies that target meaningful reductions to total connectional giving.

I presented you with a report of the task force's work at last year's Annual Conference. The report presented the work of the committee in four areas:

- Completed Initiatives – a reminder of actions that had been taken over the previous four years to reduce expenses, gain operating efficiencies, and reduce connectional giving requests.
- Initiatives that are in progress - actions currently underway that may result in further financial savings. I am pleased to say that I will have more to say about both completed initiatives and in progress initiatives that have been underway since our meeting together last June.
- Actions that Boards, conference and District Staff can take on their own through the authority of their required responsibilities.
- Potential options that require further public dialogue throughout the annual conference.

Recommendation 6 calls for progress over the quadrennium. You should expect to hear about our continued progress at this Annual Conference and for at least two more to come. I am pleased to share more of our progress from 2016 and this year:

Completed Initiatives

- West Ohio Conference Center Building – We have completed the acquisition of the conference center building which frees us from a $240,000 yearly rental obligation.
- Completion of a third party perception study of:
 - o The Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI)
 - o Crucible, and
 - o The Residency Program.

Based upon this third party review, with data collection and feedback, MCCI and Crucible will continue and will benefit from the comprehensive feedback received. The Residency Program will be revamped prior to the appointment of another resident.

- Sale of Camp Asbury – The sale of Camp Asbury has been completed, but resulted in a financial loss for West Ohio Conference.

Initiatives that are in Progress

- Stewardship Education – Under the direction of George Cooper a comprehensive stewardship education program has been developed and is ready to roll out. The program is designed to be used by, for and in all of our churches, but is specifically directed toward churches who are participating in connectional giving at a level of less than 50%. The program is designed with the expectation of participation from both clergy and laity. The stewardship education program will roll out June 24th with the first large group session with Bishop Palmer and several churches. This program is intended to be more than an educational experience – it will address the importance of our United Methodist connection and our accountability to one another and the connection. Those who attend will hear about how connectional money is at work throughout the West Ohio Conference. And why our participation in shared connectional giving is so important to advancing the mission and ministry of local congregations as well as the ministries of the West Ohio Conference and the global ministries of the United Methodist Church. Our hope is that local churches will leave with strategies and support for their unique circumstances that will help them to more fully participate in apportioned connectional giving.
- Camping and Retreat Ministry – our Camps and Retreats ministries have undergone an outside audit by the denominational leader of Camp and Retreat ministries and two Annual Conference treasurers who each come to the process with a deep knowledge of camping ministries. We anticipate the outcome of this audit and review and the recommendations that will come.

I look forward to next year's annual conference and another report of continued progress as we work together to fulfill the expectations set before us in Recommendation 6.

I have enjoyed sharing the progress report about Recommendation 6 so much, that I am prepared to stay here on stage and deliver the annual report from your Committee on Finance and Administration and to bring our recommendation for 2018.

While I am pleased to report that the overall financial position of the West Ohio Annual Conference is strong, that statement is delivered with a bit of reservation. As has been our practice for several years, many of our churches continue to struggle to provide equitable financial support to our shared district and conference mission and ministry. While we have been able to move forward with our programming as planned due the strength of our overall financial position, this is not sustainable in the long term. I look with anticipation to the coming stewardship education program being rolled out under the leadership of George Cooper. Our hope on the Committee for Finance and Administration is that churches will fully engage in this program to aid in the process of more equitable participation in our connection and in our shared mission and ministry through our districts and the West Ohio Conference.

Before our Conference CFO Bill Brownson brings us a more detailed narrative about the Annual Conference's 2017 financial position and plans for 2018, I'd like to share a few items for your consideration.

- Receipts on apportioned connectional giving for 2016 came in at 75%, not 80% as budgeted.
 - o 574 churches participated fully by contributing 100% of their apportioned connectional giving level. We are grateful for this commitment.
- The West Ohio Conference once again maintained our commitment to our United Methodist connection by paying 100% of our General Church apportionments.
- Planned conference programming took place as budgeted.

Your Council on Finance & Administration is simplifying the apportioned connectional giving process by reducing the number of apportioned funds from 12 to 3. This simplification will be more efficient for local churches and conference staff. The three funds support the same areas as the 12 previously did. The new three are:

- Retiree Health and Clergy Benefits
- Conference Ministries (Administration, Connectional and Missional Ministries, and Ministerial Support,) and
- General Church Support

The Audit Committee continues to work on our behalf to ensure that our sound financial position is supported by a successful audit. This year, our Audit Committee recommended the use of a new firm – Clark Schaefer Hackett. We had been with our previous auditors for over eight years and decided it was time for a new set of eyes.

In prior years our auditors have issued a clean opinion. Our new auditors called out a specific issue with respect to how we handle one of our affiliated organizations, the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, and noted that in their opinion. We will take actions to address this concern in our next audit so we're in line with technical accounting standards. In all other respects, the opinion was clean and reflective of our financial position. As has been our past practice, the audited financial statements will be posted on the Conference website.

After CFO Brownson brings us a more detailed review of our financial position, we will introduce Recommendation 1 – which is formally called the “Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations” for Calendar Year 2018.

Recommendation 1 will be our shared financial commitment to provide for the Mission and Ministry of the West Ohio Conference and our districts. This is a statement about our missional priorities, and is the backbone and support of our work together in 2018. A few highlights for your consideration:

- The total amount apportioned is $22.3 million with $19 million apportioned for conference and general church programming and $3.3 million for district programming.
 - o We are expecting a 75.7% apportioned connectional giving receipt rate for conference and general church programming
- Full support the Connection through 100% participation in General Church and Jurisdictional apportioned connectional giving. 2018 has the potential to be our fifth consecutive year as a 100% conference.

I trust that you have read the narrative that precedes Recommendation 1 as well as the recommendation itself. The narrative will offer highlights and explanations on a section-by-section basis.

The Council on Finance & Administration works closely throughout the year with a number of Conference staff members. Their hard work and support is greatly appreciated and I would like to say “Thank You” to Jeri Seabaugh, our Controller and Jim Nothstine, along Jack Frost, Sandi George and Joy Perry for their work and collaboration with us throughout the year.

To recap briefly what we offer in this annual report:

- The 2016 apportioned connectional giving receipt rate was 75%, which was lower than the planned rate of 80%.
- The West Ohio Conference is a fully participating conference by meeting 100% of the apportioned giving request to the General Church.
- Our proposed budget to support our mission and ministry priorities will be the same as both 2016 and 2017 at $22.3 million with the Conference level being $19 million dollars and districts adding $3.3 million.

As a past church treasurer, I understand the commitment and sacrifice that is made at the local church level to participate financially in our conference and district mission. Your support turns our missional aspirations into realities. Thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you for your commitment to the mission of the United Methodist Church – in your community, in our Conference and throughout the world.

E. 2016 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church

The Statistician's report is made up of three Tables that were mailed to each local church in December of 2016. We then collected the 2016 data from the local churches during the first three months of 2017. As we have in the past, we used the GCFA Statistical Website (Ezra) to collect our church data. This provides for a better management of our data at the General Church and Conference levels. This year, with help from the District Offices we were able to collect 96% of the reports from our 1,026 churches. Unfortunately, there were 4% or 33 churches that have not completed their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. Four districts had all their churches complete their yearend reports, the districts were Capitol Area North, Capitol Area South, Maumee Watershed, and Ohio River Valley. We again allowed churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered.

At the close of 2016, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 162,836 members. A total of 6,378 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2016. That meant that every day last year, 17 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. Like the previous years the largest increase was received on profession of faith, a total of 3,298 members. That number decreased by 85 from 2015. In 2015, a total of 211 churches held confirmation classes, representing 20% of our churches. In 2016 that number has increased from the previous year to 212 as 21% of our churches held confirmation classes.

At the close of 2016, the West Ohio Conference membership was down from what was reported at the end of 2015. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 12,351. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 34 people were leaving congregations in the conference. Like the trend over the last few years the largest loss was removed by charge conference action, a total of 4,102 members. This number decreased from what was recorded for the year in 2015. The net loss from the new members minus the members lost shown below is 5,973 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 30,419 members over the last 5 years. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 6,150 members per year.

Starting Membership 2016	168,809
Those received during 2016 – Add	6,378
Those removed during 2016 – Subtract	-12,351
Ending Membership 2016	162,836

Every Sunday the West Ohio Conference had an average of 96,861 members participating in worship across the conference. This represents 59% of conference membership in worship every Sunday morning. The average attendance in principal worship services decreased by 4,182 members from what was reported in 2015. We also baptized 3,008 Individuals during 2016. The number of baptisms decreased by 290 from the 2015 year totals. A total of 552 churches or 54% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2016.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2016 was 105,429 participants. Three of the four categories Children, Youth, & Other Adults showed decreased numbers in 2016. The Young Adults had no change in their numbers. Overall the West Ohio Conference experienced a 2% decrease in the number of participants from 2015 to 2016. The Average Attendance at Sunday School decreased from that of 2015 by 2,249 members. There were 36,958 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2016. This was a decrease from those participating in 2015 of 2,496 or 6%.

The UMW showed a decrease in their membership in 2016 from 2015. Their membership decreased by 1,442 members to 14,684 members. The UMM showed a decrease in their membership in 2016 from 2015. Their membership decreased by 150 members to 2,831 members. The combined effort of money paid to projects by both groups was $1,247,911. The UMW with a membership of 14,684 members paid $1,109,416 on projects. That was a decrease of $56,050 from 2015. The UMM, with a membership of 2,831 members paid $138,495 on projects. That was a decrease of $23,195 from 2015.

There were 184 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2016. That was a decrease from 2015 of 14 mission teams. That accounted for 1,548 participants in UMVIM teams which was an increase of 97 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of persons engaged in mission in the local churches was 44,980 serving 1,855,925 people in those communities. There were 672 or 66% of our congregations that had persons engaged in mission.

The West Ohio Conference recorded a decrease in total paid in 2016. The conference received $191,671,473 which was a decrease of $6,034,233 compared to 2015. That breaks out to a cost of $1,177 per member as compared to $1,171 per member in 2015. Almost 56% or 574 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2016. That number has increased from what was reported in 2015 by 14 churches. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed a decrease of $524,890 in 2016. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $859,352. The West Ohio Advance Specials in 2016 collected a total of $10,876 in gifts. That was a decrease of $9,419 from what was reported in 2015.

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference.

F. RECOMMENDATIONS

Rationale for Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Voted General Conference May 2016

- I. (New ¶ 6) The Constitution contains a paragraph on racial justice but not one on gender justice. The language of this petition is parallel to the language of Article 5 on racial justice already in our Constitution. It is an affirmation that, as part of our core foundational beliefs, this church will forever stand against any actions, organizations or individuals that discriminate or dehumanize women and girls anywhere on this planet.
- II. (¶ 4) Adding “gender” (meaning male and female) to the Constitution affirms and protects The United Methodist Church’s commitment to gender equity throughout our worldwide connection. “Gender” is the disciplinary term for fair treatment of women and men (e.g., ¶16). The addition of the proposed final clause allows gender-specific groups like United Methodist Women and United Methodist Men.
- III. (¶ 34) The provision in ¶ 13. Article I. 2, “Delegates shall be elected in a fair and open process by the annual conferences,” is unduly vague. The addition of this one sentence to paragraph 34 of The Book of Discipline helps clarify that General Conference delegates shall be elected by the body of annual conference instead of simply being appointed by the bishop. Bishops appointing delegates without delegates being properly elected has been a practice in some central conferences.
- IV. (¶ 46) As is the case for the jurisdictions, episcopal elections in the central conferences should be held in the regular sessions of those conferences, except when unexpected vacancies occur because of the death or early retirement of one or more bishops.
- V. (¶ 50) Judicial Decision 475 ruled unconstitutional the Council of Bishops holding its individual members accountable for their work, referencing ¶ 50 of the Constitution. This legislation follows Judicial Decision 1275 requirement of a legislative resolution from General Conference so the Council of Bishops may provide oversight of its members.

Special Note:

ONLY lay members and deacons/elders in full connection can vote on the constitutional amendments.

Proposed Constitutional Amendments

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – I

On May 16, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 746 Yes, 56 No (Calendar Item 121, DCA p. 2106). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In The 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, add a new paragraph between current ¶¶ 5 and 6:

As the Holy Scripture reveals, both men and women are made in the image of God and, therefore, men and women are of equal value in the eyes of God. The United Methodist Church recognizes it is contrary to Scripture and to logic to say that God is male or female, as maleness and femaleness are characteristics of human bodies and cultures, not characteristics of the divine. The United Methodist Church acknowledges the long history of discrimination against women and girls. The United Methodist Church shall confront and seek to eliminate discrimination against women and girls, whether in organizations or in individuals, in every facet of its life and in society at large. The United Methodist Church shall work collaboratively with others to address concerns that threaten the cause of women’s and girl’s equality and well-being.

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, this would become the new ¶6, and the current ¶¶ 6-61 would be renumbered as ¶¶ 7-62.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – II

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 509 Yes, 242 No (Calendar Item 429, DCA p. 2212). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In The 2012 Book of Discipline, Division One, ¶4, Article IV, amend by deletion and addition as follows:

After “all persons” delete “without regard to race, color, national origin, status, or economic condition”. After “because of race, color, national origin,” delete “status,” and add “ability”. At the end of the paragraph, add “nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 4 would read:

The United Methodist Church is part of the church universal, which is one Body in Christ. The United Methodist Church acknowledges that all persons are of sacred worth. All persons shall be eligible to attend its worship services, participate in its programs, receive the sacraments, upon baptism be admitted as baptized members, and upon taking vows declaring the Christian faith, become professing members in any local church in the connection. In the United Methodist church, no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, ability, or economic condition, nor shall any member be denied access to an equal place in the life, worship, and governance of the Church because of race, color, gender, national origin, ability, age, marital status, or economic condition.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – III

In The 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III, (The 2016 Book of Discipline, Division Two, Section VI, ¶ 34, Article III) amend by addition as follows:

After the first sentence, add, “Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 34 would read:

The annual conference shall elect clergy and lay delegates to the General Conference and to its jurisdictional or central conference in the manner provided in this section, Articles IV and V. Such elections shall include open nominations from the floor by the annual conference, and delegates shall be elected by a minimum of a simple majority of the ballots cast. The persons first elected up to the number determined by the ratio for representation in the General Conference shall be representatives in that body. Additional delegates shall be elected to complete the number determined by the ratio for representation in the jurisdictional or central conference, who, together with those first elected as above, shall be delegates in the jurisdictional or central conference. The additional delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference shall in the order of their election be the reserve delegates to the General Conference. The annual conference shall also elect reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conference as it may deem desirable. These reserve clergy and lay delegates to the jurisdictional or central conferences may act as reserve delegates to the General Conference when it is evident that not enough reserve delegates are in attendance at the General Conference.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – IV

On May 20, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 621 Yes, 15 No (Calendar Item 468, DCA p. 2217). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

To the end of the paragraph, add “provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 46 would read:

The bishops shall be elected by the respective jurisdictional and central conferences and consecrated in the historic manner at such time and place as may be fixed by the General Conference for those elected by the jurisdictions and by each central conference for those elected by such central conference, provided that episcopal elections in central conferences shall be held at a regular, not an extra, session of the central conference, except in the case where an unexpected vacancy must be filled.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment – V

On May 17, 2016, at a session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Portland, Oregon, the following Constitutional Amendment was adopted by a recorded vote of 715 Yes, 79 No (Calendar Item 446, DCA p. 2214). It is now presented to the Annual Conferences for vote.

In The 2012 Book of Discipline, Division Three, ¶ 50, Article VI, amend by addition, as follows:

After the last paragraph, add “These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and residents in episcopal areas.”

If voted and so declared by the Council of Bishops, ¶ 50 would read:

The bishops, both active and retired, of The Evangelical United Brethren Church and of The Methodist Church at the time union is consummated shall be bishops of The United Methodist Church.

The bishops of The Methodist Church elected by the jurisdictions, the active bishops of The Evangelical United Brethren Church at the time of union, and bishops elected by the jurisdictions of The United Methodist Church shall have life tenure. Each bishop elected by a central conference of The Methodist Church shall have such tenure as the central conference electing him shall have determined.⁹⁴

The jurisdictional conference shall elect a standing committee on episcopacy to consist of one clergy and one lay delegate from each annual conference, on nomination of the annual conference delegation. The committee shall review the work of the bishops, pass on their character and official administration, and report to the jurisdictional conference its findings for such action as the conference may deem appropriate within its constitutional warrant of power. The committee shall recommend the assignments of the bishops to their respective residences for final action by the jurisdictional conference.

These provisions shall not preclude that adoption by the General Conference of provisions for the Council of Bishops to hold its individual members accountable for their work, both as general superintendents and as presidents and residents in episcopal areas.

2018 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #1

Each year the Annual Conference adopts a Mission and Ministry Funding Plan, also known as a budget. The approved plan sets the Connectional Giving (apportionments) for each of our major areas: General Church, Retiree Health and Other Benefits, Connectional Ministries, and Conference Operations. For 2018, Connectional Ministries and Conference Operations are consolidated into a single fund: Conference Ministries.

Following an assessment of ministry priorities and needs, balanced against those of local churches and the global church, your Conference Council on Finance and Administration unanimously approved the accompanying Recommendation #1. What is included is based on dialogue and decisions of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, the Cabinet (District Superintendents and Conference Senior Staff), the Transformative Discipleship Team and others.

While this narrative explains how the budget supports mission, the Annual Missional Report provides a more comprehensive picture of West Ohio Conference and General Church mission and ministry achievements and priorities. The 2016 Missional Report is distributed at Annual Conference and posted online. The 2016 Missional Report can be found on the Conference website: www.westohioumc.org/missionalreport.

As you review the 2018 plan, please note the following:

- Total recommended apportioned Connectional Giving remains constant at $19.0 million. In addition, districts will cumulatively apportion $3.3 million, the same as for 2017.
- West Ohio intends to continue being among the ranks of Annual Conferences that participate at the 100% level of General Church support, as it has been since 2013.
- The 2017 budget and historical results continued our multi-year effort to fully reflect the financial activity of the Conference.
- Total 2018 Conference Administration and Connectional and Missional Ministries expenses of $9.7 million are projected to be less than the 2016 budget by a combined $0.9 million and $1.3 million less than 2016 actual results; the amount is in line with the 2017 budget. (lines 11 and 12)
- The $3.3 million clergy defined benefit pension fund expense (CRSP-DB) is included in in the 2018 budget, making the cost of the plan more transparent. Until 2016, surplus in the Pre-82 plan had been used to cover this annual expense.
- Staffing levels are consistent with the 2016 and 2017 budgets.
- The budget includes depreciation, including on the Conference Center, which we now own instead of renting from UMCH Family Services.
- Questions about this recommendation and Conference finances in general can be directed to Bill Brownson, Conference CFO, at bbrownson@wocumc.org or by calling 614.844.6200.

Funding Plan Discussion by Section

General Church (lines 26-53 on page 31)

The General Church helps West Ohio Conference churches make a difference in our conference, our nation and around the world. The infrastructure of the General Church allows UMCOR to be among the most effective disaster relief organizations in the world. Through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF), the 13 United Methodist Seminaries, Annual Conferences and individuals receive support for undergraduate, seminary and continuing education opportunities. Episcopal leadership for the Ohio West Area and all over the world is paid with General Church Connectional Giving. These examples only begin to scratch the surface of all of the ministries that happen through, with and because of the General Church. Together, we are stronger.

The 2018 plan apportions nearly $7.0 million to generate $5.0 million needed to resource at 100% the seven General Church funds and agencies (lines 31-37), the North Central Jurisdiction and the Ohio Council of Churches. The assumed collection rate for this fund is 71.6%. If our goal of 100% participation is not met through receipts from local churches, in January 2019 the Council on Finance and Administration will determine how much, if any, will be paid to the General Church to get to 100% participation level.

Retiree Pension, Health & Other Benefits (lines 54-94 beginning on pg 32)

This section is the largest proportion of total resources – more than the other three combined – yet among the apportioned Connectional Giving funds, it utilizes the least amount of apportioned resources. With $1.9 million apportioned and an assumed collection rate of 80.9%, Connectional Giving provides $1.5 million toward total expenses of $17.1 million. The other sources of income are directly-billed pension and health insurance costs and individual donations through the Council on Development.

As noted earlier, the Conference has been accumulating assets in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund for many years. As of December 31, 2015, $46.8 million was designated for clergy benefits, up from $45.0 million in 2015. Although investment income has not historically been budgeted, $0.6 million is budgeted for 2018 (line 56).

At the end of 2016, the retiree healthcare liability was $51.2 million, an increase of $1.5 million over 2015. The liability increase was largely driven by lower interest rates, offset somewhat by flat claims experience (that is, Humana premiums were flat for retirees) (line 65). Adopting a more conservative mortality table (for the second year in row) due to clergy living longer added several million to the liability. Although the liability is not fully backed by Retired Clergy Benefit Fund assets as of December 31, 2016, ($51.2 million liability versus $46.7 million of assets in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund), the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits remains committed to ensuring we have sufficient funds to honor clergy benefit promises.

The next section (lines 59-67) shows the income and expense associated with health care for retirees. Retirees contribute toward the cost of insurance based on years of service at retirement. In the aggregate, 31% of this expense is covered by retirees. Connectional Giving and Council on Development donors cover the remaining expense in this section.

Active Healthcare and Related (lines 68-74) is intended to break even, excluding benefits administration. The Conference now self-funds its active health insurance plan. That means the Conference pays for claims as they are presented. In order to cover the cost of the plan for a full year, the Conference bills local churches a fixed amount on a monthly basis for the lay and clergy persons in the plan. Persons on disability contribute at the same rate as those enrolled in the active plan. The expenses are a projection and will change as the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits goes through its annual review and adopts a plan for 2018. Final local church premiums will be calculated to match estimated 2018 expenses. In 2016, claims expense exceeded directly-billed premium income by more than $0.5 million. Premiums were increased in 2017 so that projected claims will be covered.

The final sub-section of the Benefits budget (lines 75-87) addresses clergy pensions and other non-health care retiree activities. This is the second budget since the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) was adopted in 2007 that reflects funding the annual pension expense with current resources. Until recently, current year pension expenses for the defined benefit portion of the plan (CRSP-DB) have been funded by Pre-82 plan surpluses. The 2018 pension payment due will be $3.3 million. In addition to covering the CRSP-DB liability payment, the amounts directly billed to local churches – projected to be $5.7 million (line 76) – cover the defined contribution portion of the plan (CRSP-DC) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP), which provides for death benefits and income during medical leave.

NOTE: Wespath (formerly General Board of Pension and Health Benefit) has declared a CPP payment holiday for the years of 2018 and 2019. This was done in anticipation of conferences needing to make additional pension funding contributions as a result of expecting clergy to live longer (i.e., they adopted a more conservative mortality table). A similar practice was followed from 2009-2011. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits has directed that we continue directly billing for the CPP expenses as if there were no payment holiday. This action should generate about $1.1 million, all of which will be contributed to and invested in the Retired Clergy Benefit Fund.

All together, clergy benefit costs are expected to be $17.1 million (line 91). This part of the overall Conference budget assumes investment income of $0.6 million from the Clergy Benefit Fund (line 56). At the current market value it would be about 1.2% of the fund. This is the second consecutive year that investment income has been budgeted to cover various clergy benefit expenses. This fund is managed to provide reliable funding for clergy benefits in future years.

Contact Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer and HR Director, at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614.844.6200 with questions about the clergy benefits or this budget area.

Transformative Discipleship Team (Connectional Ministries and Missional Church Development) (lines 96-146, beginning on page 33)

This section of the budget includes $2.6 million from Connectional Giving (line 98). In addition to Connectional Giving, nearly $1.2 million in other resources is anticipated to provide for the offices and programs that fall under The Transformative Discipleship Team.

The work of two key areas is included in this section of the budget: Core Connectional Ministries and Missional Church Development. Camps & Retreats is an integral part of Connectional Ministries, but is shown separately for financial purposes because of its financial significance.

Missional Church Development equips churches seeking revitalization through the Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI), Traction Tracks, and revitalization grants. It also provides leadership on new church development, including identifying and equipping leaders for new churches and providing grant support. Find detail and historical information for this budget on lines 134-141 and its budget lines can be grouped together as:

This includes continued resourcing for Certified Lay Speakers and training of Certified Lay Ministers, providing up to $120,000 in grants to campus ministry sites, and teaming with the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) to secure scholarships for West Ohio undergraduates and seminarians. To become more effective in our mission and justice efforts, Just-Mission will develop a traction track focused on Community Engagement, revise the Volunteers in Mission materials to align with new and emerging understandings of missional engagement, continue development of global partnerships, and assist congregations in welcoming those returning from prison as neighbors. The Diversity & Inclusion Lead Team will increase the capacity of lay and clergy members to navigate cultural differences to build congregations inclusive of our diverse neighbors. This is also the lead team that empowers Hispanic Ministry, which develops the discipleship and leadership of the new generation of Hispanic young people who were primarily born in the United States.

Conference Operations (lines 148-239)

The final major section of the budget is Conference Operations. This includes:

- Episcopal Office Leadership (lines 163-191): Costs associated with district superintendents, Equitable Compensation, Annual Conference Session, staffing and administering the Episcopal Office and other Episcopal initiatives and Communications;

- Office of Ministry and Clergy Leadership (lines 192-203);
- Council on Development (lines 204-213);
- Finance and Administration (lines 214-227);
- Board of Trustees (lines 228-234).

This section of the plan includes $5.3 million in Connectional Giving (line 150), which accounts for 90% of the $5.9 million (line 160) in total budgeted resources.

Episcopal Office Leadership

- The Annual Conference budget (line 165) does not include electronic voting, thereby permitting a reduction from prior year expenses.
- All compensation and benefits for district superintendents, including housing and expense reimbursements, are in the Conference budget and not District budgets (lines 179-184). While Recommendation #1 authorizes an increase in superintendent salaries, that is not a certainty – in 2017 none of the extended cabinet received a pay increase.
- Equitable Compensation (line 185) increases by $44,000, which is less than 2016 but more than the 2017 budget. The policy of guaranteed appointment for elders makes managing this expense difficult.
- Episcopal Office expenses (lines 169-176) cover salary, benefits, housing and other administration expenses. General Church funds cover salary and benefits of our Bishop and about $100,000 in other support.
- Communications (lines 186-190) is the final area that falls under Episcopal Leadership. Expenses associated with Archives & History have been moved to the Board of Trustees to align with Conference rule changes adopted in 2017.
- The 2018 budget for these areas increases about 6% from the 2017 budget but is below the 2016 actual expenses.

The reduction in budgeted expense for the Office of Ministry & Clergy Leadership (lines 192-203) is largely driven by a pause in the Residency Program (line 197). A majority of the expenses in this section of the budget are covered by program income, the Conference’s share of Ministerial Education Fund receipts and Council on Development donors.

Council on Development budget (lines 204-213) reflects resources needed for “Light the Way,” a capital campaign for revitalization and new churches in West Ohio. A relatively small amount of unbudgeted expenses will be covered by COD-designated funds.

Lines 214-227 reflect expenses associated with Finance and Conference Administration. This budget reflects the purchase of the Conference Center from UMCH Family Services. Depreciation and other expenses of ownership will be less than rent, giving rise to an overall reduction in Conference Center expenses. Efficiencies from technology projects are realized in 2017 and 2018. The budget for this area is less than both 2016 actual expenses and 2017 budget.

The Board of Trustees has responsibility for Archives & History (line 229). Although the Trustees will incur other expenses, they are unpredictable and therefore not budgeted. For example, the 2016 Annual Conference passed legislation to sell Camp Asbury for $1. The net loss on undepreciated assets was more than $300,000 (line 231). No revenue is anticipated from closed churches either (line 155). Further, there are no budgeted distributions to missions or districts from closed churches (line 230). It is very likely there will be some distributions as in most years. The amounts, however, are unpredictable and therefore not budgeted.

* 50% of Peace with Justice and Native American Awareness offerings remain in and are applied to ministries of The West Ohio Conference.

 Through the General Board of Higher Education, 10% of United Methodist Student Day offerings are awarded to West Ohio Conference students who apply for and are selected to receive merit-based college scholarships.

Other approved offerings and appeals:

Any Conference-wide appeal by affiliated United Methodist organizations must be approved in advance by the Council on Finance and Administration. All offerings taken at the sessions of the Annual Conference shall be used for missions.

Deadlines:

1. Friday, January 12, 2018: Last day on which the Conference Treasurer's office must receive 2017 apportionment payments.
2. Friday, February 9, 2018: 2017 Annual Statistical Reports (Tables I, II and III) are to be completed online or otherwise sent to the Conference Statistician at the Conference Treasurer's office.

Apportionments:

1. The formula for computing the apportionments for the calendar year 2018 shall be based 1/3 on membership and 2/3 on operational expenses subject to closed, merged, and new churches as reported by the District Superintendents at the time of the computation.
2. The Council on Finance and Administration, using the formula, shall mail apportionments for 2018 to each local church by Friday, September 29, 2017.
3. Each District Superintendent, or a committee appointed by him or her, shall apportion to each church its share of all District apportionments.

Receipts and Payments:

All payments to the Annual Conference and General Church apportionment funds shall be made through and recorded by the Conference Treasurer's office. In addition to apportioned funds, non-apportioned benevolences paid directly by a local church should be reported on Table II of the church's annual statistical report.

Budgets and Reports:

1. The Council on Finance and Administration budget report to the Annual Conference shall include at least the proposed budget, the current budget, the previous year's budget, and actual expenses. The report published in the Journal shall also chart a four-year history of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), Conference Average Compensation (CAC), the Consumer's Price Index (CPI-U), the Grand Total Paid (GTP) by local churches, and the Conference budget.
2. Connectional Ministries and the Missional Church Development Team shall develop and authorize a plan to allocate all Conference Mission and Ministry grant funds prior to release of these funds. This plan shall be made available to the Annual Conference including being posted on the conference web site

Salaries and Travel:

1. The District Superintendents shall be paid in an equitable manner. The base salary component shall not be less than the preceding year's actual salary or more than 1.61 times the preceding year's Conference Average Compensation (CAC). In 2018 the maximum salary is $100,685 (1.61 x 2016 CAC of $62,537) and the minimum is $94,000. The recommended salary is $95,900.
2. The IRS rate for volunteers shall be paid when an expense is vouchered by any board or committee for automobile travel on conference business.
3. The Conference shall reimburse two lay alternate and two clergy alternate delegates to the General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference on the basis of the per diem as set by each.

Miscellaneous:

1. Lay and clergy directories shall be published annually in the Journal. Electronic database versions of these directories are for the exclusive use of the Conference councils, boards, and committees for their specific ministries. The directory database shall not be sold or loaned to individuals, groups, or commercial organizations or otherwise made available in a form that facilitates direct solicitation of clergy and lay members by such individuals or organizations.
2. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration through the Conference Treasurer's office shall send at least annually to each pastor and local church treasurer information that may be helpful to their financial operations. This may include tax, legal, stewardship, and fiduciary responsibility bulletins.
3. Effective July 1, 2007, local church/charges, member, or constituents of a local church/charge shall not make a loan or a grant to a clergy person. When a local church, its members or constituents, acts as a banker to its pastor, the dynamics of the relationship between the pastor and the congregation are very likely to be changed and may adversely affect the ministry of both congregation and pastor

RECOMMENDATION #2Commission on Equitable Compensation*Adopted

Ministry is traditionally supported by the body of Christ, especially in the local community where ministry happens. The United Methodist expression of the body of Christ is the connectional system. Through it, we share in the missional ministries of the West Ohio Conference. United Methodist clergy are called and sent by God to serve in a variety of ministry settings.

Through the distribution of designated Conference funds, the Equitable Compensation Commission seeks to support the Annual Conference through the Cabinet's appointment of transformational leadership in strategic appointments to further the mission of Christ.

Guidelines and Recommendations

The Commission presents the following guidelines and recommendations for calendar year 2018 with consideration of the projected General Board of Pensions Conference Average Compensation (C.A.C.) of $62,537 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided).

A. Minimum Salary

Recommended Minimum Salaries	2018*	2017
Elder in full-time appointment; Full-member deacon in full-time appointment in a local church	$40,900	$40,500
Provisional on elder track in full-time appointment; Provisional on deacon track in full-time appointment in a local church; Associate member in full-time appointment	$37,075	$36,700
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment who has completed the Course of Study or equivalent	$35,750	$35,400
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment	$33,850	$33,500

*The average increase for the 2018 minimum salary recommendation is 1%, while in 2017 the average increase was 2%.

1. Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than fulltime service under the provisions of paragraph 338.2 of The 2016 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.
- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track appointed beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.
- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference, and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/racial considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its pastor shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require pastoral leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides pastoral support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long term minimum salary support by:

1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the pastor of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.

2. Limiting the maximum number years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per pastor or church Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year
 3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan
 4. Being aware that churches or charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time pastor, or to realign the charge
 5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and pastors, that total ministerial support includes items beyond cash salary, such as accountable reimbursements, housing, utilities, pension benefits and health insurance.
- E. It is the responsibility of the pastor of any church not receiving agreed upon compensation from the church during a calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier of March 15th of the next year; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under Discipline ¶ 342.4 once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such pastor.
- F. The commission recognizes that clergy compensation contributes to pastoral morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all persons, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and pastors.

Introduction to Board of Pension and Health Benefits

This year's recommendation from the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is largely consistent with those of past years.

Specific items of note in this year's recommendation, which become effective in January 2018 include:

- In addition to full-time appointments, West Ohio will continue to include clergy serving ½ and ¾ time in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the denomination's pension plan for clergy. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #2)
- Clergy must contribute at least 1% of plan compensation to their United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) to receive the 1% match to the defined contribution portion of the CRSP. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #5)
- For the Pre-82 clergy pension plan, the past service rate (PSR) will remain at $599. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #7)
- Local churches will continue to be billed directly for clergy pension costs. The billing rate will remain at 11% of plan compensation (cash salary and housing) for the CRSP defined benefit portion of the plan, capped at DAC (Denominational Average Compensation). (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #5)
- Retiree housing allowance exclusion will remain unchanged.

Questions about this recommendation can be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200.

2018 Board of Pension and Health Benefits

Adopted

Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to the Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain a pension program for the benefit of the ordained ministers and their families, other church workers, and lay employees (§1501). As a part of those plans (as approved by the General Conference) participation by full-time ordained ministers is required. The Discipline does not give permission for a local church to deny payment of the pension benefits for any pastor appointed to that charge. Such payments are part of the total obligations of receiving the appointment of a pastor.
2. The 2012 General Conference made Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) eligibility optional for Annual Conferences for those clergy with less than full-time appointments. Upon a thorough review the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits approved the continued CRSP eligibility of three-quarter and one-half time appointments effective January 1, 2014. The Board affirms this recommendation for 2018.
3. Licensed local pastors (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if the pastor is appointed less than full-time and is receiving, or is eligible to receive, a pension from other employment. Provisional elders and deacons and full elders and deacons (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if they are appointed half time or less and are receiving, or eligible to receive, a pension from other employment. To waive participation, the pastor must complete, have notarized, and return a "Waiver of Participation", which is supplied by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The Plan Compensation shall include salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided.
5. The contribution rate for funding the Comprehensive Retirement Security Program (CRSP) will be billed in two parts; the Defined Benefit (DB) portion shall not exceed 11% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)¹. The DAC for 2018 is $70,202. The rate for funding of the Defined Contribution (DC) portion shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation. (The participant must be enrolled and making a minimum of 1% United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) contribution to have the full 3% credit to CRSP-DC.) Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
6. The contribution rate for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation for all full-time or three-quarter time appointments for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors. Contributions will be paid monthly by each charge for their pastor or pastors. The West Ohio Conference, acting as an agent of Wespath, shall be responsible for the collection of these funds. Because each full-time or three-quarter time appointment for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors must be part of the CPP, it is the obligation of each local church to pay this cost. Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
7. The base annuity rate for 2018 on Pre-82 pensions will be increased based on the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers (CPI-U) as reported on a yearly basis. Though set annually, it is expected the Past Service Rate (PSR) will increase with inflation. The PSR for 2018 will remain at $599. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Each eligible clergy member and local pastor is encouraged to contribute at least 3% of his or her plan compensation to the UMPIP. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.
10. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the pension package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact his or her District Superintendent.
11. A Death Benefit of $50,000 is part of the CPP death benefits. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and full-time licensed local clergypersons.

Health Care Benefits

1. Active Pastors: Eligibility

- a. Each charge shall fund health insurance for its eligible pastors and families through the West Ohio Conference program. The following chart shows who shall be covered and who has responsibility for payment of premiums.

Status	Coverage	Premium Payment
Full Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Provisional Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Associate Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Full-time Local Pastor	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Part-time Local Pastor	Optional	Subject to District Superintendent and local church approval

- b. Pastors under full-time appointment to West Ohio Conference local churches, District Offices or Conference Office will participate in the Conference health insurance plan. If such pastors have duplicate coverage through a spouse's employment, have access to military coverage or prior employer insurance they may use those plans. A written waiver is required to use other insurance.
 - i. Should a church provide compensation to pastors that opt out of the Conference plan, care should be taken not to violate employer payment plan rules, the violation of which could subject the church to financial penalties. Clergy opting out of the West Ohio Conference health insurance plan for any other reason must do so in writing and the decision is irrevocable: he or she will be prohibited from accessing a West Ohio Conference active or retiree health plan in the future.
- c. If a pastor is a participant in the West Ohio Conference health insurance program and receives medical leave through CPP, the health insurance will continue. A pastor who has opted out of the Conference health insurance plan may be approved for medical leave, but he or she will not have access to a West Ohio Conference health insurance plan.
- d. A pastor serving in active full-time ministry beyond his/her 65th birthday will remain on the Conference health insurance plan, which will be the primary carrier.
- e. If one in an active clergy couple dies, the appointment of the surviving spouse will be responsible for health insurance as an active participant and responsible for payment of premium.
- f. Surviving spouses and qualified dependents of deceased clergy previously serving in an active appointment will pay 25% of the premium cost of the policy in use for the 24 months following the clergy's date of death. Thereafter, access will be based on years of service consistent with the premium sharing available to retirees.
- g. Annual premium levels will be set by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

2. Retired Pastors, Surviving Spouses, Medical Leave participants

Eligibility: When a pastor retires under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b or ¶358.2c health insurance is available to the pastor, spouse, and eligible dependents.

- a. Upon retirement at age 65 or thereafter, the pastor and spouse (at age 65) are responsible for enrolling in Part A and B of Medicare. Those having opted out of Social Security will not have access to West Ohio Conference retiree (over 65 years) insurance.
- b. Surviving spouses of pastors will pay a portion of their premiums based on the number of years of service for the deceased clergy member. Premiums will be applied to type of policy used.
 - i. Retired clergy or surviving spouses who remarry will not have access to Conference insurance for a new dependent.
- c. The retiree's premium cost shall be applied to the health insurance policy that is in effect at the time of retirement.
- d. Premium contributions shall be collected monthly by Automated Clearing House (ACH) transaction from a bank account designated by the retiree.
- e. Pastors who transfer from an Episcopal appointment in another United Methodist Conference to an Episcopal appointment in the West Ohio Conference where the Conference has pension responsibility will be granted years of service from previous conferences.

3. Other Health Care Provisions

- a. All full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees of the West Ohio Conference and its District Offices will have access to health insurance under the same provisions as active and retired clergy.
- b. Any participant who terminates employment may continue their health insurance for up to 12 months at his or her own expense. The participant's payment for insurance will continue through the former local church to the Conference until coverage is terminated or 12 months pass, whichever occurs first.
- c. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be empowered to select the carrier, set the premium rate, and adjust benefits and method of funding the total health insurance program in a manner that is deemed appropriate and equitable for both local churches and participants in the program.

- d. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall extend an invitation to the Board of Ministry to review and comment on material changes in the Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommendation to Annual Conference at least 30 days prior to Annual Conference.

General

1. A moving reimbursement (receipt(s) of cost) of up to $3,500 is paid to each full-time and three-quarter time clergy household of the retiring class and each member accepting medical leave and the families of active full-time members in the event of the death of the member, provided they have not previously had a move reimbursed and provided they have been a participating member in the Conference Pension Program for the last five years prior to retirement.
2. The total requested apportioned expense presented to CFA for 2018 is $1,866,000. Final apportioned expense is subject to the budget adopted by Annual Conference. This amount covers benefits administration, retiree moving reimbursements, health, dental and vision premiums, and costs associated with personal and medical leaves.
3. The church from which the pastor is moving will pay pension payments for pastors moving at conference time for the whole month of June. Payments for new pastors will begin on the first of the month following the appointment.
4. All churches shall be encouraged to include eligible full-time church lay employees in the Lay Pension Benefits program offered by Wespath. ¶258.2g (12)
5. On May 31, 2017, the West Ohio Conference received a favorable opinion regarding its 2018 Comprehensive Funding Plan from Wespath, located in Glenview, Illinois, which became an annual requirement because of 2012 General Conference legislation.

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Ohio Conference

The West Ohio Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

Whereas the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergy"), and

Whereas the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergy with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation, and

Whereas pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergy are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergy in consideration of previous active service, and

Whereas the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergy who are or were members of this Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) during the year 2018 by each retired or disabled Clergy who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy; and Therefore, be it resolved that pension or disability payments to which rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans and/or annuities from funds authorized under the Discipline. This may include payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline. Those payments may result from any service a Clergy rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergy of this Conference rendered to:

- any local church
- annual conference of the Church
- general agency of the Church
- other institution of the Church
- former denomination that is now a part of the Church
- any other employer

that employed the Clergy to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergy's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

RECOMMENDATION #4We Are All God's Children*Adopted

Whereas Jesus commends Christians who welcome the stranger, saying that in doing so we are welcoming him (Matthew 25:31-46);

Whereas the United Methodist Discipline urges United Methodists to (1) "recognize the gifts, contributions, and struggles of those who are immigrants and to advocate for justice for all," and furthermore asserts (2) "the right of all religions and their adherents to freedom from legal, economic, and social discrimination" (UMC Book of Discipline, 2016 – "The Social Principles" Paragraph 162, Sections B & H);

And whereas the President of the United Methodist Council of Bishops, Bruce R. Ough, made this statement on January 30th, 2017: "When we abandon strangers who are at risk of bigotry, xenophobia and violence we not only destroy their hope, we destroy our own souls. When we fail to assist the refugees fleeing danger, we not only place them in harm's way, we do harm to our own souls. When we build walls of concrete, or walls of divisive rhetoric, or walls of fear, or walls of immoral immigration policies, we build a wall around our own souls";

And whereas the 2016 General Conference of the United Methodist Church has affirmed this statement: "We call upon all United Methodist churches to welcome newly arriving migrants in their communities, to love them as we do ourselves, to treat them as one of our native-born, to see in them the presence of the incarnated Jesus, and to show hospitality to the migrants in our midst, believing that through their presence we are receiving the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ," and likewise asks that United Methodists "provide wherever possible pastoral care and crisis intervention to refugees." (Welcoming the Migrant to the United States, UMC Book of Resolutions, 2016, #3281);

And whereas the 2016 General Conference has affirmed this statement on the use of local law enforcement as immigration agents: "When local law enforcement officials engage in immigration enforcement, migrants are often unwilling to report crimes and are forced to live in situations where they are exploited, abused, and victimized" (Welcoming the Migrant to the United States, UMC Book of Resolutions, 2016, #3281);

And whereas the 2016 General Conference of the United Methodist Church has affirmed that "the intent in developing interreligious relationships is not to amalgamate all faiths into one religion" but rather to "overcome our fears and misapprehensions"; and with particular regard to Arabs and Muslims, calls on us to "oppose demagoguery, manipulation, and image making that seeks to label Arabs and Muslims in a negative way"; and with regard to Jewish neighbors calls on us to "oppose forcefully anti-Jewish acts and rhetoric that persist in the present time in many places" ("Guidelines for Interreligious Relationships," UMC Book Of Resolutions 2016, #3141; "United Methodist Guiding Principles for Christian-Jewish Relations," UMC Book Of Resolutions, 2016 #162b);

Therefore, be it resolved that the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church affirms the human rights of all migrants, immigrants, refugees and foreign students and others on extended visas to the United States, and through its offices and congregations will seek to provide opportunities for such persons to attain legal status if they so desire;

Be it further resolved that the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church will make it a priority to actively oppose xenophobic, racist, anti-Semitic, anti-Christian, and anti-Muslim threats against all persons within our communities, and will support efforts to build relationships among people of diverse ethnicities, religions and cultures;

Be it further resolved that the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church will as a body call on governmental leaders to cease all arrests, detainment, and deportations of persons in contravention of civil immigration laws who do not pose a threat to their community until a fair and comprehensive immigration reform is passed;

Be it further resolved that the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church will as a body call on the governmental leaders not to place restrictions on immigration based solely on a religious test, and likewise support all efforts to protect the lives and property of religious minorities within our borders.

Be it further resolved that the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church's convictions on the aforementioned matters be conveyed to our local congregations, as well as our local, state and federal government representatives, in a manner deemed appropriate by our bishop.

RECOMMENDATION #4

Todos Somos Hijos de Dios

Por cuanto Jesús nos encomendó a los cristianos a que recibieramos al extranjero, diciendo que al hacer esto, lo estamos recibiendo a El mismo (Mateo 25: 31-46);

Por cuanto la Disciplina de la Iglesia Metodista Unida urge a los Metodistas Unidos a (1) "reconocer los dones, contribuciones, y luchas de aquellos que son migrantes y de apoyar y luchar por la justicia para todos", y más aún, afirma (2) "el derecho de todas las religiones y sus seguidores de ser libres de toda discriminación de tipo legal, económico y social. (Libro de la Disciplina, Iglesia Metodista Unida, 2016 – "Los Principios Sociales", párrafo 162, Secciones B y H).

Y por cuanto el Presidente del Concilio de Obispos de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, Bruce R. Ough, hizo esta declaración el 30 de enero, 2017: "Cuando abandonamos al extranjero que está en riesgo de intolerancia, xenofobia y violencia no solamente destruimos su esperanza, destruimos nuestras propias almas. Cuando fallamos en ayudar a los refugiados que escapan del peligro, no solamente los ponemos en situaciones de riesgo, le hacemos daño a nuestras propias almas. Cuando construimos muros de concreto, o muros de retórica que divide, o muros de temor, o muros de políticas migratorias inmorales, estamos construyendo un muro alrededor de nuestras propias almas."

Y por cuanto la Conferencia General en 2016 de la Iglesia Metodista Unida ha afirmado lo siguiente: "Nosotros llamamos a todas las Iglesias Metodistas Unidas a recibir a migrantes recién llegados en sus comunidades, a amarlos así como nos amamos a nosotros mismos, a tratarlos a ellos así como tratamos a los que nacen aquí, a ver en ellos la presencia del Jesús encarnado, y mostrar hospitalidad a los migrantes en nuestro medio, creyendo que por medio de su presencia estamos recibiendo las buenas nuevas del Evangelio de Jesucristo", y de igual manera pide a los Metodistas Unidos "proveer a los refugiados todo el cuidado pastoral e intervención en crisis posible." (Recibiendo al migrante a los Estados Unidos, Libro de Resoluciones de la IMU, 2016, # 3281).

Y por cuanto la Conferencia General de 2016 ha afirmado lo siguiente respecto al uso de las fuerzas locales del orden público como agentes de inmigración: “Cuando agentes del orden público locales se involucran en poner en vigor asuntos de inmigración, los migrantes por lo general no quieren informar crímenes o delitos y están forzados a vivir en situaciones donde son explotados, abusados y victimizados.” (Recibiendo al migrante a los Estados Unidos, Libro de Resoluciones de la IMU, 2016, # 3281).

Y por cuanto la Conferencia General de 2016 de la Iglesia Metodista Unida ha afirmado que “la intención en desarrollar relaciones interreligiosas no es para amalgamar todos los credos de fe en una sola religión, sino de “superar nuestros temores y aprehensiones” y en particular respecto a los Arabes y Musulmanes, nos llama a “oponernos a la demagogia, manipulación, y la creación de imagen que busca ponerle una etiqueta negativa a los Arabes y Musulmanes”; y respecto a los vecinos judíos, nos llama a “oponernos enérgicamente a actos y retórica anti-judía que persiste en el presente en muchos lugares. (Guías para las Relaciones Interreligiosas”, IMU Libro de Resoluciones 2016, #3141; “Principios Metodistas Unidos que Guían las Relaciones Judeo-Cristianas” IMU Libro de Resoluciones 2016 # 16b).

Por tanto, resuélvase que la Conferencia de Ohio del Oeste de la Iglesia Metodista Unida afirma los derechos humanos de todos los migrantes, inmigrantes, refugiados y estudiantes extranjeros con visas extendidas en los Estados Unidos de América, y a través de sus oficinas y congregaciones buscará proveer oportunidades para estas personas para obtener estatus legal si ellos así lo desean;

Resuélvase también que la Conferencia de Ohio del Oeste de la Iglesia Metodista Unida hará una prioridad el oponerse activamente a las amenazas xenofóbicas, racistas, anti-semíticas, anti-Cristianos y anti-musulmanas en contra de las personas en esas comunidades, y apoyará los esfuerzos para construir relaciones entre personas de diversas etnias, religiones y culturas;

Resuélvase también que la Conferencia de Ohio del Oeste de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, como un cuerpo, llamará al gobierno de los Estados Unidos de América a cesar los arrestos, detenciones y deportaciones de personas que no cumplen con las leyes civiles de inmigración que no presentan un riesgo a su comunidad, hasta tanto una reforma migratoria abarcadora y completa sea aprobada;

Resuélvase también que la Conferencia de Ohio del Oeste de la Iglesia Metodista Unida, como un cuerpo, llamará al gobierno de los Estados Unidos de América a no poner restricciones en la migración basada únicamente en una prueba religiosa, y de igual forma, apoya todos los esfuerzos para proteger las vidas y la propiedad de las minorías religiosas dentro de nuestras fronteras.

Resuélvase también que las convicciones de la Conferencia de Ohio del Oeste de la Iglesia Metodista Unida en los asuntos arriba expresados les sean comunicados a las congregaciones locales, así como a nuestros representantes Estatales y Federales, en la manera que nuestro Obispo estime apropiada.

VIII. FINANCIAL REPORTS

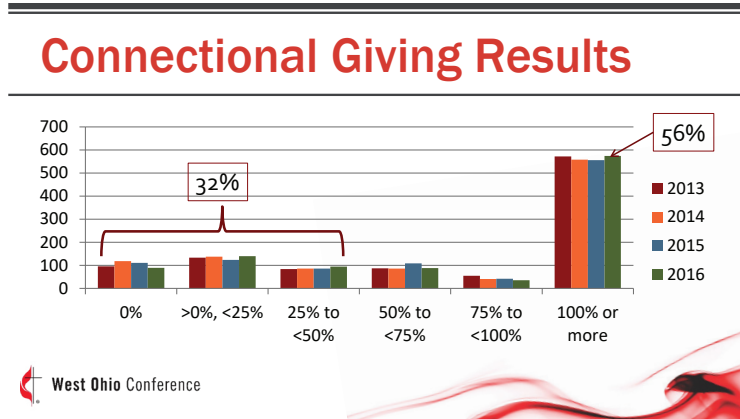

A. CFO REPORT

Monday Afternoon, June 5, approximately 2:50 PM
 Follows CFA Chair, Christine Clough

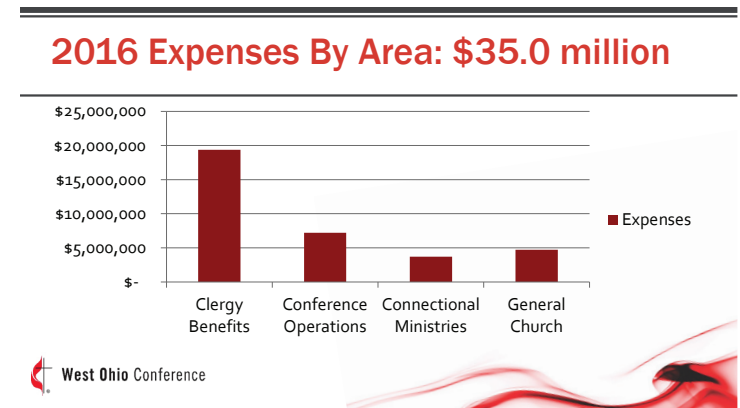

Thank you, Chris, for the introduction. If there's a report at annual conference where you'd expect to hear and see a lot of numbers, this is it. And, yes, I will share a lot of data. As I'm doing so, please remember that behind every number is a person, a life changed, and an opportunity to change even more lives and communities.

A review of 2016 results is a good jumping off point for a conversation about where we're going.

- We remain stuck when it comes to Connectional giving, which is the primary funding mechanism for the work of the church.

- o In the aggregate, we received 75% of what we apportioned, which puts us near the bottom of all annual conferences. That means the 574 churches that participated at the 100% level make up for the those that don't, including 90 that paid zero. This is not sustainable over the long term. From my chair, there is nothing more critical than improving on that number: not so we can spend more but so can more fairly spread around what is spent. Chris shared a few minutes ago about the plans for working with those churches that are participating at or under a 50% threshold. I pray for the success of these efforts,
- o I do want to give a special shout out to the churches of the Capitol Area North District, led by superintendent Linda Middelberg, which has the highest support level among all districts at over 90%,

- On the expense side, we did pretty well versus budget at the departmental level. Nevertheless, there were some expenses that were not budgeted, including:
 - o A $322,000 loss on sale of Camp Asbury, as this body approved selling it for a dollar last year,
 - o A $1.5 million increase in our retiree health care plan liability,
 - o We spent $3.4 million on our 2016 pension expenses because there was no surplus in our pre-82 plan,
 - o Despite what seem like astronomically high health insurance premiums, we didn't collect enough to cover our actual expenses, which we must as a self-insured plan.
- The good news is solid investment returns offset a good amount of these expense variances.

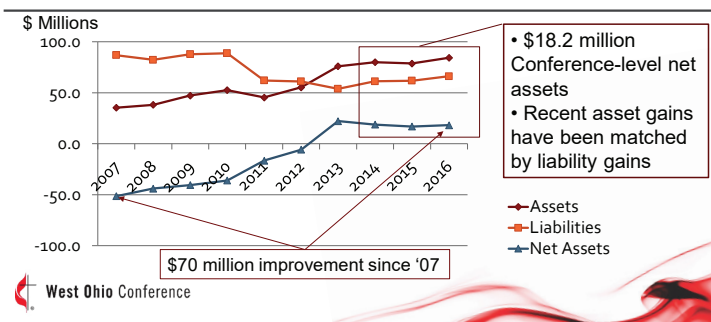

Clergy Benefit Funding Levels (WOC)

	Assets	Liabilities	Surplus (Deficit)	Funded %
Wespath-Pre-82	$78.0	$(77.8)	$0.2	100.25%
Wespath-MPP Annuities	$129.5	$(123.1)	$6.4	105.18%
Wespath-CRSP	$48.3	$(44.9)	$3.4	107.60%
Total Wespath-Pension	$255.9	$(245.9)	$10.0	104.06%
West Ohio-Retiree Health	$46.8	$(51.2)	$(4.3)	-91.56%
Total Pension & Health	$302.7	$(297.0)	$5.7	101.91%

West Ohio Conference

- From a financial perspective, clergy benefits dominate our total financial picture. As you can see on this slide, our liabilities for all pension plans and our retiree health plan exceed $300 million and all-in we're funded at about 102%, which is very good. You can also see in the lower right-hand corner of this slide that our funding level for retiree health care has fallen to 91%. The funding level should improve in the coming couple of years. If it doesn't, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will need to make adjustments to the retiree plan to better match assets and liabilities.
- It's worth noting that because you're living longer new mortality tables have been used in our valuations and have likely added about $30 million or 10% to liabilities in recent years, more than offsetting investment gains. All in all, these numbers represent very generous plans and to be funded at this level is quite an accomplishment.

Balance Sheet is Sound

At the conference level, our balance sheet remains sound with $18.2 million in net assets. Our districts in the aggregate have another $18.2 in net assets for a total of $36.4 million. As you can see, this is a dramatic improvement, $70 million, since 2007. The marked change in 2012 is a result of redirecting surplus from our share of the Pre-82 plan to better fund the Conference retiree health care liability.

Another measure of balance sheet strength is unrestricted net assets which stand at $25.5 million with $13.8 million associated with districts and $11.7 million the conference. Our balance sheet is sound.

- Connectional giving or apportionment results through May are behind where we were last year by $190,000 and behind our budget. If this doesn't improve actions to constrain spending to below budget will be taken.
- Through April, however, our expenses for Connectional Ministries and Conference Administration are running enough below budget that even with below plan income, we're running a slight surplus.
- Unfortunately, even with the health insurance premiums we assess for those on the Aetna plan, we're materially underwater 1/3 of the way through the year. Our premiums are not working out to be high enough to cover our claims.
- Fortunately, we're enjoying another good market for investment returns.

- Turning to the 2018 budget recommendation, which is detailed in your Book of Reports, the Connectional giving request is the same at $19 million for the general church and conference and $3.3 million through district apportioned connectional giving for a total of $22.3 million.

- While it's similar to 2016 and 2017 in several ways, here's how it's different:
 - o We're counting on resources from the "Light the Way" campaign to fund new and revitalizing churches,
 - o We'll spend less on occupancy as a result of finalizing the purchase of the Conference Center,
 - o Other savings will be realized from recently completed IT-related projects.

- Our budgets and financial statements represent more than just numbers on a page.
 - o Did you know that tomorrow's commissioning and ordination class is the largest in several years? The budget provides for continued training and support for these clergy as well as those already ordained and those still working toward that,
 - o North Katanga, our partner conference in the Democratic Republic of the Congo has a newly elected bishop, Bishop Mande, the first bishop who is a graduate of Africa University, an institution of higher learning you make possible along with many others,
 - o Several thousand mostly youth and young adult lives will be touched by camping and retreat experiences,
 - o Good, affordable retiree health care is made possible for long-serving retired clergy and their spouses,
 - o And about $1.5 million will go directly to churches and clergy in the form of grants for things such as revitalization, starting new churches, Hispanic Ministry support, clergy minimum compensation support, campus ministries and emergency support for pastors,
 - o And if you listen and watch closely throughout our time together here at Lakeside, you'll see many more ways in which together we're changing lives every day,
 - o This budget represents an opportunity to continue changing lives.

In closing, I choose to believe that our church will find a way forward and that we will continue to change lives and communities. If that's our future, we must continue to put ourselves in a position to do just that by funding our programs, grants and administrative ministries this year and beyond. Please don't sit on the sidelines with either your energy or your finances. Join us by participating fully in this connection called The United Methodist Church.

B. 2018 MISSION AND MINISTRY FUNDING PLAN

The West Ohio Annual Conference Budget will significantly rely on receipts from Connectional Giving apportioned to 3 funds. This is a change from prior years when 12 funds were apportioned. All General Church funds, the North Central Jurisdiction and the Ohio Council of Churches are combined into one fund. Clergy Benefits remains its own fund. Connectional Ministries and Conference Operations are combined into one fund named Conference Ministries.

Although fewer funds will be apportioned, receipts on those funds will be allocated proportionally according to the detailed budget. General Church funds cannot be used by the Annual Conference for any purpose and will be forwarded pro rata to the General Church within 30 days of receipt. The Board of Pension and Health Benefits directs its funds toward clergy benefits and related missional needs. The Conference Ministries Fund resources Connectional Ministries and Conference Operations, both of which will be used at the direction of the West Ohio Annual Conference under the oversight of its various boards and committees.

The detailed budget and past results format presented by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration show all resources in a unified format, including those expected from apportioned Connectional Giving. This budget continues our practice of full transparency and completeness of information.

The total amount of apportioned Connectional Giving in 2018 will be $19,000,000, which is allocated among the four major areas as summarized below.

C. AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees
West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2016, and the related consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates is the sole member of Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio. In our opinion, accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that all majority-owned subsidiaries be accounted for as consolidated subsidiaries. If the financial statements of Charitable Pharmacy, had been consolidated with those of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates, total assets and total liabilities would be increased by $3,378,795 and $143,932, respectively, as of December 31, 2016, and revenues and expenses would be increased by $5,017,117 and $2,242,937, respectively, for the year then ended.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effects of not consolidating all majority-owned subsidiaries, as discussed in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the consolidated financial statements referred to in the first paragraph present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates as of December 31, 2016, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Change in Accounting Principle

As discussed in Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements, management changed how the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates accounts for activity resulting from church closings. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 23 to 28 is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and it is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the consolidating information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2016

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and health care programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

The more than 1,000 member churches are organized into eight districts. The Conference is legally the sole member of each of the eight districts included in these consolidated financial statements. The eight districts are:

- Capitol Area North (CAN)
- Capitol Area South (CAS)
- Foothills (FTH)
- Maumee Watershed (MWD)
- Miami Valley (MIV)
- Northwest Plains (NWP)
- Ohio River Valley (ORV)
- Shawnee Valley (SHV)

Because of the control exercised by the Conference over the Community Ministries of the Capitol Area (CAM), that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements. The Conference is legally the sole member of Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, however the Conference has elected to not consolidate the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio into the Conference's consolidated financial statements.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Under GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

Temporarily restricted net assets - Net assets that are limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets - Net assets that are limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as temporarily restricted. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as temporarily restricted. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be reported as permanently restricted. Permanently restricted net assets represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Unrestricted net assets include unrestricted resources, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification to net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents excludes the cash components of investments.

The Conference and Affiliates maintain financial relationships with financial institutions subject to FDIC or NCUA membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. To mitigate the risk associated with deposits in excess of insured limits, management has certain deposit balances swept nightly into a short-term government obligations fund. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $4.8 million at December 31, 2016.

Accounts receivable and revenue

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Requests for apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue during the year based on actual funds received. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

Medical Coverage Insurance - The Conference operates a medical coverage plan covering eligible lay employees, eligible clergy employees, eligible retired clergy of the Conference, and member churches. Medical coverage premiums are collected from member churches and retirees monthly. Revenue is recognized upon receipt of payment. As such, no receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts. To the extent that premium costs exceed funding provided by a member church, the Conference pays for the coverage.

Camp Operations - The Conference operates several camps throughout its region. Camp sessions primarily occur in the summer. Revenue is recorded in the month that registrations and payments are received in advance of the camp session. As such, no receivables are recorded. Any revenue collected in the current year pertaining to a camp session for the next year is recognized as deferred revenue.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Fees are recorded as revenue when received and are due in advance of the session or trip. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Unrealized and realized gains or losses are included in the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets. See Notes 4 and 6.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2016.

The Conference holds approximately 1,200 acres of land related to its camps that were donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Conference is holding 9 properties for resale at December 31, 2016. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Trustees, or Council on Development). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the Conference, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives.

Contributions

The Conference accounts for contributions in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Donor contributions are recognized as revenue when the contribution is pledged or received and are recorded as unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted support, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, temporarily restricted net assets are released to unrestricted net assets, and reported in the statement of activities and changes in net assets as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any temporarily restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as temporarily restricted net assets originally, and then released to unrestricted net assets in the same year. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair market value at the date of the gift. All unconditional promises to give made by the Conference are recorded as liabilities.

Income and property taxes

The Conference is a nonprofit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for unrelated business income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2016. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

Accounting for uncertainty in income taxes

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2016.

Life annuity gifts

The Council on Development (COD) receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds, and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

Subsequent events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through May 30, 2017, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

2. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN RECEIVABLES

The Conference conducts fundraising activities on an ongoing basis and some of those efforts result in multi-year promises to give. Pledges are recorded at their estimated fair value using discount rates ranging from 5.20% to 6.17%. Pledge campaign receivables at December 31:

Pledges due in:
Less than one year	$	74,375
One to five years		35,000
More than five years		210,000
		319,375
Less discount to present value		(160,186)
	$	159,189

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference and Districts provide loans to member churches for purposes of providing a source of funds to pay for renovation projects or new construction. Payments are due either on a monthly or quarterly basis, or in a lump sum upon completion of project construction. Interest charged may be at a rate of Prime (3.75% at December 31, 2016) plus 2.00%, the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) (0.77% at December 31, 2016) plus 0.90%, a fixed rate ranging from 2.25% to 5.00%, or be interest free. The payment terms range from due upon project completion up to 17 years.

Notes receivable are considered delinquent if required payments are not made; however, loans are not charged incremental interest or penalty fees provided foreclosure of property does not occur. Based on this practice, despite loans made to churches closely related to the Conference, there is a certain level of credit risk that may become significant.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. Based on collection activity and known financial status of the church, an allowance may be recorded. The allowance for uncollectible notes receivable was $27,865 at December 31, 2016.

Maturities of notes receivable over the subsequent five years and thereafter are as follows:

Year ending December 31
	2017	$	54,221
	2018		58,709
	2019		57,747
	2020		47,553
	2021		22,231
	Thereafter		28,865
		$	269,326

4. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following at December 31, 2016:

Money market	$	2,536,138
Government obligations		3,362,765
Corporate securities		7,974,960
Common stock		27,776,579
Mutual funds		41,210,378
Certificates of deposit		2,575,234

5. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN PERPETUAL TRUSTS

ORV is the beneficiary of two perpetual trusts. The trusts' assets are not in possession of the District and are administered by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Under the terms of the trusts, ORV has the irrevocable right to receive income earned on the endowment assets in perpetuity. ORV has recorded an asset titled "beneficial interest in perpetual trusts" equivalent to the present value of the expected future cash flows from the trusts, approximated by the estimated fair market value of the trusts' assets.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2016.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts: Valued at the net asset value of shares held attributable to the Conference at year-end.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2016:

	2016
	Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Assets
Investments
Money market	2,536,138	2,536,138	-	-
Certificates of deposit	2,575,234	2,575,234	-	-
Government obligations	3,362,765	3,362,765	-	-
Common stock	27,776,579	27,776,579	-	-
Mutual funds	41,210,378	41,210,378	-	-
Corporate securities	7,974,960	7,974,960	-	-
	$ 86,027,686	85,436,054	-	591,632

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2016. Property held for sale is valued at $333,322 as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Changes in the fair value of properties held for sale and beneficial interest in perpetual trusts, which are measured on a recurring and nonrecurring basis using significant unobservable (Level 3) inputs, for 2016:

	Recurring Beneficial Interest in Perpetual Trust	Nonrecurring Property Held for Sale
Balance as of December 31, 2015 (restated, see Note 16)	$ 629,153	1,897,603
Fair market value of churches acquired	-	485,887
Sale of property held for resale	-	(1,375,168)
Assets placed in use, subject to depreciation	-	(675,000)
Change in beneficial interest in perpetual trust, held at year end	(37,521)	-
Balance as of December 31, 2016	$ 591,632	333,322

On March 21, 2009, SHV contributed $165,000 towards a church building project in Ho Chi Mihn City in support of the ministry of The United Methodist Church in Vietnam. The property is reflected at the amount of funds contributed by SHV, and is included in net property and equipment in the consolidated statement of financial position. It is the intention of SHV to donate the property to the Vietnamese Conference of The United Methodist Church upon the legal establishment and recognition of that entity. SHV has determined that the net realizable value is zero and has fully reserved this property. There has been no change to the reserve at December 31, 2016.

Several districts have acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the relevant district determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

7. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

ORV maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (2.00% at December 31, 2016). The assets of the District are pledged as collateral.

ORV is guarantor on the commercial loan of a local church in that district. At December 31, 2016, the outstanding balance on the loan was $1.3 million, for which ORV may be immediately liable if the church defaults on the loan or files a bankruptcy petition. The loan balance is due before March 1, 2023, and ORV may be released from the guarantee prior to that time, provided certain terms of the guarantee are met. The local church was current on the loan at December 31, 2016, and management does not expect to be required to perform on the guarantee. Accordingly, no related liability is recorded in these consolidated financial statements.

8. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment consisted of the following as of December 31, 2016:

Land and improvements	$	935,859
Buildings and building improvements		5,637,945

9. OPERATING LEASES

The Conference leases administrative office space under a 15-year non-cancelable operating lease, which expires in September 2025 from UMCH Family Services, a related party. The lease requires monthly payments of approximately $20,000 for the remaining lease term. There was no amount due to this related party at December 31, 2016. The lease includes an option to purchase the land and building at a fixed price, which the Conference elected to exercise on December 27, 2016. Management expects to complete the purchase in 2017. Monthly rent payments will continue through the purchase date in accordance with the lease agreement.

ORV leases office space as a result of a grant and leaseback transaction as an operating lease expiring in January 2017 from a local church. Monthly payments of $3,333 are due in January 2017. CAN, CAS and CAM lease administrative office space under a five year lease, which expires in October 2021. The lease requires monthly payments of approximately $5,000 for the remaining lease term.

The Conference leases certain other office equipment under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various times over the next five years. Total lease expenditures in 2016 were $322,791. Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2017	$ 322,905
2018	317,119
2019	318,000
2020	305,013
2021	289,101
Thereafter	717,575

10. TEMPORARILY AND PERMANENTLY RESTRICTED NET ASSETS

The temporarily restricted net asset class includes assets and trust obligations of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that have not been met. Temporarily restricted net assets at December 31, 2016, are restricted to the following uses:

Church buildings	$	2,800,618
District operations		869,669
Clergy development		1,592,386
New church starts		313,398
Local churches		1,540,626
World mission projects		494,054
Retired clergy housing		1,325,908
Parsonages		231,496
Camps		476,979
Other		411,437
		10,056,571
	$	10,056,571

The permanently restricted net asset class includes assets of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the corpus of the original gift. See Note 5 regarding beneficial interest in perpetual trusts. Permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2016 are restricted to the following:

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts	$	591,632
Local churches		176,057
Church buildings		68,696
Cemeteries		22,726
		859,111
	$	859,111

11. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The COD is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the COD. Total estimated fair value of the COD's interest in these funds at December 31, 2016, is not available.

12. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2016	2015
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 92,900	91,680
Expenses
Salaries	269,747	224,187
Payroll taxes and benefits	88,589	74,136
Travel	19,870	17,954
Episcopal initiatives	91,979	42,714
Occupancy and office expenses	24,883	19,825
	495,068	378,816
	$ (402,168)	(287,136)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. None of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2016 or 2015.

13 ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to permanent endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to permanent endowments, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified as permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets, until those amounts are appropriated for expenditures in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

	Unrestricted	Temporarily Restricted	Permanently Restricted	Total
Balance as of December 31, 2015	$ -	812,726	267,479	1,080,205

	$ 25,490,996	10,056,571	859,111	36,406,678

14. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering substantially all employees, and is a participant in a denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 15. GAAP requires an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit plan, or post-retirement benefits plan, as an asset or liability in its consolidated statement of financial position.

For pension plans, the asset or liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the projected benefit obligation. Pension plans recognize changes in the funded status in the year in which the changes occur through unrestricted revenue or expense. For post-retirement plans other than pension plans, the asset and liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the accumulated benefit obligation.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $45 million at December 31, 2016, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

Fair value of plan assets	$	-
Benefit obligations		(51,160,200)
Funded status	$	(51,160,200)

Healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations - beginning of year	$	(49,694,721)
Service cost		(767,826)
Interest cost		(2,260,370)
Actuarial loss		(606,514)
Net expected benefit payments		2,169,231
Change in healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations		(1,465,479)
Healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations - end of year	$	(51,160,200)

The discount rate used to determine the benefit obligation at year-end was 4.30% for 2016. For measurement purposes, the rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered healthcare benefits has been assumed to be 6.5% for 2017, 6.0% for 2018, 5.5% for 2019, 5.0% for 2020, and 4.5% for 2021 and thereafter.

Contribution ranges are dependent on years of service at retirement and apply to the retiree and his or her spouse. Plan premium is paid by the Conference upon presentment of invoice by the insurer for payment toward coverage of healthcare plan benefits and thus equals benefits paid. These payments are recorded to medical coverage expense on the consolidated statement of activities and changes in net assets.

Projected benefit payments, before reduction for participant contributions:

Year ending December 31
2017	$ 2,192,861
2018	2,306,196
2019	2,375,410
2020	2,481,284
2021	2,578,952
2022 - 2026	13,346,496
	$ 25,281,199

15. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Pre-82 Plan

The Conference participates in a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan (the Plan), administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBPHB) of The United Methodist Church, covering all clergy with Pre-82 pension credit service. The benefits are based on the greater of the past service pension rate multiplied by the number of the clergy's Pre-82 years of service in the Plan, or the service annuity benefit specified by the Plan.

Annual contributions by the Conference are determined within certain guidelines established by the GBPHB. Contributions made by the Conference are held in a general pool with the contributions of other conferences, and are generally available to pay the beneficiaries of all employers in the Plan. The Conference's account within the Plan was over-funded as of the January 1, 2016 valuation. The Conference was not required and did not make any contributions for 2016.

The GBPHB prepares actuarial valuations annually as of January 1 and generally issues its report each September. The most recent valuation reflects the Plan asset values and liability funding status as of January 1, 2016.

Plan information and assumptions at January 1, 2016:

Assets and funding:
Fair value of plan assets	$ 78,030,023
Less pension benefit obligation	(77,833,220)
Funded past service liability	$ 196,803
Assumptions:
Interest rate	6.625%
Past service rate (PSR) increase	2.00%
Mortality table	RP-14 (MP-14)

All Plan assets are invested in the Multiple Asset Fund (MAF) of the GBPHB. The investment objective of the MAF is to maximize long-term investment returns, including current income and capital appreciation, while reducing short-term risk by investing in a broad mix of investments. Weighted-average asset allocations of Plan investments as of December 31, 2016:

	Policy Target Range		Actual
US Equity Fund	37%	43%	37.8%
International Equity Fund	23%	27%	26.1%
Fixed Income Fund	23%	27%	25.1%
Inflation Protection Fund	8%	12%	10.1%
Cash	0%	2%	0.9%

Ministerial Pension Plan 1982- 2006 (MPP)

The Conference participates in a 403(b) defined contribution plan, the MPP for clergy employees. Eligible employees are 100% vested in their contributions. When the Plan was active, the Conference made a matching contribution equal to 12% of Denomination Average Compensation (DAC) for clergy employees. This Plan was closed to new contributions at December 31, 2006.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Effective January 1, 2007, the GBPHB amended its pension plan, creating the CRSP, which has both a defined benefit and defined contribution component. The defined contribution component of the CRSP is capped at 3% of eligible compensation. The defined benefit component provides annual income based on years of service and a percentage of DAC (1.25% for service years 2007 through 2013 and 1.00% thereafter).

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. Although a surplus was available, the Conference made a full contribution of $3,396,908 in 2016. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to GBPHB, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Districts. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Districts make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with the GBPHB. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions for 2016 totaled approximately $150,225.

16. CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLE

In 2016, management changed how the Conference accounts for activity resulting from church closings. Prior to 2016, assets acquired by the Conference when churches closed were initially recorded as assets with an offsetting liability, which was then recognized as revenue when the assets were sold to a third party or transferred to a local church or affiliate organization. Associated expenses were also deferred until that time. Beginning in 2016, the Conference recognizes receipts of real and other property as contributions in the period in which the church closes, net of related liabilities and expenses. Subsequent activity is recognized in accordance with the type and timing of asset use. Management believes the change better reflects the resources currently available for mission and ministry as well as the resulting missional support of local churches and Districts.

This change in accounting principle was retrospectively applied to beginning 2016 balances and resulted in a decrease in fixed assets of $606,097, a decrease in other liabilities of $1,895,887, and an increase in unrestricted net assets of $1,289,791.

17. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In March of 2017, ORV accepted assignment of sole ownership of a not-for-profit Ohio limited liability company that operates mission work in that district. Management is in the process of obtaining information regarding the financial activity of this entity to determine its materiality. If the activity should prove material, the financial position and results of the entity will be consolidated in ORV for 2017 in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Note: Prior year audit and supplemental information is available by calling the conference Treasurer's Office.

8. MOTIONS IN ORDER WHEN A MAIN MOTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

When a question is under debate, any subsidiary motion applying thereto may be made. This includes the following motions listed in order of their precedence: Lay on the Table, Previous Questions, Limit or Extend Limits of Debate, Postpone to a Certain Time, Commit or Refer, Amend, Substitute, Postpone indefinitely. Privileged motions are always in order, limited only by such restrictions, Roberts Rules of Order.

The motion to adjourn cannot be made when a member has the floor or when it interrupts voting or verifying a vote.

9. AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order. However, it is in order to move a substitute for the main motion. In such case the chair shall proceed to perfect the original motion. The previous question when voted under these conditions shall merely stop debate but does not permit a vote on the main motion. When the main motion has been perfected, the chair shall proceed to perfect the substitute. When the substitute has been perfected, the chair shall call for a vote on the substitute. If the substitute is carried, it shall replace the original main motion and become the main motion. The chair will then call for a vote on the (new) main motion. The new main motion can be amended only by addition. If the substitute does not carry, without further debate, the chair shall call for a vote on the original main motion as it has been perfected.

10. DIVISION OF QUESTION

Before a vote is taken, any member has the right to call for the division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he/she indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection, the chair, not waiting for a second, shall put the question of division to vote.

11. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

12. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST

- a. When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. The chair and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the recommendation shall be entitled to two minutes to close the discussion. The motion to limit or extend the limits of debate is in order any time, except when a member has the floor.

14. SPEAKING ONLY AFTER A MOTION

No member of the conference shall be permitted to speak on a question unless it has been properly presented to the conference in the form of a motion.

15. MOTIONS AFTER SPEAKING ON A PENDING QUESTION

No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of his/her speech have the right to call for the previous question or move to lay the motion on the table.

16. WHO MAY VOTE

Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put has the right to vote. A member who is not within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put by the chair shall not be permitted to vote except such member is necessarily absent in the work of the conference.

17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If he/she does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

No member who has the floor shall be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference that the time has arrived for a special order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

20. SUSPENSION OF RULES

The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

21. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, SUPPLEMENTARY AUTHORITY

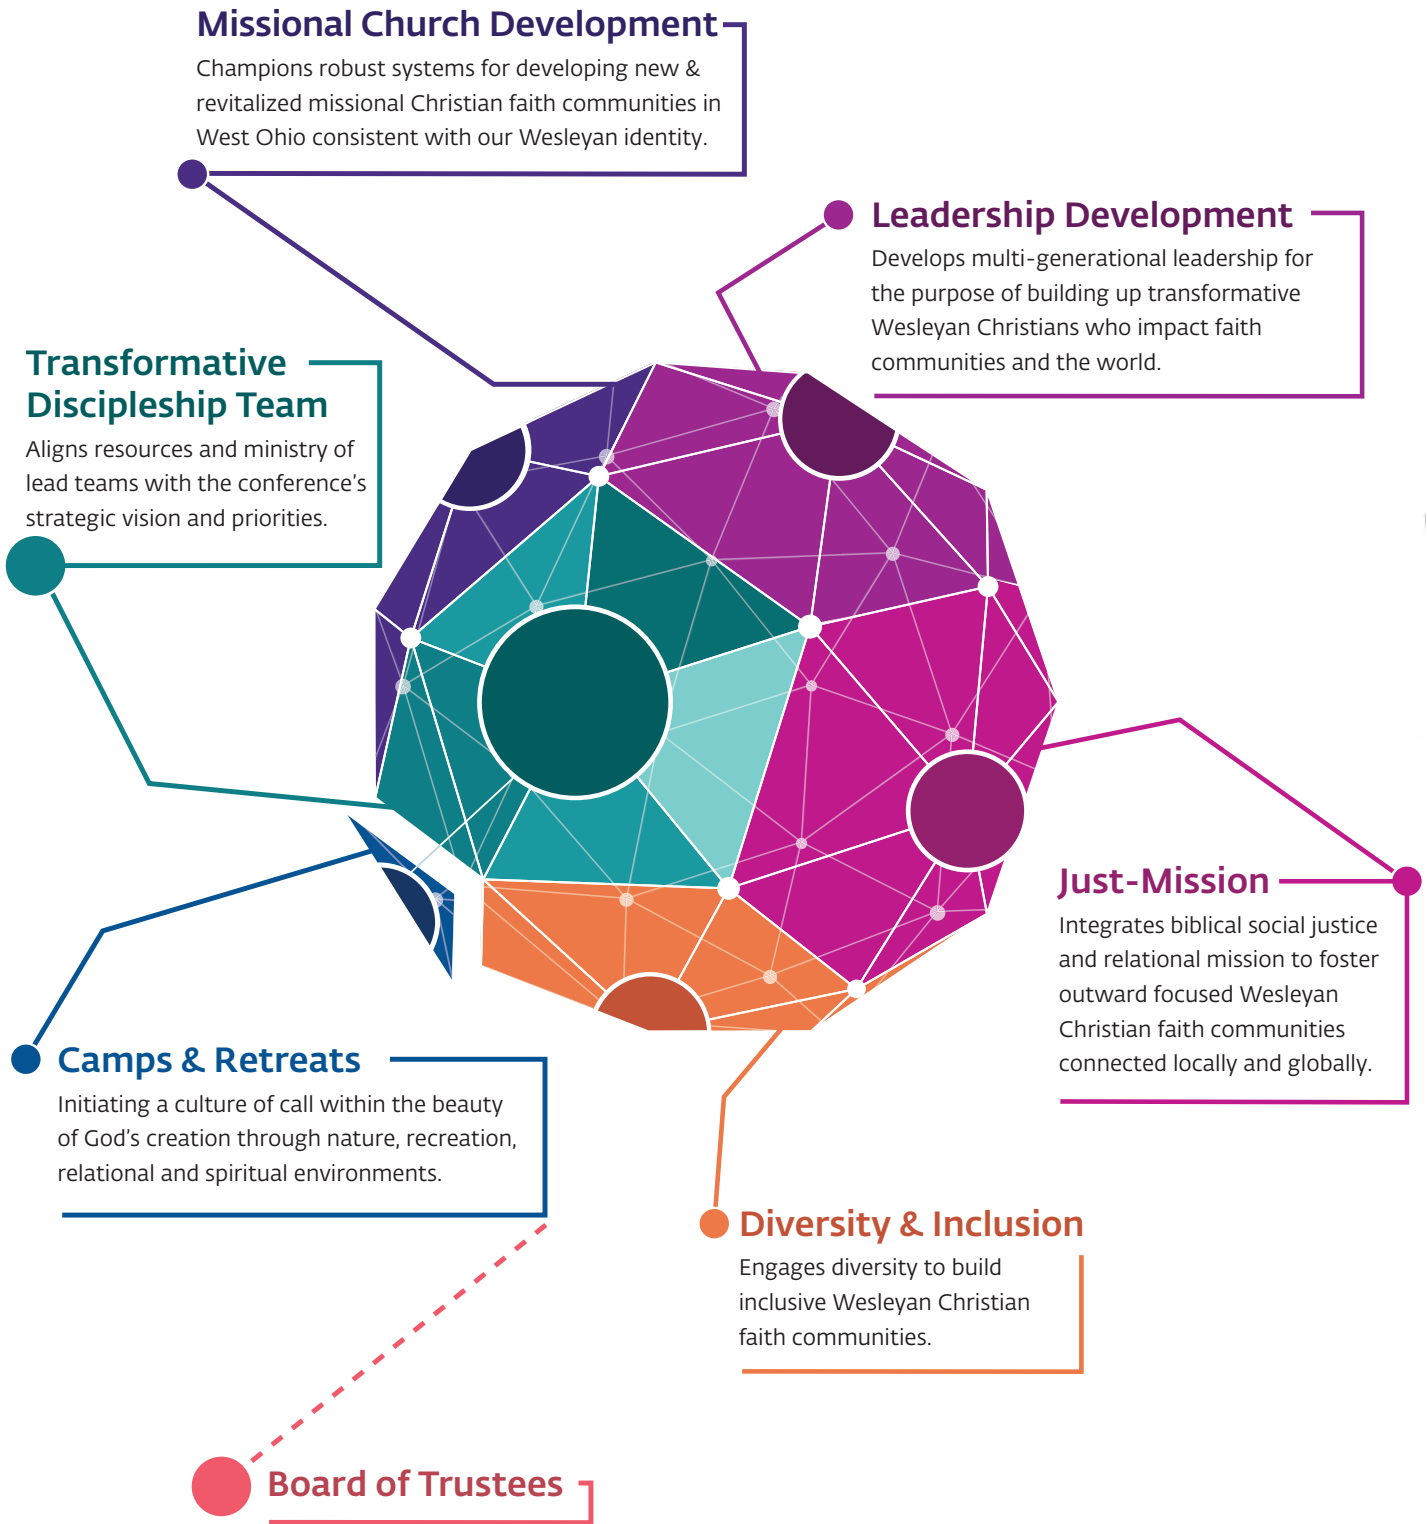

In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of Roberts Rules of Order.

22. BISHOP'S RIGHT TO SPEAK ON ISSUES

The bishop is not, and by discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency he/she is charged. But he/she is the head of the area, vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on the issues before this conference, providing he/she surrenders the chair to someone of his/her appointing at any time that he/she feels he/she should apprise the conference on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

CHESTER CHAMBERS

Chester Chambers grew up in Luckey, Ohio, where the Methodist church was the central activity of his family. He graduated from Ohio Northern University, where he took a pre-chemical engineering course of study. He was involved with the Ohio Methodist Student Movement, and following his junior year decided on ministry.

He went to Garrett Theological seminary in 1949, where he gained a deep understanding of John Wesley's theology and experience of grace. Following up on ideas and contacts gained through OMSM in undergrad, he became involved in the civil rights movement in the Chicago area.

While working at a student charge at Weston Church in the summer of 1951, he met Donna Fast, then a nurse in the Bowling Green hospital. They married a year later. He served at Mt. Blanchard five years before moving to Toledo in 1962, to pastor two inner-city parishes in the old north end.

In 1969, he was appointed Coordinator of Urban Ministries for the Toledo District of the United Methodist Church. In succeeding years he helped develop an "alphabet soup" of over forty local organizations from the local ACLU to Welfare Task Force, with Fair Housing Center and Personal Rights Organization among the many in between. He had particular passions for racial justice, affordable housing, and acceptance of the LGBT community.

Chet made many fact-finding trips in later years. The poverty he witnessed on his first, to Nicaragua in 1989, was life-altering. He would return there, as well as go to Cuba, Brazil, Mexico (maquiladoras), and Venezuela.

He retired at least twice: after serving six years as Superintendent of the Findlay District (UMC) in 1996, and again in 2003, after serving as Associate Pastor of Monroe Street UMC in Toledo. He remained active in many groups and causes long after the "retirements," including many annual protest trips to the School of the Americas at Ft. Benning, Georgia. He was arrested at least three times over the years, in various locales, for civil disobedience over causes he championed.

Chet was a master card player, and avid camper with his family. He played piano, sang, and rarely missed a Toledo Symphony concert. He was a mentor and role model for many; inclusive, empowering, grass-roots. His biblical and theological knowledge were immense and undergirded most everything he did and said. He never stopped believing in God and humanity's capacity for good.

GERALD EUGENE ERTER

Reverend Gerald Eugene Erter, age 84, of Chillicothe, Ohio, died January 13, 2017. He was born in Logan County, Ohio, on January 18, 1932, to the late Stanley and Novelda Erter. He grew up as an only child on his parents' farm in Lewistown, Ohio, next door to the girl he would marry. In 1952, he married Shirley Ann Notestine, one of the greatest blessings of his life, along with their children Hope (Don) Davidson, Mark (Pam) Erter, Michael Erter (deceased), Cindy (Keith) Carlisle, Greg (Leah) Erter, Steve (Brenda) Erter, and Joy (Sammy) Stamm, fifteen grandchildren, and 19 great-grandchildren.

While in high school an instructor suggested Gerald prepare for a college education. A young minister friend encouraged him to think about the Christian ministry. After much prayer with his family and God's leading, they decided it would be financially possible for him to attend college. He attended his first year of college at Bowling Green University in Ohio. He graduated in 1953 from Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio, serving a four church charge. In 1956, he graduated from United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, and was appointed to his first church in Marietta, Ohio.

Reverend Erter celebrated 60 years of ministry serving 13 churches in the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church (UMC). These churches include Greater Hardin Circuit, 1950; Spencerville Circuit, 1953; Marietta Trinity UMC, 1956; Portsmouth Valley UMC, 1959; Jackson Christ UMC, 1965; Kenton First UMC, 1978; Walnut Street UMC, Chillicothe, 1987; Concord UMC, Chillicothe, 2009. He was also District Program Assistant, Athens District, 1974-1978.

In some of his sermons, Reverend Erter portrayed several Biblical characters in the first person with period dress. He was Dean of Camp Asbury and served at Jr. High camps at both Sabina and Lancaster. He served on the Board of Trustees of the West Ohio Conference and the District Board of Ordained Ministry, and was the Director of the Hill and Hollow Cooperative Parish. Outside activities have included membership on the boards of Worthington Children's Home and the Hillview Retirement Center. He enjoyed woodworking, landscaping, fishing, gardening, and cherished spending time together with his family.

During Reverend Erter's ministry he served on many district and conference boards, and all these experiences brought insight as to how the Christian gospel speaks to the deep needs of persons and provides guidance and resources in their struggle for a fuller life. This inspired him to author a book entitled "A Love You Can Live With." In his years of pastoral ministry, he sensed a real desire of persons to be loving, but they are at a loss as how to express it in practical ways in their daily relationships with others. In his book, he described in an interesting and practical manner how we can express a "Jesus style" love in our everyday life experiences.

There were three things Reverend Erter tried to stress during his years in the ministry: faithfulness to the Word of God, faith in the power of prayer, and passion to bring lost and hurting persons to Jesus Christ who alone can give them abundant life now and eternal life hereafter. Is it any wonder his most favorite hymn was "Great Is Thy Faithfulness?"

While completing his MA and PhD in Sociology in three years, Reg also served a number of churches in temporary pastorates. In 1971, the Olsons moved to New Concord, Ohio, and Muskingum College for a sociology position and to continue preaching as needed in churches. Their new son Jeff also made this move.

West Virginia Wesleyan College offered an Associate Professorship in 1979, and so for the next ten years the Olsons were in Buckhannon, West Virginia. After waiting 20 years for acceptance in the UMC, she turned to the UCC and Methodism lost a truly talented pastor and so many others. In this same challenge, he and Barbara served as coordinators of the Reconciling Parents Network from 2008-2012.

The Olson family now consists of Barbara; Beth and Shelly Davis; Stephanie (Rick) Kleinschmidt; Jeff (Gabiella) Olson; Grandchildren, Connor and Kendall K and Alexandra, Parker, Sofia O. Reg has left a legacy of peace, love, hope, and responsibility in all who knew him.

Joanne Stubbins Campbell was born on September 16, 1939, to Mildred and Leland Stubbins of Cygnet, Ohio. She was the 5th of seven children, including three older sisters and one younger, and two brothers, one older and one younger. She died of Alzheimer's on September 14, 2016, at the Hospice of Blanchard Valley Hospital. Following graduation from Cygnet High School in 1957, she worked for nine years as a Library Assistant at Bowling Green State University. She met Robert Campbell at the Cygnet United Methodist Church, which he came to serve in 1963, as a student pastor while attending Methesco. They were married July 11, 1964. A daughter, Cathy Lynn, was born in June of 1966.

She also especially enjoyed her work at the Sauder Museum in Archbold, managing the Cafeteria at one point, and later founding and managing the Sweet Shoppe, where she made fudge and other candies. She was tagged by the museum's founder, Erie Sauder, as "the Sweet Lady."

Joanne's greatest joy, though, was family: her close bonds with sisters and brother; her 52 years of marriage with Bob; the birth and life of her loving daughter, Cathy, who provided tender and dedicated caregiving throughout her Alzheimer's, and who gave her three grandchildren: Amanda Joanne Dewey, Alex Ray Dewey, and Aric Robert Dewey. They were light of her life; their love for her and hers for them sustained her spirit, and gave her gladness to the end.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held for Joanne at Findlay St. Andrew's. She was buried at Jerry City Cemetery, near the graves of her mother, father, and younger brother. When her gravestone is completed, it will read: "Free at Last."

XII HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the “shores of the setting sun” on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the “lower conference” would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the “upper conference” – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

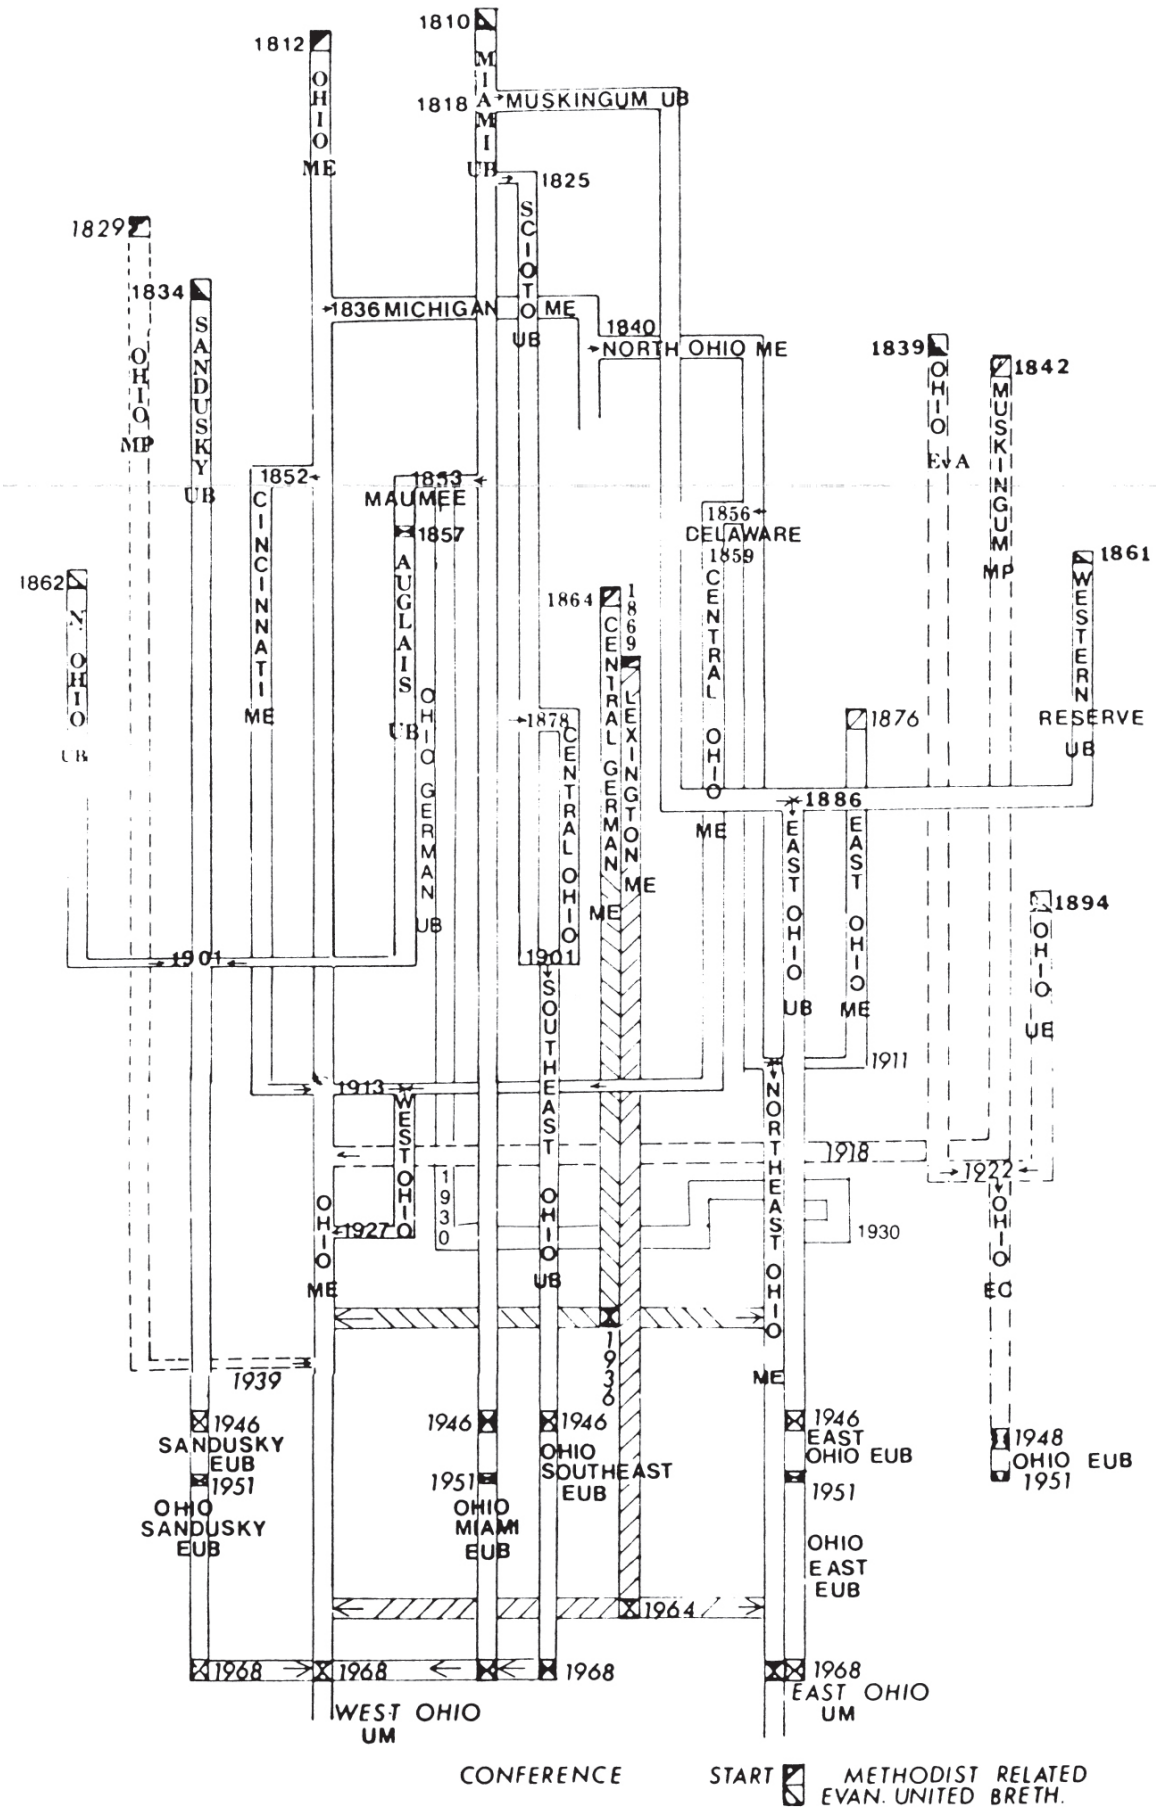

This is the 220th year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 206th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

XIII ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 2016

COMMITTEE ON RULES

The Committee on Rules annually reviews the rules of the West Ohio Annual Conference. Content clarity, accuracy, and alignment with the United Methodist Book of Discipline are addressed. In addition, at the request of the appropriate party, we review suggestions. This year the following issues and policies were reviewed (Review does not necessarily mean changes were made): election of the conference lay leader, election of the lay servant training director, annual conference election team, annual conference ushers, and clergy vacation. The future goals include training annual conference parliamentarians, continuing to work on consistency of language and format, and remaining partners with conference leaders to be responsive to the annual conference's needs. The Rules Committee has no budget, income, or expenditures.

COUNCIL ON DEVELOPMENT

The mission of the Council on Development is to equip the local churches to grow generous disciples to advance the mission and vision of the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

The strategic initiatives of the Council on development include:

- Stewardship 101-Growing Generous Givers which focuses on how to develop a holistic understanding of stewardship in the local church, a basic theological foundation for stewardship, ideas to assist churches in development of an intentional year round stewardship strategy and next steps. In 2016 several of these workshops were held focusing on the unique issues of the smaller church ministry. (November 12, McClure UMC, 40 attendees)
- "Creating a Legacy for the Future of Your Church" Planned giving seminars have assisted the local church to develop an endowment program and an intentional year round strategy. This includes laying their foundation for an Endowment to advance the mission and vision of the church as a legacy to the leaders who grew the church in the past decades. (February 20, Mt. Moriah UMC, 41 attendees and April 16, West Ohio Conference Office, 45 attendees)
- The Endowment Fund Management Program continued with the Council on Development providing oversight as an investment management resource to (1) endowment funds of the conference, (2) local church endowment funds, and (3) other United Methodist affiliated endowment funds. (12 new funds for an increase in value $4.8 million)
- In previous years, The Council on Development under the leadership of Dave Boling led the West Ohio Conference to achieve and in fact surpass its $3.5 million goal for Imagine No Malaria. Now the effort is to assure the estimates match the gifts.
- Assisting churches to assess readiness for a capital campaign. In 2015 the Council on Development established a Preferred Partnership with Horizons Stewardship Company to conduct feasibility studies as well as the capital campaigns for local churches.
- West Ohio Conference combined with East Ohio Conference sponsored Faith and Money Academy. 127 attendees
- The West Ohio Conference under the leadership of the Council on Development began organizing for a campaign to raise funds to establish new worshipping communities as well as enhance fruitfulness and vitality in existing congregations.

At the 2013 Annual Conference, A Conference Advance Special Trial was established. There are many critical mission and ministries within the West Ohio Conference that do not qualify for General Board of Global Ministries designation. With additional funding and volunteer resourcing, these ministries could expand their mission and ministry serving people in our communities and regions. Since Annual Conference rules require approval for conference wide appeals, a Special Task force has been created to develop a trial Conference Advance Special, which will allow approved mission and ministries to implement plans for conference wide appeals to churches and individuals. Criteria and evaluative standards for application are available with the application package which can be found on the West Ohio Conference Website at <http://www.westohioumc.org/conference/annual-conference-advance-special-trial>.

Currently the approved Conference Advance Specials include the following:

1. Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, Inc.: WOC004
2. Greater Hilltop Area Shalom Zone: WOC002
3. Horizon Prison Initiative: WOC001
4. St. Paul United Methodist Church, Dayton, OH: WOC003

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION TASK FORCE

Over the past year, the Diversity and Inclusion Lead Team met for a collaborative workshop and conversation to determine guiding themes for the coming quadrennium. The priorities will serve as guidelines as we work alongside the Connectional Ministry Lead Teams in moving West Ohio towards meeting its strategic vision and priorities.

Within the coming years, West Ohio already recognizes that there will be a continued need for cultural competency among our discipleship pathways, local churches and ministry leaders. In conjunction with the other Lead Teams, the Diversity and Inclusion Lead Team lifts up the need for West Ohio to continue to increase diversity among lay and clergy leaders in the conference. In West Ohio's context, diversity includes racial/ethnic identity, age, gender, geographic region and theology. In addition, the Task Force lifted up the opportunity to help congregations and organizations to increase their ability to engage with diversity in their local communities. Both of these goals will serve to assist congregations and leaders to create relevant, responsible and appropriate discipleship systems that connect cultural competency and faith formation.

Over the coming year, the Task Force will continue to meet alongside the other Lead Teams to develop these themes into actionable plans designed to achieve maximum missional impact. These actionable plans will not exist within isolation, but rather in partnership with West Ohio's ministries. We look forward to serving the West Ohio Conference throughout this quadrennium.

Respectfully Submitted, Rev. April Casperson, Chair, Diversity and Inclusion Lead Team

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ. Ephesians 4: 11-13 (NIV)

All Christians are called as ministers through baptism. Throughout one's faith journey, opportunities for growth and discovery direct each into closer relationship with Christ and with others. Knowledgeable and competent leadership is essential in developing disciples of Jesus to transform the world. Lay Servant Ministries and Campus Ministries are just a couple examples of the power of intentional leadership development for service in the local church, community, conference and the Church.

The Leadership Development Team, consisting of laity and clergy representing most districts in our conference, has been exploring available resources and best practices in leadership development for all ages. Specific areas of interest to date include relationship building through mentoring, covenant, ministries of invitation and guiding others in discovering/rediscovers their spiritual gifts for ministry. The goals of this groups include exploring and becoming familiar with leadership tools and resources; to identify the leadership needs of local churches and communities; and to develop and implement an accessible and sustainable approach to identify, equip, deploy and retain effective leaders for transformative discipleship.

 - Children/Youth/Family Ministry
 - Streamlined Church Administrative Structure

In alignment with the new West Ohio “Light the Way” $5 million capital campaign for new church development and existing church revitalization, dreams and goals are currently under design for significant expansion of the Traction Track offerings, the Missional Church Consultation Initiative’s capacity, and the investment in more new worshipping communities. These new goals will be available and included in the 2018 MCD report in this journal.

UNITED METHODIST MEN

The goals and expectations of the West Ohio Conference (WOC) United Methodist Men are to “Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for The Transformation of the World.” In 2016, we began the process of transforming our organization through training leaders on the process of Understanding Men’s Ministry, http://www.gcumm.org/files/uploads/UnderstandingMen_sMinistry_1.pdf

By the end of 2017, the WOC United Methodist Men will have trained 50 men to be resources to accomplish the vision of engaging every man in the West Ohio Conference in life transforming small groups. Three examples of this effort include Scioto Ridge, Reynoldsburg, and Troy United Methodist Churches:

At Scioto Ridge UMC, men are gathering in the morning to give testimony and bear witness to where each man has seen and heard from God in the good, the bad, the ugly, and the beautiful of his week. For one hour a week, six to eight men gather over coffee and donuts, not to read, or to study, but to simply share with other men how they are looking and listening for God's still small voice. There are around 30 men gathering together in several small groups to practice Jesus' command to daily realign themselves to the Kingdom of Heaven (Matthew 3:2).

A leadership team was formed at Reynoldsburg UMC in November 2016 to begin the process of engaging men in small groups. Today, an average of 40 men are meeting on a weekly basis. God is transforming lives, families, the local church, and the community as men learn to become servants of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Troy UMC has been engaged in small group ministry with men since 2015. They have conducted annual day-apart events that have engaged an average of 50 men in 8 small groups weekly, and they are about to start a new group. They are training men to lead small groups that are impacting the mission of their church.

The WOC Methodist Men are engaged in mission with their local churches and beyond. We thank you for your continued support of donating new & used Christian materials to Love Packages, <http://lovepackages.org/>. New in 2016 is the collection of empty pill bottles for Matthew 25: Ministries <http://m25m.org/> in Cincinnati.

The WOC Advance Special "MWD Gleaning Mission," <http://www.umcmmission.org/Give-to-Mission/Search-for-Projects/Projects/801600>, has delivered 382,583 pounds of produce which represents 1,147,749 servings of food to the hungry in 2016. Jesus told his disciples, "You give them something to eat." United Methodist Men are doing just that!

On July 7 & 8 men from around the nation will gather in Indianapolis at St. Luke's UMC. Men will be challenged to leave their comfort zones to combat domestic violence, engage in accountability groups, and learn that "discipleship" is a "contact sport." You may find out more about this event and register here: <http://www.gcumm.org/12th-national-gathering/>

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women is the women's mission organization within the United Methodist Church in the United States, focusing on the needs of women, children and youth since 1869. Its programs promote spiritual growth, leadership development, transformative education and service and advocacy.

Our vision is turning faith, hope and love into action on behalf of women, children and youth around the world. We live our vision by providing opportunities and resources to grow spiritually, becoming more deeply rooted in Christ and putting our faith into action. We are organized for growth, with flexible structures leading to effective witness and action. We equip women and girls around the world to be leaders in communities, agencies, workplaces, governments and churches. We work for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems. We provide educational experiences that lead to personal change in order to transform the world.

Our four Mission Emphases for the quadrennium are Maternal & Child Health, Economic Justice [Inequality is a women's issue], Climate Justice, and Racial & Gender Justice [including Mass Incarceration]. Broadening the understanding of our members and the general public around these issues is the goal of our programming. These mission emphases are directly related to the programming and support of our four mission institutions located within our West Ohio Conference: Friendly Center, Toledo, Wesley Community Center, Dayton, Church 4 All People, Columbus, and Wesley Education Center, Cincinnati.

The United Methodist Women of the West Ohio Conference are strong partners in providing an excellent mission education tool for the entire conference. United Methodist Women provide finances, leadership, curriculum, and scholarships for Mission U, which is held annually at Ohio Northern University. Our school of Christian mission is one of the largest in the country.

In addition to Mission U, we host a leadership development event and our Annual Celebration each year. The Leadership Development in September, 2016 was structured around Communication. Our Annual Celebration held in November, 2016 at the Crossroads Center in Lancaster, Ohio featured Bishop Palmer and Mike Feely from Henderson Settlement, a UMW mission institution in Kentucky.

Every facet of United Methodist Women is mission. Toward fulfillment of our mission goals, the United Methodist Women of West

Ohio Conference provided a mission giving total of $437,907.00 in 2016.

The United Methodist Women of West Ohio Conference are very pleased to announce that the 2018 Assembly will be held in Columbus, Ohio, May 18-20. This Assembly is particularly momentous – it marks both the official celebration of our 150th anniversary and a return to the location of our first Assembly in 1942! Our theme is The Power of Bold and this will be evident as 8,000 women gather to address priority issues of our day, as well as worship and learn about the needs of women, children and youth in the 21st century.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

In 2016, the Board of Ministry prepared for a new quadrennium by engaging in training updates and focusing upon how we credential leaders for the church of today and tomorrow. Key members of the Board of Ministry executive team attended a national training hosted by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Content focused upon the structure, work and bounds of the Board of Ministry, healthy relationships between the Cabinet, the Bishop and the Board, and most importantly ministry candidate evaluation.

Over the next four years, the Board will be focusing upon our primary work together: the task of credentialing those called to ministry. Our grounding is in biblically based leadership formation that is confirmed by the community, leadership that meets people where they are, and leadership that is grounded in taking the necessary time to engage within a specific context. Focus areas have included and will continue to include consistent training for new and returning Board members, assessing ministry candidates with an eye toward their current and future leadership skills, clergy wellness and self-care, and lifting up the need for candidates to have cross-cultural leadership skills and intercultural competency.

We continue to be in a partnership with the East Ohio Conference with a statewide Candidacy Summit, an event for all ministry candidates, as well as the Crucible experience for provisional candidates.

In the midst of diversity, the Board of Ministry is united in our work to credential those called to ministry within the United Methodist Church and the West Ohio Conference. Even more importantly, we are unified by the work and grace of Jesus Christ. The Board of Ordained Ministry is appreciative of your prayer and support.

Respectfully submitted by Rev. April Casperson, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry

EPISCOPACY COMMITTEE

It is with great pleasure that we welcome back Bishop Gregory V. Palmer and Mrs. Cynthia Palmer to the Ohio West Episcopal Area for their second quadrennium. Our committee celebrated their return on August 30, 2016 with lunch and a gift basket.

The West Ohio Annual Conference Committee on Episcopacy performs many functions in relationship to the bishop residing over the area. These functions are described in paragraph 637.3 in the United Methodist Book of Discipline, 2016, as follows:

- a) To support the bishop of the area in the oversight of the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church, with special reference to the area where the bishop has presidential responsibilities.
- b) To be available to the bishop for counsel.
- c) To assist in the determination of the episcopal needs of the area and to make recommendation to appropriate bodies.
- d) To keep the bishop advised concerning conditions within the area as they affect relationships between the bishop and the people of the conference agencies.
- e) To interpret to the people of the area and to conference agencies the nature and function of the episcopal office.
- f) To engage in annual consultation and appraisal of the balance of the bishop's relationship and responsibilities to the area and annual conferences, the jurisdiction, general Church boards and agencies, and other areas of specialized ministry, including, at all levels, concerns for the inclusiveness of the Church and its ministry with respect to sex, race, and national origin, and understanding and implementation of consultation process in appointment-making.
- g) To report needs for episcopal leadership to the jurisdictional committee on episcopacy through the duly elected conference members of that committee.

For West Ohio, we will live out these functions as outlined in the Paragraph 637.3 under these Sub-Committees:

Interpretation and Communication: Interpret and communicate the nature and function of the Bishop and the Episcopal office to the people of the West Ohio Conference.

Evaluation and Leadership Development: Conduct an annual performance evaluation of our Episcopal Leader and report back to the Episcopacy Committee. Provide for leadership development opportunities as identified from the evaluation process and/or by the Bishop.

Profile: Quadrennially prepare a report concerning the needs for Episcopal leadership to the North Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy.

As we head into this next quadrennium we look forward to supporting Bishop Palmer as President of the North Central Jurisdiction College of Bishops and as he serves on The Commission on a Way Forward.

The Episcopacy Committee remains supportive of Bishop and Mrs. Palmer's family and we invite the West Ohio Conference to hold our Bishop, his family, and his ministry in our prayers.

"This is my prayer: that your love might become even more and more rich with knowledge and all kinds of insight. I pray this so that you will be able to decide what really matters and so you will be sincere and blameless on the day of Christ. I pray that you will then be filled with the fruit of righteousness, which comes from Jesus Christ, in order to give glory and praise to God."

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

BALDWIN WALLACE UNIVERSITY

www.bw.edu

Baldwin Wallace University is on track to exceed the goals outlined in the BW 2020 Strategic Plan. www.bw.edu/about/strategic-plan. The plan is grounded in the core values that BW holds dear: we are a community of learners committed to intentional excellence, extraordinary engagement and holistic support. These values will guide our university as we continue to inspire success through excellence.

BW is proud of the accomplishments of our students, faculty and alumni many of which can be found online at: www.bw.edu/news. This year, BW hosted a series of influential guests through the "Voices of Democracy" speaker series including Newt Gingrich, Van Jones and John Quiñones that drew thousands of guests to BW and once again provided our students with a front row seat to the democratic process. The positive impact of BW on northeast Ohio continues to be demonstrated through the work of our students and alumni; BW students from our Speech Pathology Program operate the only free speech and hearing clinic in Ohio serving more than 1000 patients each year, www.bw.edu/centers/speech-clinic. BW's Community Music School celebrated its 40th anniversary teaching and inspiring thousands of musicians of all ages through lessons, camps and ensembles, www.bw.edu/community-music-school. BW students give back to the community through service and philanthropy in a unique program that places BW students in immersive internships at local non-profits. The Jacket Philanthropy Program (JPP) awards grants to nonprofits through proposals written and presented by BW students. JPP has awarded more than $100,000 since its inception in 2009. www.bw.edu/student-life/services/service-leadership. BW's growing Digital Marketing Clinic (DMC) is a student run business serving local businesses that provides digital marketing strategy, web design and social media planning. The DMC has a strategic partnership with our home city of Berea providing digital expertise to local Berea businesses on grants awarded by the City of Berea. Once again BW athletes exemplify the definition of scholar athletes. Our wrestling team claimed the second straight Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC) Champion Title and four BW wrestlers were named to the Academic All-Ohio Athletic Conference Team. A total of 16 BW winter sport athletes were named to the Academic All-Ohio Athletic Conference Team representing a wide range of academic disciplines from finance and history to biology and marketing.

Our alumni and friends provide broad support in helping us expand and celebrate our programs, facilities and scholarships. BW continues to operate on a solid financial base with a balanced budget of $88 million and an endowment of $149 million. Support from our loyal alumni, trustees and friends totaled $7,215,000. In addition, unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund totaled $1,190,000.

Baldwin Wallace is proud of its strong and enduring relationship with the United Methodist Church, which dates to a gift of five acres of land from the Methodist Episcopal Church and the founding of Baldwin University in 1845. BW was among the first colleges, prior to the Civil War, to admit students without regard to race or gender. The spirit of inclusiveness, innovation and the United Methodist commitment to open inquiry as well as clear connection to faith, knowledge and service remain vital to the path of Baldwin Wallace University today.

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

175 Years of Faithfully Preparing Moral Leaders for a Global Society

On March 7, 1842, the Ohio Legislature chartered a new Methodist university in Delaware, Ohio that they declared “is forever to be conducted on the most liberal principles, accessible to all religious denominations, and designed for the benefit of our citizens in general.” For 175 years, Ohio Wesleyan has kept faith with that charter as a sacred trust. Today, we sustain that trust with a Statement of Aims that proclaims our core principles: “Since its founding, Ohio Wesleyan has maintained its connection with the Methodist (now United Methodist) Church, offering a quality of scholarship, leadership, and service that has enriched both Church and society.” We conclude that Statement with this solemn vow: “Consistent with our Methodist tradition, Ohio Wesleyan encourages concern for all religious and ethical issues and stimulates its students to examine their own views in light of these issues.” As the fragile complexities of our world multiply exponentially, we remain grounded in Christian principles that ensure an interfaith and intercultural center of hospitality, hope, and healing for 1,675 students from 43 U.S. states and territories and 32 foreign countries; 34% of our students are international and U.S. multicultural.

John Wesley’s passion for social holiness informs us as we add new majors such as Social Justice and Middle Eastern studies. His vision that the world is our parish inspires us to enable our students, faculty, and staff to conduct research and special projects in over 60 countries, including such recent ventures as these:

- o “Personal Narratives in Conflict Resolution: Northern Ireland,” studying the role of personal narratives in conflict resolution involving Catholic-Protestant issues.
- o “Effects of Marginalization and Xenophobia in Europe: Cultural and Volunteer Experience in ‘El Gallinero’ and ‘La Monachina,’” serving and studying in Spain and Italy with nonprofit organizations that help educate children from harsh and hostile social, cultural, political, and economic environments.
- o “500 Years Later: Christianity in Post-Christian Wittenberg,” studying at Lutherstadt Wittenberg, Germany, where Martin Luther released his “95 Theses” in 1517, to discern how Christian faith is lived in a “Post-Christian” society.

John Wesley’s commitment to Christian education echoes anew as we create a new summer program, the EXPLORE Institute for rising junior and senior high school students. This new Youth Theology Institute is a partnership between Ohio Wesleyan University and the Lilly Endowment, Inc. The six-day summer program will enable Protestant and Catholic students to examine their faith journeys and God’s calling for their lives from both academic and spiritual perspectives. This year’s inaugural program, set for June 12-17, will involve learning from sacred scripture, theology, and traditions of the Catholic and Protestant faiths, including Scriptural Perspective on Calling from the Epistle of James, Theology of Calling from a Historical and Global Perspective, and Theology of Calling, Vocation, and Service.

Preparing moral leaders for a global society remains our most sacred mission.

UNIVERSITY OF MOUNT UNION

The University of Mount Union successfully completed 2016 with a number of accomplishments of note. The inauguration on May 9th of its 12th President, Dr. W. Richard Merriman, Jr., was of particular importance. Dr. Merriman led the university in development of a five-year strategic plan entitled, Compass 2021: Mount Union’s Strategy to Lead, Collaborate and Innovate. The plan has been approved by the faculty and the Board of Trustees and is now being implemented with the support of all constituencies of the University.

As has been true for over half a century, the university had a balanced budget. The University of Mount Union continues to be one of the most cost effective institutions of higher education among Ohio private colleges and universities. The university closely monitoring expenditures, thus minimizing tuition and fees increases. This helps ensure that the institution remains affordable for the many first-generation college students it educates and for the working class and middle class students it has traditionally served.

Enrollment for undergraduate and graduate students was healthy. In keeping with its goals of increasing international student enrollment, the university welcomed students from Saudi Arabia, Nigeria, India, Japan, Vietnam, Mexico to the campus. Approval was received for the Doctor of Physical Therapy program and the inaugural class started in August of 2016. An accreditation team visited the nursing program to review and give approval as the program graduates its first class in May of 2017.

Spiritual Life on campus has been expanded to include prayer spaces for other religious traditions in keeping with the history of hospitality of the university. Student interest in being spiritually literate is keen, with course design and programmatic functions of the university working together to provide more opportunities to encourage campus life to accurately reflect the world in which we live. The value of the university’s heritage and relationship with the United Methodist Church has been complemented with a more directed effort to work with the local church to encourage joint programming and hosting of events. A small but steady number of students continue to graduate from the institution and attend seminaries to prepare for vocations in ministry.

Looking ahead, work has begun on increasing degree offerings for the Engineering program from Civil and programs as well. That preparation is continuing as the university seeks to become a more flexible institution of higher education while also honoring its heritage in the liberal arts. Mechanical Engineering to also include Biomedical, Electrical and Chemical Engineering. The university anticipates offering more flexibility for the non-traditional student to enroll and complete a degree through hybrid programs and online course offerings.

To preserve affordability, the university is planning a significant capital campaign that will focus on increasing both the endowment for scholarship support and annual giving to provide financial aid to our students.

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Africa University ended 2016 poised to celebrate its Silver Jubilee and eager to embrace new opportunities for transformative ministry over the next 25 years.

It is a great joy to recognize and thank the West Ohio Conference for a 100 percent investment in the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2016. Overall, 34 of the 56 United Methodist annual conferences in the United States invested 100 percent or more of their asking to the AUF in 2016.

The university community acknowledges, with heartfelt appreciation, the many ways in which the churches of the West Ohio Conference has been active, faithful, and generous in helping Africa University to realize its mission.

Through Africa University, the West Ohio Conference helps young people to discover and sharpen their gifts for leadership. The mission of the global United Methodist Church is alive in the contributions of the university's 7,000+ graduates. More than 90 percent of these graduates are still in Africa, serving communities in 32 countries. Currently, more than two dozen Africa University graduates are missionaries in Africa, Latin America, Asia and Europe, under the auspices of the General Board of Global Ministries. Young people who would otherwise be on the margins of society are actively helping others to experience God's grace, peace and abundance.

Great things are on the horizon for Africa University in the next quarter century. Your Africa University is continuing to evolve and serve by:

- Restructuring its academic units in order to remain relevant and provide a broader-based education to meet new demands in the African workforce.
- Providing training and leadership formation experiences for more than 1,400 students from 26 African countries.
- Generating new knowledge and capacity to support peacebuilding and to improve food security, human rights, and leadership for the African continent.

As part of the observance of AU's 25th anniversary, we invite the individual members, congregations and districts of the West Ohio Conference to take time out in 2017 to celebrate their journey with Africa University. Engage in a season of daily prayer for Africa University. Join Africa University's honorary alumni association. Consider hosting a special "AU@25" event or Africa University Sunday in your local church or area. Use your event to increase awareness of Africa University's ministry and invite attendees to each give at least $25 each in honor of the 25th anniversary. Celebrate your role in making Africa University all that it is today and all that it will be in the future.

Thank you for your unwavering support. We pray that blessings continue to abound for all who serve in the West Ohio Conference.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, over 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous Christian leaders dedicated transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in Atlanta provides a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century. Simply put, there is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 17 degrees: seven single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study and apply what they learn in real time. We've also partnered with the University of Georgia's School of Social Work to create an MDiv/MSW where students learn to maximize their effectiveness by combining pastoral skills such as spiritual counseling with social work practices such as family therapy and community assessment.

Our student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. 475 students are enrolled, with 51 percent women, 34 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 30. Students represent 39 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family. 83 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2016-2017, we awarded nearly $5.75 million in Candler scholarships, with 95 percent of MDiv students receiving aid and the average scholarship covering 73 percent of tuition. Plus, our comprehensive "Faith & Finance" program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

In fall of 2016, Candler welcomed to the faculty Larry Goodpaster as Bishop-in-Residence, and Kendall Soulen as Professor of Systematic Theology. Also this fall, three Candler alumni began their terms as newly elected bishops in the Southeastern Jurisdiction: David Graves 90T in Alabama-West Florida, R. Lawson Bryan 75T 85T in South Georgia, and Sue Hauptert-Johnson 95T in North Georgia.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

www.mtso.edu

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you an update from MTSO. Here are a few highlights from a busy year.

Recognition as a "bright spot" in theological education

Auburn Seminary recognized MTSO among a small number of seminaries in its September report, "Bright Spots in Theological Education: Hopeful Stories in a Time of Crisis and Change." Auburn is a leadership development institute seeking to equip leaders of faith and moral courage to inspire positive change in the world. The report details the "leap of faith" that began with MTSO's founding of Seminary Hill Farm and extends to an array of commitments to ecology and social justice.

Major Luce Foundation grant

The Henry Luce Foundation awarded MTSO a three-year, $425,000 grant in December to support the establishment of the Seminary Environmental Leadership Initiative. The grant is shared by MTSO, the Interfaith Center for Sustainable Development, and the Green Seminary Initiative, a project of Drew Theological School and GreenFaith. A growing number of seminary leaders recognize the moral imperative to play a role in the care of God's creation, but they face significant challenges in addressing environmental issues on their own. The Seminary Environmental Leadership Initiative aims to establish best practices and offer resources for seminaries that wish to engage in environmental issues academically and institutionally.

Faculty appointments

MTSO welcomed two new faculty members in January. Elaine Nogueira-Godsey serves as assistant professor of theology, ecology and race. She comes to MTSO from the University of Johannesburg in South Africa, where she was a post-doctoral research fellow. Francesca Nuzzolese is associate professor of pastoral care and counseling. Most recently she was associate professor of pastoral care and spiritual formation at Palmer Theological Seminary and Eastern University in Philadelphia.

New course at National Underground Railroad Freedom Center

MTSO offered a special graduate course, "Race, Religion and Nation: From Black Power to Black Lives Matter," at the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in January. The class offered a historical exploration of the Black Lives Matter movement and its precursors, including Black Power activism, hip hop music and culture, and the presidency of Barack Obama. It was offered through MTSO's cooperative relationship with the Freedom Center.

REPORTS OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

LIFE ENRICHING COMMUNITIES (LEC)

www.lec.org

Growth dominated the landscape for Life Enriching Communities during 2016. After several years of planning and growing demand, Twin Lakes broke ground on a major expansion that includes 45 new independent living apartments with an underground parking garage, the Shirley M. Davies Community Center and a new casual dining venue all due to open in early 2018. Improvements to the Twin Towers campus included a new Art Studio/Conference Room and renovated Associate dining and lounge areas.

In early 2016, LEC introduced Confident Living, the first Continuing Care at Home program offered in Southwest Ohio. A membership program designed to help people live independently in their own homes as they age, Confident Living offers a way to protect savings and prepare for unexpected changes in health while providing innovative options to increase vitality and longevity.

Our organization's fiscal strength was acknowledged with a Standard & Poor's 'BBB' (negative outlook) investment grade credit rating, for the thirteenth consecutive year. In addition, Fitch rated the organization for the first time at 'BBB-' (stable outlook). The Fitch rating was utilized for LEC's $138,720,000 tax-exempt bond issue in October 2016. These bonds were used to refinance existing debt and also to fund the expansion of Twin Lakes.

The LEC Foundation secured over $1,077,000 in contributions, which included $256,000 to support benevolent care and $549,000 to build a community center at Twin Lakes.

The total expenditures for Life Enriching Communities (including Twin Towers and Twin Lakes) in Fiscal Year 2016 were $53,260,963 – 0.2% under budget. These expenses do not include a one-time loss of $4,686,350 related to the aforementioned refinancing of debt. 89% of all expenses were related to programs and ministry while 11% represented administrative costs.

Occupancy at Twin Lakes and Twin Towers held steady for 2016. Both communities were awarded 4 star ratings from the Center for Medicare/Medicaid Services for service and care provided to residents in long term care and short term rehabilitation.

Efforts in 2017 will focus on Phase 2 of the Twin Lakes expansion which includes the construction of a Memory Support Assisted Living building and an additional 22 new villa homes. LEC, Twin Towers, Twin Lakes and Confident Living have aligned goals that focus on expanding resident and customer access to information and services, eliminating staffing shortages, and operationalizing a fully integrated Compliance/Risk Management/Safety system throughout the organization.

We are thankful for the ongoing support of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church.

8. Hopes, dreams and goals for next 2-3 years

The biggest struggle we are facing company-wide is the shrinking (and not so ready, willing and able) labor pool. We are balancing meeting our residents' needs and providing excellent care against this factor. We have all become semi-experts in dealing with Millennials and their expectations, as they will be 80% of our workforce in the very foreseeable future.

Much of our “corporate energy” is focused on Wesley Woods at New Albany, our pro forma has set goals and occupancy rates for that campus, and we are working hard to meet those goals during this critical start-up phase.

OHIOHEALTH

Columbus, Ohio

Overview

As an extension ministry of the West Ohio Conference, OhioHealth includes 11 hospitals, agreements with 5 additional hospitals throughout Ohio, and more than 60 outpatient locations including health and surgery centers, home health services, hospice, long-term care facilities and occupational health services. In 2016, we were privileged to touch more than three million lives across the OhioHealth system, with 2.9 million outpatient visits, 166,508 admissions and observations and 499,234 emergency department visits.

Our ability to deliver the best possible healthcare is strengthened by the efficiencies and effectiveness inherent in a system approach. That is why we remain focused on connecting care across our many hospitals and locations to further extend the healthcare ministry of the West Ohio Conference.

Across our system, we see the ways healthcare is changing at the national and local levels. Regardless of changes in government funding, we believe that realistic and sustainable healthcare delivery system reform must be led by those who provide healthcare and must involve payors and consumers with a focus that includes prevention and wellness.

OhioHealth is well positioned to lead these changes by focusing on achieving consistent quality/safety, delivering a compassionate patient experience and reducing our costs. We believe in providing care that touches body, mind and spirit and in this way we remain dedicated to our faith-based mission to improve the health of those we serve.

Community Benefit

In 2016, OhioHealth provided Community Benefit totaling $296.6 million. This figure includes $61.1 million in charity care and $181.9 million in unreimbursed Medicaid costs. System-wide, OhioHealth trained 385 and fellows at a net medical education cost of $46.2 million. This is just one example of our continuous commitment to ensuring the future of our healthcare ministry and to improving the quality of care we provide.

Preserving Our Charitable Mission

Every dollar OhioHealth earns is reinvested in our communities to improve quality, increase access and enhance service to patients and their families. In addition to the charity care we provide each year, we also subsidize essential community health services that might not otherwise pay for themselves, including many local partnerships that makes services available to community friends in need.

- In 2016, we announced the Mom & Baby Mobile Health Unit, a partnership between the March of Dimes, OhioHealth and Third Street Family Health Services. This mobile health unit provides critical prenatal services to underserved expectant mothers of northern Richland County. Northern Richland County was chosen, because it has a higher-than-average poverty rate and lack of access to health care, particularly prenatal care.

Focus on Quality and Service

OhioHealth’s system-wide commitment to quality care and service was publicly acknowledged with a number of major awards and third-party recognition this past year, including the following:

- OhioHealth has been named one of the country’s “100 Best Companies to Work For” by FORTUNE Magazine for the tenth consecutive year.
- Truven Health Analytics named two of our hospitals, OhioHealth Doctors Hospital and OhioHealth Dublin Methodist Hospital, to the 100 Top Hospitals list.

Physicians Supporting Our Mission

OhioHealth’s more than 3,600 physician partners continue to play a vital role in supporting our healthcare ministry through research, innovations and collaborations. More and more, physicians are taking leadership roles within OhioHealth to help drive innovation and excellence in the care we deliver by identifying key opportunities to improve quality and consistency of care – resulting in better outcomes and reduced costs. Here are just a few examples:

- The Heart & Vascular service line is offering heart procedures like open-heart surgery and heart valve replacement as a “bundled payment” through Medicare. At OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital the results are impressive, with 90-day readmissions reduced by 35 percent and a total cost of care savings of more than $1 million.
- The Nephrology Clinical Guidance Council has launched a program to benefit indigent patients who need dialysis treatment and were turning to Emergency Departments up to three times a week. Now, they are being treated in a more appropriate setting, at outpatient dialysis centers, which has significantly lowered their total cost of care.

Growing with Our Communities

Because we believe that every patient, no matter who they are or where they are, deserves the very best care, we are extending our reach in communities that need greater access to specialized healthcare services. In 2016, OhioHealth:

- Announced the launch of a network of free-standing emergency departments in 2018, with Hilliard, Obetz and Grove City targeted for the first locations. The goal is to provide new, convenient access to emergency care for communities that haven't had it before.
- Opened OhioHealth Nelsonville Health Center, offering multiple onsite services – from urgent care and primary care physicians to imaging, lab and sleep services.
- Announced plans for a 26-bed surgical hospital and emergency department in Grove City.
- Announced plans to expand OhioHealth Grant Medical Center to enhance orthopedic, trauma and heart care.
- Announced new administrative office building to be built near OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital. The new office building will help consolidate about 1,200 employees currently working in buildings located all over central Ohio.

OhioHealth Foundation Supporting Our Mission

- Funds raised by the OhioHealth Foundation advance the OhioHealth family's shared commitment to meeting the community's health and wellness needs and to supporting a healthy and vibrant place to live. In 2016, more than $13 million was raised to provide medical care, health education, prevention and wellness services and research.

OTTERBEIN SENIOR LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Otterbein is a faith-based, not-for-profit ministry founded in 1912, serving older adults throughout Ohio. Otterbein provides a variety of lifestyle choices – independent living, assisted living, wellness services, memory-support, skilled nursing and rehabilitative care, home health and hospice – that respect independence, and enhance the quality of life and holistic growth of older persons.

Fundamental Goals and Expectations for 2016

In keeping with our United Methodist tradition, Otterbein's fundamental goals are to: optimize customer service, drive partner and resident satisfaction, constantly improve clinical quality and generate financial results that support a stable environment for those we serve.

Accomplishments for 2016

1. Extended the ministry of Otterbein by providing care for 11% more nursing patients and 22% more post-acute nursing patients (measured by average occupancy in 2016).
2. Created the opportunity for improvements in the quality of life of residents by dedicating:
 - 27 single family cottages (Lebanon campus)
 - A 46-unit independent living apartment building (Lebanon campus)
 - A Scatter Garden and monument as part of the Otterbein cemetery
 - A post-acute care and therapy neighborhood, and 24-unit assisted living building (Cridersville campus)
 - A Skilled Nursing & Rehab Neighborhood in Loveland Ohio (our ninth small house neighborhood)
 - Extensive renovation of all rooms and common areas, including the dining room, of our assisted living section (North Shore campus)
3. Broke ground on a new building opening 2017 - future home to a theatre, day-spa/salon, woodshop, art studio, media center, café and 45 apartments
4. Initiated One-Otterbein, a marketing focus providing hospitals and doctoral practices a single point of contact to all Otterbein ministries in a geography
5. Achieved preferred partner status with nearly every hospital offering such status in targeted geographies
6. Improved Otterbein star ratings, quality metrics and case mix scores to levels well beyond state and federal standards
7. Achieved "HomeCare Elite Status" and extended Home Health and Hospice care in SW Ohio
8. Kicked off development of a new 4-year strategic plan
9. Increased mission-based "volunteerism" by 10%, to 72,400 hours

Budget/Expenditures for 2016

Even while focused on the mission and quality of care, the Otterbein ministry increased annual revenue to $116 million, plus 10%, and generated $4.8 million in operating income. Standard & Poor's reaffirmed Otterbein's "A" stable rating." Total expenditures were just over $110 million with over 80% invested in improving and extending the ministry.

Strategic Goals and Expectations for 2016

- Continue to enhance existing lifestyle communities - capital improvements and the type, range and quality of services provided
- Build exceptional post-acute nursing and home health services, including extensions to facilities and services in existing ministries and expansion into new ministries
- Champion the liberation of elders in long-stay nursing, across all locations
- Expand "in the home" home and community-based care services

Hopes and Dreams

Otterbein's hopes and dream are contained in our fundamental and strategic goals, but ultimately focus on our mission – "In keeping with our United Methodist tradition, we seek to enhance the quality of life and holistic growth of older persons."

UMCH FAMILY SERVICES

As Executive Director of UMCH Family Services (formerly, The United Methodist Children's Home), a Ministry of The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, I, Sean Reilly, respectfully submit this report for the calendar year 2016.

Mission:

The Mission of the United Methodist Children's Home is to strengthen our community by providing care, nurture and treatment to strengthen hurting children and families.

Accomplishments for 2016:

2016 continued to be a time of expansion for UMCH Family Services. In 2016 our report hoped to achieve an 80% effectiveness rate in our major programs and expand the number of children we serve by 10% or more. We exceeded our goals in all areas. We served over 1900 children and families up from just over 1200 in 2015, a nearly 60% increase. The mission of UMCH Family services has continued to focus on reaching more children in more places by providing homes, creating homes and preserving homes through all of the programs we offer. We continue to utilize technology and are providing care in sites 100 miles away through the internet. We opened a new cutting edge treatment facility closer to the heart of the populations we serve in downtown Columbus. We presented at an international conference on the best available treatments for the children and families we serve, those struggling with poverty, abuse and neglect and serious mental disorders. We are reaching out to more counties and recruiting foster homes across our communities.

UMCH in 2016

The following provides a brief snapshot of 2016 and the services provided by UMCH Family Services. We provided services and support to over 1900 of Ohio's at-risk children and families through one or more programs in 2016, an almost 60% increase from last year.

Our financial position continues to be strong. We experienced several one - time events in 2016 resulting in a deficit for year-end.

- Our 2016 audited financial statements show revenue of $5,101,960 with expenses of $5,376,483.
- Over 90% of our expenses were for direct programs to children

With the support of our generous donors and others, we expect revenues of $5,730,000 with a surplus of $138,000 in 2017.

Foster Care Services

The Foster Care program provided care and treatment to over 161 children in 2016, an increase of over 10%. We continue to be successful in expanding our recruiting for the program in an effort to provide more foster families across the conference and the state. Our two most recent recruiting classes will add 20% more homes.

Adoption Services

UMCH Family Services continues to expand Adoption Services. 24 children were adopted in 2016, a 40% increase from 2015. Agency staff continues to match children and families from Toledo to Cincinnati and from Cleveland to Marietta. We are currently serving over 30 children in our post adoption program and have over 40 parents searching for foster children. Once we match them we will help them all through the adoption process.

Outpatient Services

During 2016, UMCH Family Services provided outpatient mental health treatment and counseling services to over 1813 children and families. We have expanded our capacity to offer more psychiatric services in 2016. We have opened 3 additional sites to better serve our mission. School and agency staff are trained together to better offer services to the children and families we serve. We continue to offer psychiatric services through the internet to children in the Dayton area, thus eliminating a six month wait for some families due to the shortage of services available.

In 2017 we hope to:

- Expand our services to reach an additional 10% or more, children and families
- Preserve 80% or more of the families who so desperately need our help
- Return more than 80% of our foster children to home, kin or adoption
- Expand our Foster Care program to more counties in the Conference

In 2016, as always, the churches of the West Ohio Conference have helped us reach more children and families than ever before. With God's help we will continue to provide homes through our foster care program, find homes through our adoption programs and preserve and strengthen homes through our many mental health services.

I continue to be grateful to our wonderful staff, trustees, donors, churches, friends and families who make this ministry of caring for children possible.

Sincerely,

Sean Reilly
Executive Director

OHIO COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

Mission Statement

The mission of the Ohio Council of Churches is to make visible the unity of Christ's church, provide a Christian voice on public issues, and engage in worship, education and service.

Our Life Together in 2016

Networking and partnering: with Ohio Interfaith Power and Light (OhIPL), Ohio Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster, UHCAN, (Universal Health Care Action Network), Ohio Consumers for Health Care, Coalition for the Common Good (poverty), Faith in Public Life, Drug Free Action Alliance, Ohio Catholic Conference, Ohioans to Stop Executions, and the Mershon Center at OSU. We have built relationships with the Jewish, Muslim, and other world religious communities in Ohio. We have assured those communities that we stand with them against bigotry and hate. We also partner with other organizations who have parts of Appalachia in their states.

Building relationships: among bishops and executive leaders of the Council; convening regional groups of church leaders. We co-sponsored a Faith-Climate Action day at the Statehouse as well as an Earthkeeping Summit with OhIPL; an evening with Shane Claiborne, an activist and author, with OTSE; and an interfaith gathering to address current hate crimes and gun violence.

Public Policy: A Legislative Brief goes out monthly with information about current concerns. The Public Policy director often gives testimony and follows issues. Issues addressed were: mental health, the death penalty, hunger, Payday lending, unemployment compensation, Ohio Foodbanks, Summer Food Programs, gun control, redistricting, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, healthcare, voting rights for those with criminal convictions.

CareWorks (our managed care organization) and CareWorksComp (worker's compensation) provide lower rates for 650 churches connected with the Council.

We have been present at annual meetings of regional bodies. Mass incarceration was addressed at two board meetings in 2016. Racism is the focus for 2017. We have been counted on as a vital partner in addressing civil discourse. Our voice is requested many times through the year. The staff of the Council serves on the Ohio Global Leadership team, as a part of the US Global Leadership Campaign.

Thanks be to God for life together as the Body of Christ known as the Ohio Council of Churches!

PREACHER'S RELIEF SOCIETY

All active clergy members in the West Ohio Conference licensed by the West Ohio Conference and in good standing are eligible for membership in the Preacher's Relief Society (herein called the Society or P.R.S.)

Recognized as an affiliated Member Organization of the Conference, P.R.S. was first organized in 1837 by clergy to help minister to fellow clergy members and their families with unforeseen catastrophic expenses from health, death, fire, flood, or other circumstances beyond their financial control. This forerunner of our denominational pension and health care network continues to fill a widening gap in medical coverage for dental work and other out of pocket expenses along with other needs mentioned above. To join the Society it costs $25 the first year with annual dues of $25.00 given every spring. Retirees and those over 72 are ineligible to join. Retiree Society members and deceased member spouses pay no dues for continued membership.

Churches wishing to honor their pastor can sponsor them into membership. For more information or answers to questions contact Membership Secretary, Rev. Sharon Hausman 9822 Bradysville Road, Aberdeen, Ohio 45101 or by phone 740-621-0973 or by Email pastor.sharon62@gmail.com

Grants are available through treasurer Darrel Loar for members and their families who are members of P.R.S. Consideration is given according to the amount of need from out of pocket expenses presented on grant application blanks.

In 2016 the Society issued 21 grants to members defraying needs in the amount of $43,954. In the past three years the Society has given a total in excess of $100,000 to many different needy clergy. These funds come from interest and dividends in the permanent capital fund. Additional gifts to this fund are tax deductible as a recognized 501-c-3 organization. Our goal as a Society is to be available to help all clergy who are willing to join this long standing organization.

Current P.R.S. membership is 323 clergy members and spouses of deceased clergy members.

M. Joseph Miller, Chairperson of P.R.S. Board of Directors.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNITED METHODIST CHURCH SECRETARIES

Vicki Miller, President – vmiller@firstchurchnewark.org

Ohio PAUMCS –Strong and growing!

The Ohio Association of United Methodist Church Secretaries (PAUMCS) is dedicated to recognizing and affirming the position of church secretary, administrative assistant, office manager etc with the local church in a formal organization and providing continuing education to expand the office professional. This is done through training, networking and supporting the fostering of a more professional work relationship between local church staff, clergy, district and conference staffs.

In 2016, membership increased, bylaws were revised to reflect the changing culture of church work and continuing education opportunities at a Spring Meeting and a Fall Conference held around Ohio – including East and West Ohio churches. Craig Catlett, of the training and development staff at UM Communications in Nashville provided communication and web site training in the Spring and Sue Thompson, Executive Assistant to Rev. Adam Hamilton provided tips and techniques to assist pastors and all church staff in being effective in their positions.

Ohio PAUMCS supports its membership with scholarships to attend the meetings. Additional support of mission and UMCOR projects such as the Flint, Michigan water crisis and the floods in West Virginia and spiritual renewal were included as break-out sessions at the meetings. Members also attended national convention, returning with training and networking opportunities.

Our goals for 2017 are to continue to educate and foster the recognition of the value of the local church secretary, administrative assistant and others serving in similar positions. The local church staff needs to support each other, work together in a professional and mutually respectful atmosphere to make disciples for Christ and promote the growth of United Methodist.

Membership is minimal at $25 individual or $40 staff and meeting registrations are usually less than $25 for quality training and speakers. Watch for the Spring and Fall 2017 registrations as you follow us on our Face book page at facebook.com/Ohio-PAUMCS. We have place for you.
